United Fund's Campaign Begins

The 1967 East Liverpool area United Fund campaign got off to an official start today with a goal of $125,000.

James McGowan, president, is shown holding a symbolic ball for John Starkey, co - chairman of the drive, for a "kickoff" of the effort to raise funds for 15 welfare, health and character - building organizations.

Six firms already have pledged their "fair shares," according to Starkey — Patterson Industries, Homer Laughlin China Co., Montgomery Ward & Co., Potters Savings & Loan Co., First National Bank and Potters Bank & Trust Co.

Early activities by volunteer workers have already brought in a total of $44,474 by today, Robert Sauer, co-chairman, reported.

All firms, organizations and individuals were urged to pledge their shares and make contributions as soon as possible so the drive can be completed in the scheduled two-week period, the co - chairmen said.

MIG Base Pounded

U.S. Planes Hit Former 'Off Limits' Viet Airfield

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Navy fighter-bombers struck a North Vietnamese MIG airfield near Haiphong Sunday, the sixth installation hit in five straght days of raids on targets once-ruled by the Pentagon as out of bounds for U.S. warplanes. The strike that dug wide craters into the French-built jet strip at Cat Bi left untouched only two bases in the North capable of launching MIG interceptors.

In the ground war, an American platoon fought out of a surrounded position in rainswept jungles and Communist mortarmen poured fire on the major Army-Navy base in the Mekong Delta.

Nearby in the delta, a 50-year-old Buddhist nun burned herself to death, a Saigon newspaper said, the second suicide by fire in a week during the drive by militant Buddhists to force the government to abandon a charter recognizing a moderate faction in the church.

The Cat Bi strike damaged a Soviet built liaison plane, but the U.S. Command said the carrier-based jets found no MIGs on the ground as they flew in "virtually unopposed."

The raid was part of a maximum U.S. effort to cripple the North before the monsoon rains start this month and cut flying time by as much as 75 per cent Since Wednesday, U.S. planes have also hit three bridges on supply routes from Red China and two fuel dumps, all previously barred as too sensitive to attack.

The two major MIG bases still on the forbidden list are the Gia Am installation and the big Phuc Yen base, which houses the North Vietnamese air force's major operations center and serves as headquarters for the air defense command. Both are near Hanoi.

The Communist Chinese New China News Agency claimed that 10 U.S. planes were shot down over North Vietnam Saturday. The U.S. Command said three planes were downed and four airmen missing.

Gov. Shafer Urges Halt To Violence

Aides Seen Hopeful Of Settlement Move In 2-Month Dispute

By BEN DE FOREST

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Representatives met today to try to find an end to the violent, two-month steel haulers strike. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania called for an end to "a campaign of terror" on the highways.

"This conference is designed to find the facts, put them in proper perspective and furnish the answer," Shafer said. "The protesters have made their demands. I intend to set forth some of my own.

"I demand that all violence end immediately. I demand that truck traffic proceed without incident.

"Those who would interpret the patience of the states as weakness are making grave miscalculation. No group, however just their claims might be, has the right to subject their fellow citizens to a campaign of terror."

Police Probe Deaths Of Teen-Ager, Man In Hippieland Area

NEW YORK (AP) — A 26-year-old man was arrested today in the bludgeon murders of a teen-age daughter of a wealthy Greenwich, Conn., family and a long-haired, tattooed man, whose bodies were found Sunday in the boiler room of a hippieland tenement.

Donald Ramsey, a Negro, who lives in the building, was ordered held for booking on a homicide charge by Asst. Dist. Atty. Daniel Harris.

The girl was identified by a stepsister as Linda Fitzpatrick, 18, daughter of Irving Fitzpatrick, president of the Knickerbocker Mills, a tea and spice import firm at Totowa, N.J.

The man, who had a police record in both New York City and New England, was identified as James Leroy Hutchinson, 21, of Central Falls, R.I.

Senator Supports Viet Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hugh Scott, a Republican moderate, endorsed President Johnson's Vietnam policies today and said "it is imperative that we do not undermine the stature of the President as commander-in-chief and as the nation's chief diplomat."

He said the Republican party should not "misconceive its role as to become a 'peace at any price' party."

The Pennsylvanian said he supports present policy because "I know of no better alternative."

His position contrasts with recent criticism of Johnson and his policies from such GOP moderates as Sens. Charles H. Percy of Illinois, Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky and Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, and Gov. George Romney of Michigan.

Scott's remarks were in a speech prepared for Senate delivery.

Scott said charges of a credibility gap in administration statements on Vietnam "can be remedied by greater candor with the American people within the legitimate bounds of national security.

"Meanwhile, I reiterate my own trust and confidence in the President in his persecution of our basic strategy in Vietnam, because I know that he is not deliberately trying to deceive the American people on such a serious matter."

In a speech to a Democratic fund-raising dinner Saturday night, Johnson said he knows he could boost his popularity by adopting policies aimed at getting the United States "out of trouble cheaply and fast"—but he said they would be irresponsible.

Democrats Set To OK Chicago As Site For Convention In 1968

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats officially ratify today President Johnson's decision to forge a beachhead in the politically hostile Middle West with an August 1968 presidential nominating convention in Chicago.

The party's national committee scheduled speedy acceptance of a site committee's proposal to meet in a state with a Democratic governor and a city with a Democratic mayor—but in an area where the Republicans are in resurgency.

National Chairman John M. Bailey predicted Johnson would be renominated unanimously at the four-day extravaganza opening Aug. 25.

In a fight talk today, Bailey summoned the Democrats to back Johnson's Vietnam efforts "to prevent World War III."

The national chairman said while Johnson takes "the only position that makes sense" on Vietnam, most Republicans "are busy trying to win the 1968 election" by criticizing his actions.

In a thinly veiled reference to Democratic dissenters, Bailey told the Democrats: "Let's defend the President of the United States against those of his critics who are utterly unreasonable."

Bailey spoke out in a report prepared for a formal national committee session.

Gunman Gets Cash At Diner

Woman Threatened In Klondyke Theft

A young gunman escaped with an unknown amount in currency after menacing the woman proprietor of a Klondyke diner early today, police reported.

Mrs. Nellie Taylor was robbed at gunpoint at 5:32 a. m. in the Little Diner at Harvey Ave. and Myrtle St., officers said. The neatly - dressed young bandit then fled on Myrtle St. toward the Hall China Co. plant and eluded police pursuit.

Mrs. Taylor said the bandit pressed the muzzle of a small pistol against her ribs and warned: "I am not joking. I will kill you." Then, she said, he opened the register and remov-

Nov. 3 Rites Scheduled For Britain's Lord Attlee

LONDON (AP) — The ashes of Clement Attlee, father of the British welfare state, will be placed in Westminster Abbey, burial place of the nation's sovereigns and statesmen.

Attlee, prime minister from 1945 to 1951, died Sunday in a London hospital after a long illness. He was 84.

No date has been scheduled for the cremation but Nov. 3 has been tentatively set for the Westminster Abbey service.

Tributes continued to pour in from all over the world today. India's President Zakir Husain sent a message of condolence to Queen Elizabeth II praising the man under whose administration India received her independence.

The Queen said Attlee "made an enduring place for himself in

The home team won, teeth down.

The eaters — five to a team—representing Penn, Drexel Institute of Technology and Temple University, squared off in the plaza of Penn's Student Union building.

Army Maj. John Strum, of nearby Elkins Park, won the speed contest by drowning 17 of the 12-inch pizzas in ten minutes.

Joel Silverman, a junior in the Wharton School from Woodmere, N. Y., took the endurance contest by putting away four pies between 2 p.m. and 4:45 p.m.

Penn won the team endurance contest by eating 14½ pies, compared to 11½ for Drexel and 7 for Temple.

Vigil Appears To Pay Off In Clash On Landscaping

A vigil by Mrs. Ruby Ingram, developer of the Sunrise Hills housing development in Industry, to obtain a written agreement on landscaping from a pipeline company has finally paid off.

Mrs. Ingram launched her vigil Thursday night in an effort to halt work by the Buckeye Pipeline Co. of Lima, Ohio, through Plan II of the development. She wanted a written agreement from the firm that it would replace the land in the condition in which it was found.

The company is replacing an 8-inch main with a 10-inch main. Seven years ago the company worked on lines in Plan I of Sunrise Hills and although supposed to landscape the area, the firm spread dirt two feet deep on the road, Mrs. Ingram charges.

Dog Owner Promises To Get Tag Next Time

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Jody Curtis says next time she'll buy a dog license.

Mrs. Curtis was arrested last week and put in jail for half a day for failing to get a license for Peaches, a pooch of undetermined ancestry.

"I wasn't about to pay it," the 20-year-old mother said after a friend bailed her out. "I didn't even have the dog anymore."

Mrs. Curtis said she gave Peaches away three months ago—after the city sent her the first warning about the license. But the warnings kept coming, and Mrs. Curtis kept ignoring them until she was arrested.

Mrs. Curtis has another dog now, Missy, Peaches daughter. She says she'll buy Missy a license when the dog reaches the legal licensing age.

Dog Owner Promises To Get Tag Next Time

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Jody Curtis says next time she'll buy a dog license.

Mrs. Curtis was arrested last week and put in jail for half a day for failing to get a license for Peaches, a pooch of undetermined ancestry.

"I wasn't about to pay it," the 20-year-old mother said after a friend bailed her out. "I didn't even have the dog anymore."

Mrs. Curtis said she gave Peaches away three months ago—after the city sent her the first warning about the license. But the warnings kept coming, and Mrs. Curtis kept ignoring them until she was arrested.

Mrs. Curtis has another dog now, Missy, Peaches daughter. She says she'll buy Missy a license when the dog reaches the legal licensing age.

Man Beaten Near Tavern

Edgar Rice, 44, of 942 Dresden Ave., East Liverpool, received head injuries about 12:30 a. m. Sunday when he was beaten by three men outside a Negley tavern.

Sheriff's Deputy Dave Brothers said Rice told him the men closed in on him when he left the tavern and mauled him in the dark parking lot. He was not robbed.

Brothers said Rice could give no reason for the attack and could not describe the men or their car. The deputy said Rice had a laceration above the left eye and a swelling and small cut on the right side of the head.

Rice said he has gone to the tavern with an East Liverpool man he knows only as "Ralph." After the beating, Rice hitchhiked to East Palestine and went to the police station where officers gave him first aid and called the Sheriff's office.

Strike Action Delayed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Capital University's nonacademic employes postponed a strike deadline Saturday until 12:01 a.m. Oct. 16—the fourth postponement of a threatened walkout by the 40 workers.

John H. Tittle, business agent for Local 1632, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, said the latest postponement is to give Capital more time to study the union's demands for recognition, a grievance procedure and checkoff of union dues from paychecks.

15 Agencies In Area Need Everyone's Contribution

Capt. Richard Bosh, head of the citadel here, says the services are based on the Army's motto: "Heart to God, and Hand to Man."

Capt. Bosh explains, "Not only do the immediate wants have to be met, the Army endeavors to find the need which is not so apparent, whether it be physical, emotional or spiritual."

The Army is one of 15 agencies served by the East Liverpool United Fund drive which got under way this week.

Son Of Magnate Ordained, Awaits Baptist Position

WOLFVILLE, N.S. (AP) — MacPherson Eaton, son of Cleveland Industrialist Cyrus Eaton, has been ordained a Baptist minister at the age of 42.

The Rev. Mr. Eaton said in an interview he chose his new career after years of "living with the average working man."

He said he looks forward to his first appointment in the next few weeks "hopefully in a depressed area."

The Rev. Mr. Eaton, whose father is a multimillionaire, said he "outfitted" himself for work in depressed areas and recalled he had worked in many fields.

"I worked in a service station," he said. "I was a test driver for the Goodyear Co. in Arizona. I held several labor jobs."

He was ordained Friday in the United Baptist Church at nearby Chester. The Rev. Mr. Eaton, married and the father of a daughter and two sons, settled permanently in Nova Scotia in 1945, becoming a Canadian citizen in 1955. He is a native of Cleveland.

Cadillac for 1968 elegance in action

The master builder of the V-8's introduces the fourth great V-8 engine design in motoring history.

Automotive critics are highly enthusiastic about the 1968 Cadillacs equipped with the totally new 472 V-8 engine.

The largest, smoothest engine ever put into a production passenger car, its quiet operation is remarkable, its response in traffic surprising and its stamina on the turnpike truly amazing! Its torque, or usable power, surpasses that of any other passenger car engine.

The debut of the new 472 V-8 engine marks the fourth time Cadillac has led the industry with a major V-8 engine development. The first time was in 1914, when the first production V-8 was lowered onto a Cadillac chassis.

Each of the 11 new 1968 Cadillacs has the new 472 V-8. Test-drive one soon—and enjoy a truly exciting discovery.

Your 'Fair Share'

What is your "Fair Share" of the United Fund?

How do you figure out how much you will contribute to the United Fund when the campaign begins each October?

You give to the church. You give to one or two favorite charities which perhaps aren't in United Fund. But how much to U.F.?

Think of the youngsters, the needy, the unfortunate, the men in service, the elderly, the ill who are aided here and across the nation and world by the 15 agencies served by U.F.

Think of the number of house-to-house solicitors, mail appeals, telephone calls you once endured in the separate campaigns by the participating agencies.

Recall the number of times you were asked to help on the different drives.

Consider the mounting costs of operations, the broadening programs of each of the agencies.

Your "fair share" is important — not to the United Fund workers giving their time and talent, not to the agency staffers, but to the men, women and children who depend upon the help, guidance, inspiration and services of the U.F. agencies.

Some people did not give their "fair share" last year, and the campaign did not meet its goal, although many, many people gave more than they were asked.

This year the goal's the same — for many, the need's greater. Your "fair share" might be bigger than last year.

Financial Crisis Must Be Met

He has refused to recommend federal spending cuts in exchange for congressional consideration of the 10 per cent income tax surcharge he has proposed.

He is right about one thing. He said the executive branch "cannot spend one dollar" without authorization from Congress.

Now is the time for Congress to exercise its option. It won't be easy. Cutting could cost votes.

We believe Congress will rise to the occasion. Something far more important is at stake here than votes. The financial crisis is critical.

Steps now contemplated by Congress will have a direct bearing on the immediate situation. But action or inaction by congressmen will affect the financial future of the United States as well.

Congress' reluctance to continue the tradition of tax-spend-elect indicates a willingness to inject financial responsibility into handling of federal funds. We hope this is not an illusion.

We are about to find out. Now that the President has made his no-cut position clear, the ball is back in the hands of Congress.

Congress can set a precedent of reducing expenditures when the government is out of funds, instead of digging a little deeper into the taxpayers pocket.

A few congressmen have flashed a red light about citizen opposition to "hardships" that would be inflicted by spending cuts. Forget it.

We are mired in a long and costly war and our spending policy is leading us dangerously close to loss of confidence in the dollar in international money circles.

A tax increase without severe spending cuts can only perpetrate and therefore, magnify the problem.

Toward A Gun Control Law

The latest chapter in the continuing story of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd's firearms control bill describes a move to add an amendment to overcome the opposition of sportsmen.

The amendment would permit states to pass legislation exempting their residents from restrictions on buying rifles and shotguns by mail order.

Those people sincerely interested in firearms control should forget the Dodd bill and come up with a new one.

Shooting clubs and conservation groups across the nation would line up behind sensible legislation to keep firearms out of the hands of juveniles and place restrictions on mail order buying.

Some already have indicated support for legislation of this type. These organizations are made up of good, law-abiding citizens who can see the value of certain types of restrictions.

What they don't want is legislation aimed at bad citizens that imposes hardships on good citizens without accomplishing its goals.

We must not lose sight of the fact that part of the opposition comes from gun sellers who don't want anything to cut into their business. Their opposition will remain strong.

It will take a coalition of concerned sportsmen and legislators to overcome the obstacles.

Not all sportsmen will get behind a modified gun control bill. Not all congressmen will lend it their support. But a combined effort by the pro gun control elements is a prerequisite to making it tougher for guns to get in the wrong hands.

They admit this will not solve all the problems related to the use of firearms. They do feel that buying limitations and stiffer penalties for improper use of guns will be a step toward solution while doing nothing will only compound it.

TRUMAN TWILL

Purely Personal Observations

New York City is raising midtown parking meter rates to 25 cents to discourage motorists. This makes me wonder what happened to my proposal for solving the parking problem in congested areas—forbid parking. Presto. No congestion. No anything.

I had not known until reading ads in "American Homes" that vinyl is being used for spouting, shutters, siding and window fittings, backed by the claim it never needs painting, never deteriorates, never warps.

The only good thing that can be said about deciduous trees is that no one can tell dead elms from living trees when the latter's leaves have fallen. From our hillside in RFD we see dozens of giant elms that have been destroyed by the dread Dutch elm disease.

On a shopping tour in Milan, Italy, last Christmas I "chose" the necktie my traveling companion wanted to give me for Christmas. It was a beauty. People are still admiring it, and I am beginning to like it as much as she did.

The way I feel when I see my young countrymen mucking through Vietnamese mud, carrying dead and wounded companons to rescue planes, I hope John Foster Dulles, wherever he is and whatever he's doing, is satisfied with his policy of containing Communism.

Every time I read about a bank employe making off with huge sums of money, I want to run to my bank and ask to see my money. Gosh, is it that easy to carry on hanky-panky in a banky-wanky?

In a vastly instructive book on crazy advertising of the past, I made this composure-shattering discovery — that claims now are being made for contraptions and conceptions that will look as ridiculous by hindsight as the claims of yesteryear.

I think our peerless leaders worrying about riot control should study the record of Paris "flics," famed abroad as the most efficient police in the world for quelling street disturbances.

'Anybody Home?'

Getting 'Square'

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON

Everyone talks about the hippie problem, but no one wants to do anything about it until it strikes home. I have a friend, whom I'll call Mrs. Jaffe. She has a son who is a devout hippie and two daughters who are very sympathetic to their brother's thinking. Her husband never takes his son seriously and for the past year or so the entire family has accused her of being "square."

Art Buchwald

Mrs. Jaffe finally got fed up fighting a lonely battle, so she decided to do something about it. One day last month around dinner time she walked into the living room barefooted, dressed in blue jeans and her hair tangled in all directions. She sat on the floor, placed a water pipe next to her, picked up a guitar and started to sing, "I want to get inside my brain so I can see my love again."

"Mother, what on earth are you doing?" one of her daughters cried.

"This is my thing," Mrs. Jaffe said. "From now on I'm dropping out and turning on."

Mr. Jaffe said, "Get off the floor. You look ridiculous."

"I'm tired of being treated like a cube," Mrs. Jaffe said. "You people have blown my mind and I dig."

SHE STARTED singing, "If I had a wish I'd smoke it with hashish."

Mrs. Jaffe's son looked at her nervously. "What's for dinner?"

Mrs. Jaffe got up and went over to a vase and took out the flowers. "Daffodils," she said, handing one to each member of the family. "You don't need food when you have flowers."

Mrs. Jaffe's other daughter said, "Mother, my boyfriend's coming over in a few minutes. You've got to stop this."

"I'm sure he's seen a teeny-bopper before. I'm sorry our pad isn't clean, but without dirt where is love?"

Mr. Jaffe said, "This is not very funny. This place looks like a pigsty."

"I can't help it. I was meditating my navel all day long."

"Mother," her daughter said, "how can you say things like that?"

"Does anybody have any grass for this water pipe?"

Her son, who had gone to his bedroom, came running out. "Where's my record machine?"

"I gave it away. Who cares about materialistic things? They only corrupt you."

"But my records."

"I'll play my guitar for you instead."

SHE SANG, "I'm going to run away from home so I can freak out all alone and go to pot on tea."

"I have to put on a clean dress if I'm going out," her daughter said.

I didn't wash your dress," Mrs. Jaffe said. "I don't think clean laundry should be part of our thing."

Mr. Jaffe said, "I'm going to call the doctor."

"Wonderful! He can join our love-in. We'll have all the neighbors over for a group grope."

"A group grope?" her daughter cried.

"Of course. Our family has been hung up for too long. Now if you eat all your flowers you can each have a banana for dessert."

'Rocky' Cheered By Unions

NEW YORK — At one moment the other day the only pickets around any of the far-flung Rockefeller properties were some striking Music Hall chorus girls who persisted in suffering, though the management beseeched them to return to work at increases ranging up to 41 per cent and a $7,020 starting salary which is some $820 higher than a school teacher's first year pay.

Victor Riesel

There was no doubt that the Rockefellers were befriending the working girls — and the working men, too. Those who doubt this fraternal liaison should have sat in on the gathering of some 1,000 cheering delegates to the New York State AFL-CIO convention in a grand ballroom not 10 minutes' jog from the picketing chorus girls.

As the nine-year governor, Nelson A. Rockefeller, strode into the ancient convention hall, the delegates cheered. When he was introduced to the men who represent 2 million members, in what is the world's largest regional labor unit, they rose and applauded — strenuously.

When he finished what was more a seminar in construction economics, urban problems and relief of traffic jams than a convention speech, they ganged him. Smiling, laughing, handshaking, he rushed over to the ubiquitous convention stalls and, in the presence of powerful labor leaders such as Harry Van Arsdale, leader of New York City's one million-member Central Labor Council, let himself be photographed pointing approvingly to signs proclaiming the virtues of unions such as the Amalgamated Clothing Wbrkers.

THERE HAS ALWAYS BEEN a new Nelson Rockefeller. But this was the newest. He was at his best creating his version of the new Republicanism. On the tables were mimeographed quuestionnaires polling the delegates on their choice for President of the U.S.: Nelson Rockefeller, Lyndon Johnson, Hubert Humphrey, Bob Kennedy, Richard Nixon, Ronald Reagan, George Romney, Mark Hatfield, Charles Percy, etc.

But Nelson Rockefeller ignored the poll. He ignored national issues. He ignored global politics. He talked neither of brainwashing nor of the credibility gap. For him at the moment there seemed to be no Vietnam. Not before this audience of influential, bread-and-butter labor leaders.

The governors theme was: More Growth and prosperity. Hundreds of thousands of jobs. New highways. An airport in each county. A highway in each sector. Millions of new cars. A multibillion dollar bond issue proposal which would cost each New Yorker just about $4 over a few years.

Throughout the hall, among the "ins" with whom "Rocky" talks so frequently and privately, there seemed no doubt that the governor would be the New York Republican' favorite son candidate at the G.O.P. nominating convention. There was no doubt among the sophisticates that Nelson Rockefeller wants the nomination. These labor men know of nationwide efforts to build methodically the same Rockefeller bread-and-butter, growth and prosperity money-wise image which he flashed from the convention dais.

MANY OF THESE THOUSANDS of labor men, the inner bedrock of mass unionism, know, for example, that the construction and building trades unions are quietly organizing for "Rocky."

Unnoticed, Peter Brennan, Chairman of the New York State Building and Construction Trades Council, is barnstorming the land for Rockefeller. Brennan, now an intimate of the governor, seeks out gatherings and official meetings of construction unions to urge them to pressure the Republican Party to send Rockefeller delegates to the convention.

To those in whom he confides, he appears to say — play it cool, let's see how Johnson is making out at home and abroad, in war and in peace next May or so.

Meanwhile his allies, in and out of labor, are not discouraged from jockeying him into a position from which he can whip it up around the last lap.

Tax Deadlock

By Joseph R. Coyne

Johnson, Mills All Tied Up

WASHINGTON

While the Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Cardinals battle in the baseball World Series, two other teams are battling in a more serious game over taxes and spending. The score is now firmly deadlocked.

The team managers are President Johnson and Chairman Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee. Their dugouts are 16 blocks apart—the distance from the Capitol to the White House.

The first pitch was tossed Aug. 3 when Johnson proposed a 10 per cent surcharge on individual and corporate income taxes. The administration promised $2 billion in spending cuts from civilian programs.

The ball was pitched back to the White House last week by the Ways and Means Committee. It temporarily shelved the surcharge plan by a 20-5 vote pending an agreement with the administration on spending cuts.

BUT JOHNSON whacked the ball right back late in the week, contending it's up to Congress to make cuts in a budget he considers already free from fat.

The administration applied a squeeze play about the same time. The Defense Department froze all new contracts for construction unrelated to the Vietnam war at military bases and on Army Engineer programs — the so-called pork barrel projects of river and harbor development.

The rival managers, through public statements and news conferences, repeatedly spelled out their positions as the week wore on but stuck to their original lineups.

Johnson said he wouldn't yield to congressional demands for his spending cuts as the price of reviving the surcharge. Mills called for an overhaul in spending philosophy, not just now but for the future.

Then Saturday the White House confirmed the President had ordered Wednesday a temporary freeze on all federal spending commitments except for national defense and vital health and welfare programs, pending an end to the budget battle.

But the move was called only a holding action — not any kind of spending cut designed to answer the congressional demand that Johnson strike out some dollar signs.

But on the sidelines, some government economists who insist they know nothing about the ins and outs of politics, said they felt a tax increase would eventually be approved.

"The only question is the timing and the size," one analyst said. "I expect it to be awfully close to what the President wants."

CHAIRMAN GEORGE Mahon, D-Tex., of the House Appropriations Committee, could hold the key to the deadlock which might make both teams happy.

The signals could have been called not at a baseball game but at a round of golf Mahon played with Johnson two weeks ago, the President's first golfing in some time.

Mahon plans to scrutinize anew all appropriation bills in hopes of trimming more money. It's expected to bring postponements and deferrals of spending.

If that fails to satisfy the Mills' team, the tie could be broken later this month when the temporary spending authority of most government departments expires unless their appropriation bills are adopted.

Republicans, who earlier failed to tack a blanket ceiling on spending, are expected to try again at that time.

Meantime, some of the pro-administration fans expect Johnson to marshall his team quietly and win the day as he did so frequently in earlier political battles.

Your 'Fair Share'

What is your "Fair Share" of the United Fund?

How do you figure out how much you will contribute to the United Fund when the campaign begins each October?

You give to the church. You give to one or two favorite charities which perhaps aren't in United Fund. But how much to U.F.?

Think of the youngsters, the needy, the unfortunate, the men in service, the elderly, the ill who are aided here and across the nation and world by the 15 agencies served by U.F.

Think of the number of house-to-house solicitors, mail appeals, telephone calls you once endured in the separate campaigns by the participating agencies.

Recall the number of times you were asked to help on the different drives.

Consider the mounting costs of operations, the broadening programs of each of the agencies.

Your "fair share" is important — not to the United Fund workers giving their time and talent, not to the agency staffers, but to the men, women and children who depend upon the help, guidance, inspiration and services of the U.F. agencies.

Some people did not give their "fair share" last year, and the campaign did not meet its goal, although many, many people gave more than they were asked.

This year the goal's the same — for many, the need's greater. Your "fair share" might be bigger than last year.

Financial Crisis Must Be Met

He has refused to recommend federal spending cuts in exchange for congressional consideration of the 10 per cent income tax surcharge he has proposed.

He is right about one thing. He said the executive branch "cannot spend one dollar" without authorization from Congress.

Now is the time for Congress to exercise its option. It won't be easy. Cutting could cost votes.

We believe Congress will rise to the occasion. Something far more important is at stake here than votes. The financial crisis is critical.

Steps being contemplated by Congress will have a direct bearing on the immediate situation. Any action or inaction by congressmen will greatly affect the financial future of the United States as well.

Congressional reluctance to continue the tradition of tax-spend-elect indicates a willingness to inject financial responsibility into handling of federal funds. We hope this is not an illusion.

We are about to find out. Now that the President has made his no-cut position clear, the ball is back in the hands of Congress.

Congress can set a precedent of reducing expenditures when the government is out of funds, instead of digging a little deeper into the taxpayers pocket.

A few congressmen have flashed a red light about citizen opposition to "hardships" that would be inflicted by spending cuts. Forget it.

We are mired in a long and costly war and our spending policy is leading us dangerously close to loss of confidence in the dollar in international money circles.

A tax increase without severe spending cuts can only perpetrate and therefore, magnify the problem.

Toward A Gun Control Law

The latest chapter in the continuing story of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd's firearms control bill describes a move to add an amendment to overcome the opposition of sportsmen.

The amendment would permit states to pass legislation exempting their residents from restrictions on buying rifles and shotguns by mail order.

Those people sincerely interested in firearms control should forget the Dodd bill and come up with a new one.

Shooting clubs and conservation groups across the nation would line up behind sensible legislation to keep firearms out of the hands of juveniles and place restrictions on mail order buying.

Some already have indicated support for legislation of this type. These organizations are made up of good, law-abiding citizens who can see the value of certain types of restrictions.

What they don't want is legislation aimed at bad citizens that imposes hardships on good citizens without accomplishing its goals.

We must not lose sight of the fact that part of the opposition comes from gun sellers who don't want anything to cut into their business. Their opposition will remain strong.

It will take a coalition of concerned sportsmen and legislators to overcome the obstacles.

Not all sportsmen will get behind a modified gun control bill. Not all congressmen will lend it their support. But a combined effort by the pro gun control elements is a prerequisite to making it tougher for guns to get in the wrong hands.

They admit this will not solve all the problems related to the use of firearms. They do feel that buying limitations and stiffer penalties for improper use of guns will be a step toward solution while doing nothing will only compound it.

TRUMAN TWILL

Purely Personal Observations

New York City is raising midtown parking meter rates to 25 cents to discourage motorists. This makes me wonder what happened to my proposal for solving the parking problem in congested areas—forbid parking. Presto. No congestion. No anything.

I had not known until reading ads in "American Homes" that vinyl is being used for spouting, shutters, siding and window fittings, backed by the claim it never needs painting, never deteriorates, never warps.

The only good thing that can be said about deciduous trees is that no one can tell dead elms from living trees when the latter's leaves have fallen. From our hillside in RFD we see dozens of giant elms that have been destroyed by the dread Dutch elm disease.

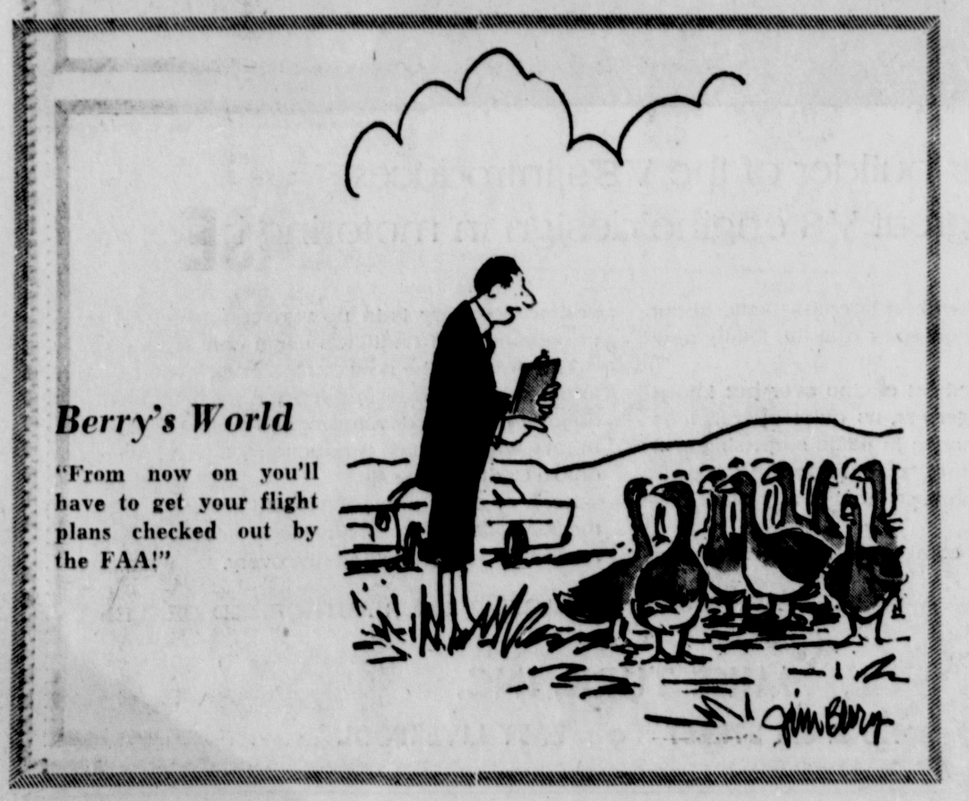
On a shopping tour in Milan, Italy, last Christmas I "chose" the necktie my traveling companion wanted to give me for Christmas. It was a beauty. People are still admiring it, and I am beginning to like it as much as she did.

The way I feel when I see my young countrymen mucking through Vietnamese mud, carrying dead and wounded companons to rescue planes, I hope John Foster Dulles, wherever he is and whatever he's doing, is satisfied with his policy of containing Communism.

Every time I read about a bank employe making off with huge sums of money, I want to run to my bank and ask to see my money. Gosh, is it that easy to carry on hanky-panky in a banky-wanky?

In a vastly instructive book on crazy advertising of the past. I made this composure-shattering discovery — that claims now are being made for contraptions and conceptions that will look as ridiculous by hindsight as the claims of yesteryear.

I think our peerless leaders worrying about riot control should study the record of Paris "flics," famed abroad as the most efficient police in the world for quelling street disturbances.



'Anybody Home?'

Getting 'Square'

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON

Everyone talks about the hippie problem, but no one wants to do anything about it until it strikes home. I have a friend, whom I'll call Mrs. Jaffe. She has a son who is a devout hippie and two daughters who are very sympathetic to their brother's thinking. Her husband never takes his son seriously and for the past year or so the entire family has accused her of being "square."

Art Buchwald

Mrs. Jaffe finally got fed up fighting a lonely battle, so she decided to do something about it. One day last month around dinner time she walked into the living room barefooted, dressed in blue jeans and her hair tangled in all directions. She sat on the floor, placed a water pipe next to her, picked up a guitar and started to sing, "I want to get inside my brain so I can see my love again."

"Mother, what on earth are you doing?" one of her daughters cried.

"This is my thing," Mrs. Jaffe said. "From now on I'm dropping out and turning on."

Mr. Jaffe said, "Get off the floor. You look ridiculous."

"I'm tired of being treated like a cube," Mrs. Jaffe said. "You people have blown my mind and I dig."

SHE STARTED singing, "If I had a wish I'd smoke it with hashish."

Mrs. Jaffe's son looked at her nervously. "What's for dinner?"

Mrs. Jaffe got up and went over to a vase and took out the flowers. "Daffodils," she said, handing one to each member of the family. "You don't need food when you have flowers."

Mrs. Jaffe's other daughter said, "Mother, my boyfriend's coming over in a few minutes. You've got to stop this."

"I'm sure he's seen a teeny-bopper before. I'm sorry our pad isn't clean, but without dirt where is love?"

Mr. Jaffe said, "This is not very funny. This place looks like a pigsty."

"I can't help it. I was meditating my navel all day long."

"Mother," her daughter said, "how can you say things like that?"

"Does anybody have any grass for this water pipe?"

Her son, who had gone to his bedroom, came running out. "Where's my record machine?"

"I gave it away. Who cares about materialistic things? They only corrupt you."

"But my records."

"I'll play my guitar for you instead."

SHE SANG, "I'm going to run away from home so I can freak out all alone and go to pot on tea."

"I have to put on a clean dress if I'm going out," her daughter said.

I didn't wash your dress," Mrs. Jaffe said. "I don't think clean laundry should be part of our thing."

Mr. Jaffe said, "I'm going to call the doctor."

"Wonderful! He can join our love-in. We'll have all the neighbors over for a group grope."

"A group grope?" her daughter cried.

"Of course. Our family has been hung up for too long. Now if you eat all your flowers you can each have a banana for dessert."

Two Cited In Mishaps Investigated By Patrol

A 16-year-old Lisbon youth was cited for speeding and a Perrysville woman for failure to yield to the right - of - way in two area accidents investigated by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon over the weekend.

Raymond Robert Donnalley of Lisbon RD 3 escaped serious injury Saturday at 1:30 a.m. when he lost control of his 1955 sedan on Route 154, 4 miles west of Rogers. Donnalley was westbound when his car rounded a curve and left the north side of the road. The auto traveled 176 feet, came back on the highway, traveled broadside for about 107 feet, slid off the south side into an embankment, then came back onto the road, turning over and coming to rest on its roof.

Donnalley was asked to see his family doctor.

MRS. HELEN Fern Young of 124 Pleasant St., Perrysville, was cited Sunday night at 8:05 on Route 164, east of the Lisbon limits, when she crashed a stop sign and collided with another auto.

Mrs. Young was driving her 1962 sedan south when she drove through the intersection of Routes 164 and 517 and struck a 1964 station wagon driven by Claude Monroe Kidder of Lisbon RD 1.

A passenger in the Young auto, Maudama Aber of 1st St. Perrysville, was treated and released at Salem City Hospital.

In other accidents over the weekend, on Route 558, west of Route 517 in the East Palestine area at 1:50 Sunday night, David R. Chiassoin, 20, of 110 W. Market St., East Palestine, was the driver of a 1960 sedan that went out of control and struck a ditch and a fence.

Chiassoin was not cited nor injured.

RONALD Lellie Thomas Jr. 16, of 411 McLain Rd., Wellsville, complained of injuries when his 1959 compact car failed to negotiate a curve on Route 45 north of Wellsville Saturday and rolled over.

Thomas was not treated and no arrest was made.

The accident was timed at 12:05 a. m.

A New Waterford man was cited for speeding Saturday evening when he lost cnotrol on County Rd. 421 and struck a fence.

Warren Edward Ford, 22, was southbound when he crested a hill at a high rate of speed, went off the left side and sideswiped the fence.

Group Names New Officers

Mrs. Glen Witherow was elected president when Mrs. Alice McGahan entertained the Elwood Farm Women's Club at the home of Mrs. Helen McClain of Carolina Ave., Chester, Friday night.

Other officers are: Mrs. William Williams, vice president; Mrs. Harry Mehaffey, secretary, and Mrs. Dewey Moore, treasurer. They will assume their duties in January.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. McGahan.

Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Witherow, Mrs. Mehaffey and Mrs. McClain presented readings and Mrs. McClain led a roundtable discussion on the lesson topic, "How to Buy Health Insurance."

Mrs. Eva Cecil presided.

Members presented better living projects to Mrs. McClain, chairman and plans were advanced for the annual Christmas dinner meeting Dec. 1 at McGheehan's Restaurant in Wellsville.

Lunch was served by the hostess and Mrs. McClain.

The next meeting will be Nov. 3 with Mrs. Elmer Wickham of Wellsville.

Portugal Fears Revolt By Group Of Military Men

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today Portuguese authorities are becoming increasingly concerned about a clandestine revolutionary organization seeking to overthrow the government of Prime Minister Antonio de Oliveira Salazar.

The Times said the organization is made up of armed forces officers and former military men and is reported to have carried out "two successful and highly professional commando actions to obtain money and arms."

The existence of the year-old "League of Union and Military Action," believed to have 50 to 75 members, "is fully known to the Portuguese authorities," the Times said.

The newspaper said foreign diplomats and Portuguese observers believe the league "should be regarded with considerable seriousness" on the basis of its initial successes.

These include a bank robbery in May said to have netted over $1 million and a raid on a military headquarters at Evora last month in which six submachine guns, six cases of ammunition and a number of revolvers were taken.

Officers Cite Driver For Riverview Crash

A 21-year-old East Liverpool driver was cited on a charge of improper backing after a two-car collision Saturday at 2:48 p. m. on Riverview St., 100 feet north of Highland St., police reported.

The collision involved a 1960 two - door sedan driven by John Leroy Weyand of Post Office Box 688, who was backing from a driveway onto Riverview St., and a 1963 four - door sedan operated by Richard D. Martin, 36, of 744 Avondale St., who was proceeding south on Riverview St.

Weyand was cited on the improper backing charge. He told police he did not see Martin's car in time to avoid a collision. The mishap damaged the right front fender and headlight of Martin's car and the left tail light of Weyand's auto, police said.

$600 In Fines Assessed

Man Gets 4-Month Term In Drunk Driving Charge

A Glenmoor man facing Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a drunken driving charge for the second time in less than eight months was fined a total of $600 and costs today and given a four-month term in County Jail.

The judge meted out the penalties to John T. Riley of Rankin St., Glenmoor, on charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol and operating a motor vehicle while his driver's permit was under revocation. He pleaded guilty to both counts.

Judge Chertoff fined Riley $300 and imposed a 60 - day jail term on each count. He decreed the jail terms will run consecutively, which means Riley will serve a minimum of 120 days. If he is unable to pay the two fines, it will mean approximately 210 more days to "lay out" the penalties.

RILEY WAS arrested Saturday at 10:02 p. m. on Dresden Ave. by Patrolman Paul Blevins. Questioned by the judge, he identified himself as a meat - cutter.

Examining Riley's record, the judge commented that he was convicted of drunken driving in the local court last Feb. 25. He questioned Riley about driving a car while his permit was under revocation.

"Didn't realize you were driving a car; how drunk can you get?" the judge exclaimed.

Six others paid fines and forfeits in traffic cases.

Glenn R. Helman, 25, of Blacks Rd., Lisbon, was fined $25 and costs on a charge of spilling cargo on a highway. He was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Saturday at 10:20 a. m. on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd. The patrol said gravel was spilling from the back of Helman's seven - ton dump truck.

Marvin R. Mays, 30, of RD 3 was fined $25 and costs on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance. He was cited by the patrol Sept. 30 at 11:05 a. m. on the Freeway near Substation after his auto struck an Ohio Highway Department truck which was stopped on the highway.

Lee W. Dalrymple, 39, of Elkhart, Ind., forfeited $17.50 on a charge of hauling an oversize load on a tractor-trailer. He was cited by the patrol Friday at 9:45 a. m. on Route 30.

TWO DRIVERS forfeited $17.50 bonds on speeding charges filed by local police. Albert C. Kaiser of Beaver Falls was cited this morning at 4:05 on Pennsylvania Ave. by Patrolman Karl W. Samples on a charge of driving 60 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone. Paul W. Standley of 306 Vine St. was cited Saturday at 12:51 a. m. on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." by Patrolman Jack Strobel on a charge of driving 65 in a 50-mile zone.

Donald R. Cowell, 29, of Bratenahl, Ohio, forfeited $17.50 on a charge of driving 70 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone. He was cited by the patrol Friday at 4:52 p. m. on Route 301.

Bud Grant, new coach of the Minnesota Vikings of the National Football League, spent 10 years as a coach in the Canadian Professional League.

Jury Selection Begins In Civil Rights Deaths

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP) — Jury selection begins today in the trial of 18 men charged in the deaths of three civil rights workers at Philadelphia, Miss., in 1964.

A special 350-member venire was summoned to federal court. About 200 were expected to remain after routine exemptions.

The charge, strongest possible under federal law, accuses the 18 of conspiracy to violate the civil rights of Michael Schwerner, 23, and Andrew Goodman, 20, both white New Yorkers, and James E. Chaney, 21, a Meridian Negro.

Maximum punishment under the 1870 Reconstruction-era law, is 10 years in prison and a $5,000 fine. No federal charge of murder can be brought except when the deaths occur on federal property.

No state charges ever were brought in the case.

Defendants include Neshoba County Sheriff Lawrence Rainey, 43, Chief Deputy Cecil Price, 28, Sheriff-elect Ethel Glen "Hop" Barnette, 47, all of nearby Philadelphia, and Sam Holloway Bowers Jr., 42, of Laurel, described as the imperial wizard of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

U.S. Dist. Judge Harold Cox, who dismissed the charges once only to have the U.S. Supreme Court overrule him, set strict procedures for newsmen and photographers covering the trial.

Among the restrictions on newsmen is that they cannot enter or leave the courtroom except during recess.

Signs on all corners tell news cameramen that the area, including the sidewalk, is off limits.

Both the prosecution and the defense were armed with a background study on each prospective juror.

The government said Deputy Price arrested the three victims on a speeding charge on June 21, 1964, held them at Philadelphia about four hours, then released them where they could be seized and murdered.

Masonic Group To Hold Dinner

The 100th anniversary of the East Liverpool Chapter 100 of Royal Arch Masons will be observed with a dinner followed by a chapter meeting Saturday at the temple on Broadway.

The dinner will begin at 6:30, with the meeting at 7:30, John T. Rayl, high priest, said.

Harvey Walker of Worthington, newly - elected grand high priest of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, will be guest speaker. He was elected during a ceremony last week at Dayton.

Reservations of all Royal Arch Masons must be made by today with T. F. Scheffer, secretary.

The chapter received its charter Oct. 12, 1867. Joshua Riddle was the first high priest. He was also the first worshipful master of Riddle Lodge 315 F. & A. M.

$600 In Fines Assessed

Man Gets 4-Month Term In Drunk Driving Charge

A Glenmoor man facing Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a drunken driving charge for the second time in less than eight months was fined a total of $600 and costs today and given a four-month term in County Jail.

The judge meted out the penalties to John T. Riley of Rankin St., Glenmoor, on charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol and operating a motor vehicle while his driver's permit was under revocation. He pleaded guilty to both counts.

Judge Chertoff fined Riley $300 and imposed a 60 - day jail term on each count. He decreed the jail terms will run consecutively, which means Riley will serve a minimum of 120 days. If he is unable to pay the two fines, it will mean approximately 210 more days to "lay out" the penalties.

RILEY WAS arrested Saturday at 10:02 p. m. on Dresden Ave. by Patrolman Paul Blevins. Questioned by the judge, he identified himself as a meat - cutter.

Examining Riley's record, the judge commented that he was convicted of drunken driving in the local court last Feb. 25. He questioned Riley about driving a car while his permit was under revocation.

"Didn't realize you were driving a car; how drunk can you get?" the judge exclaimed.

Sir others paid fines and forfeits in traffic cases.

Glenn R. Helman, 25, of Blacks Rd., Lisbon, was fined $25 and costs on a charge of spilling cargo on a highway. He was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Saturday at 10:20 a. m. on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd. The patrol said gravel was spilling from the back of Helman's seven - ton dump truck.

Marvin R. Mays, 30, of RD 3 was fined $25 and costs on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance. He was cited by the patrol Sept. 30 at 11:05 a. m. on the Freeway near Substation after his auto struck an Ohio Highway Department truck which was stopped on the highway.

Lee W. Dalrymple, 39, of Elkhart, Ind., forfeited $17.50 on a charge of hauling an oversize load on a tractor-trailer. He was cited by the patrol Friday at 9:45 a. m. on Route 30.

TWO DRIVERS forfeited $17.50 bonds on speeding charges filed by local police. Albert C. Kaiser of Beaver Falls was cited this morning at 4:05 on Pennsylvania Ave. by Patrolman Karl W. Samples on a charge of driving 60 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone. Paul W. Standley of 306 Vine St. was cited Saturday at 12:51 a. m. on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." by Patrolman Jack Strobel on a charge of driving 65 in a 50-mile zone.

Donald R. Cowell, 29, of Bratenahl, Ohio, forfeited $17.50 on a charge of driving 70 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone. He was cited by the patrol Friday at 4:52 p. m. on Route 301.

Bud Grant, new coach of the Minnesota Vikings of the National Football League, spent 10 years as a coach in the Canadian Professional League.

Jury Selection Begins In Civil Rights Deaths

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP) — Jury selection begins today in the trial of 18 men charged in the deaths of three civil rights workers at Philadelphia, Miss., in 1964.

A special 350-member venire was summoned to federal court. About 200 were expected to remain after routine exemptions.

The charge, strongest possible under federal law, accuses the 18 of conspiracy to violate the civil rights of Michael Schwerner, 23, and Andrew Goodman, 20, both white New Yorkers, and James E. Chaney, 21, a Meridian Negro.

Maximum punishment under the 1870 Reconstruction-era law, is 10 years in prison and a $5,000 fine. No federal charge of murder can be brought except when the deaths occur on federal property.

No state charges ever were brought in the case.

Defendants include Neshoba County Sheriff Lawrence Rainey, 43, Chief Deputy Cecil Price, 28, Sheriff-elect Ethel Glen "Hop" Barnette, 47, all of nearby Philadelphia, and Sam Holloway Bowers Jr., 42, of Laurel, described as the imperial wizard of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

U.S. Dist. Judge Harold Cox, who dismissed the charges once only to have the U.S. Supreme Court overrule him, set strict procedures for newsmen and photographers covering the trial.

Among the restrictions on newsmen is that they cannot enter or leave the courtroom except during recess.

Signs on all corners tell news cameramen that the area, including the sidewalk, is off limits.

Both the prosecution and the defense were armed with a background study on each prospective juror.

The government said Deputy Price arrested the three victims on a speeding charge on June 21, 1964, held them at Philadelphia about four hours, then released them where they could be seized and murdered.

Masonic Group To Hold Dinner

The 100th anniversary of the East Liverpool Chapter 100 of Royal Arch Masons will be observed with a dinner followed by a chapter meeting Saturday at the temple on Broadway.

The dinner will begin at 6:30, with the meeting at 7:30, John T. Rayl, high priest, said.

Harvey Walker of Worthington, newly - elected grand high priest of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, will be guest speaker. He was elected during a ceremony last week at Dayton.

Reservations of all Royal Arch Masons must be made by today with T. F. Scheffer, secretary.

The chapter received its charter Oct. 12, 1867. Joshua Riddle was the first high priest. He was also the first worshipful master of Riddle Lodge 315 F. & A. M.

Catherine Stanley Weds In Rites At Boyce Church

Miss Catherine J. Stanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stanley of 1971 Michigan Ave., became the bride of Seaman Charles D. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Jones of the Grimms Bridge Rd., in a double-ring ceremony Sept. 16 at the Boyce Methodist Church.

The Rev. Paul D. George, pastor, officiated before an altar of assorted palms. Mrs. Dorothy Golba, organist, accompanied Miss Sally Thompson, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Perfect Love."

THE BRIDE wore a full - length gown of cotton with a lace trim at the square neckline and edging the long sleeves. Her brief veil was held in place by nylon petals.

In keeping with family tradition, she carried a bouquet of 13 white roses, encircled with assorted other white flowers. Her mother and grandmother also carried 13 white roses. A sixpence was carried in her shoe.

Attendants were Miss Terry Stanley and Miss Nancy Stanley, sisters of the bride. They were attired in floor - length gowns of poudre bleu linen, designed similarly to the bride's. The dresses featured short, puffed sleeves. The girls wore Dior bows with brief veils.

Bouquets of yellow and white mums were carried by the attendants.

Mrs. Stanley wore a raspberry colored double knit. His mother chose an aqua wool ensemble accented with a satin bow. They wore white carnation corsages.

Also present were the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. George McGaffic; the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Clarence Stanley, and two great - grandmothers, Mrs. Myrtle Talbott and Mrs. Catherine McGaffic, for whom she was named. They all wore white carnation corsages.

A RECEPTION for 125 followed in the church hall. Aides were aunts of the bride, Miss Lynn McGaffic, Mrs. Dean DeLong, Mrs. Robert Thayer and Mrs. Clifford Oakes.

For a honeymoon to Niagara Falls, the bride chose a pale blue double knit dress with navy blue accessories. She wore a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

She was graduated from East Liverpool High School in 1967.

Jones, graduated from the High School in 1965, attended the Kent State Academic Center here. He is serving with the Navy.

The couple will reside in Long Beach, Calif.

the history of our country and the Commonwealth. In war and peace he served his sovereigns well."

Prime Minister Harold Wilson, who quit Attlee's Cabinet over a rearmament dispute in 1951, called his former leader "one of the greatest men of our generation. He brought a quiet and modest greatness to our public affairs."

President Johnson said Attlee "was a strong defender and champion of democracy and freedom. As a political leader and a creative humanitarian, he earned the admiration and respect of the entire world."

Attlee was first elected to Parliament in 1922 and was leader of the Labor party from 1935 to 1955, the longest tenure in the party's history. In 1940 he became Winston Churchill's deputy prime minister in a wartime coalition Cabinet.

In July 1945, Attlee led Labor to a sweeping election landslide seen as a mandate for domestic reconstruction in war-torn Britain. During his six years in office he instituted national health service and insurance plans, nationalized the steel industry, railways, the Bank of England, the gas industry and public transport.

The Labor party lost to Churchill's Conservatives in 1951. Attlee remained party leader until a stroke forced his retirement four years later.

He was elevated to the House of Lords as the first Earl Attlee, a title now inherited by his 40-year-old son. He is also survived by three daughters. Attlee's wife of 42 years died in 1964.

Welsh Poet Dies

SEATTLE (AP) — Vernon Phillips Watkins, a Welsh poet, collapsed and died Sunday while playing tennis at the University of Washington where he was a visiting English professor. He was 61.

Coroner's deputes said Watkins apparently suffered a heart attack.

Survivors include his widow, Gwendoline, and five children, three of whom accompanied their parents to Seattle recently from their home at Swansea, Wales.

ed all the currency, but left the change untouched.

He was carrying a small black pistol with white - colored grips on the handle, she related.

After obtaining the cash, the robber asked Mrs. Taylor if she had a telephone. She replied the only telephone was in a booth outside the diner. The youth left by the front door, turned right and disappeared onto Myrtle St., officers said. It was not known if he used a car or fled on foot.

Mrs. Taylor said the youth obtained $10, $5 and $1 bills, but she said the total was unknown. Police dusted the cash register for fingerprints.

Mrs. Taylor said the young bandit is 5 feet 8 inches tall and of slender build, with blue eyes and neatly - trimmed brown hair. He was wearing a bright yellow jacket and tan trousers.

Searching the area and investigating the robbery were Lt. Paul A. Burson Jr., Jack Strobel, W. F. Copestick and Carl Samples.

nies—met at Shafer's invitation.

One of Shafer's aides said he was optimistic. "I believe we can get this thing wrapped up in a couple of days — maybe even today," said Joseph Kelly, secretary to the governor.

One trucker has been killed by a rock crashing through his windshield during the strike in seven states. Scores of others have been injured by bullets, flying glass and fists.

James Goodard, 27, of Plumsteadville, Pa., was treated at a hospital and released Sunday night after a bullet shattered his windshield on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near the New Stanton interchange.

Six incidents of rock-tossing were reported on the turnpike and interstate highways in western Pennsylvania during the night. But there were no other injuries.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said a helicopter was brought in Sunday from department headquarters in Columbus.

Sgt. Ralph Rizzo, in charge of the barracks, said it is being used for observation of possible trouble areas and to keep traffic moving smoothly.

The "chopper" was used yesterday to watch over four steel laden trucks bound from Crucible Steel's Midland works to Detroit.

Rizzo said the helicopter will be in the area indefinitely.

Daniel M. Berger, Pittsburgh attorney assisting the strikers' two attorneys, Bernard A. Berkman of Cleveland, Ohio, and Porter Draper of Gary, Ind., said, "I think that our attitude is hopeful—that reasonable men will sit down and try to work out these problems."

Ohio, Maryland, Michigan, New Jersey, New York and West Virginia joined Pennsylvania in sending governor's representatives.

The strikers, independent truckers who own their rigs, have rebelled against a national contract reached through the Teamsters. They want better terms, and a separate contract for owner-operators. The union has refused to recognize the strike.

In addition to the stretches of the three streets, the ban also will go into effect at midnight on the lots on W. 6th St. immediately to the west of City Hall and directly across the street from City Hall and on the northwest corner of 3rd and Market Sts.

A parking ban also will be in effect briefly on E. and W. 6th Sts. tomorrow morning to allow the contractor to put the finishing touches to resurfacing there. The crew will apply an asphalt gutter seal at the point where the new pavement meets the curb. Then that portion of the ban will be lifted.

Vodrey cautioned that the parking ban on the sections of Washington, Market and Jackson Sts. and the three city parking lots also may be in effect Wednesday, depending upon the progress of the work tomorrow.

The "tack coat" will be applied and sanded on all the segments tomorrow. If time permits the first course of blacktop also may be applied on the segments of Washington, Market and Jackson Sts.

The street surfacing got under way Oct. 2. The project on E. and W. 5th and 6th Sts., Jefferson St. and Broadway was paid for primarily out of Ohio Highway Department funds. The balance of the work is being done under a city contract.

slagged. The firm is working on a right-of-way obtained from the former owners of the land in 1907 for $93. The original easement was owned by the Southwest Penn Oil Co.

Mrs. Ingram said today a partial agreement has been reached, but she plans to challenge the right-of-way agreement.

She started her vigil when she parked her car across a section where the construction ditch was to go. She remained inside the car, eating and sleeping in the vehicle.

Relatives provided her food. She left over the weekend after the agreement was reached.

Workmen dug the ditch up to one side of the car and then started again on the other side, continuing on with the project.

to the chief of state," a Foreign Office statement said.

Coerr, a career minister and member of the Foreign Service since 1939, spoke Friday at the American School in Guayaquil. Ecuador asked Washington Saturday to have him out of the country by tonight.

The U.S. State Department said that under traditional diplomatic practice its only possible response is withdrawal of the ambassador. It considers Ecuador's request "to be unjustified by the circumstances" but added that it sees no reason to ask Ecuador's ambassador to withdraw in retaliation.

Coerr's speech did not name the Ecuadorian president but it did quote a number of remarks made by Arosemena as published in Ecuador's newspapers.

Arosemena had complained about high interest rates for loans, high costs for materials that had to be bought in the United States and the cost of the services of U.S. technicians under the Alliance for Progress.

In his speech, Coerr said interest rates were one per cent in the first year and 2.5 per cent thereafter. He said that of the total of $216 million in alliance loans to Ecuador, only $26.5 million had to be spent in the United States and only half of one per cent was needed to pay U.S. technicians.

He acknowledged some alliance failure in Ecuador but said "The alliance not only has been a success in the economical aspects in Ecuador but also in the social progress of this country."

Hearing To Be Held In Wellsville Crash

An 18-year-old Wellsville area girl, cited for failure to have her car under control, will receive a hearing in Wellsville's mayor court next week.

Debby Jo McElroy of Wellsville, RD 1 was arrested after she drove her 1960 sedan into the rear of a 1964 sedan operated by Nila Lewis Miller of Wellsville RD 1.

The accident occurred on Main St. Saturday at 8:20 p.m.

Meeting Awaited By Architects

COLUMBUS — Gov. James A. Rhodes has proclaimed Oct. 9-15, as "Architecture Week in Ohio."

The occasion will help commemorate the 34th annual meeting of the Architect's Society of Ohio next Thursday through Saturday at Columbus. More than 300 architects and exhibitors are expected to attend the annual conclave.

The highlight of the meeting will be presentations to the eight Ohio architectural firms that have been named winners in the society's 1967 Honor Awards Program.

This annual program is intended to encourage excellence in architecture, honor works of distinction and bring to public attention outstanding architectural services rendered by society members.

The 1,100 - member Architects Society of Ohio is a region of the American Institute of Architects.

5 Missing Teen-Agers Located In Michigan

Five East Liverpool teen-agers who disappeared from their homes Friday morning were located Sunday in Sandusky, Mich., by Michigan state police, the local department was advised.

Michigan authorities advised local officers that parents of the five could take custody of the youngsters after 1 this afternoon at the juvenile bureau in Sandusky. All five were in an auto owned by the parents of one of the youths, officers were advised.

The five were identified as J. Michael Woods, 15, of 157 Thompson Ave., William C. Jackson, 14, of 133 Thompson Ave., Marsha Lou Lato, 13, and Carolyn Kolinsky, 14, both of 165½ Pennsylvania Ave., and James E. Owens, 14, of 314 Market St.

Oct. 18 Proclaimed As A 'Day Of Prayer'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, proclaiming Wednesday, Oct. 18, as a national day of prayer, urged Americans to pray for "the constancy to prevail in defense of freedom" and inspiration "to take the law into our hearts, not into our hands."

He suggested prayer and meditation at churches, in groups, and as individuals.

"Let each of us pray that God will endow us with the constancy to prevail in defense of freedom, and with the courage and resolution to preserve and extend his blessings of liberty," the proclamation stated.

Utility Pole Burns; Firemen Are Called

New Cumberland firemen were called to stand by, but no outage was reported this morning when a 25,000 - volt line of the Monongahela Power Co. shorted through a bad insulation and set a power pole on fire on Route 66.

Larry Loudin, manager of the company's office in Chester, said crews were called out to begin repairs, although there apparently was no failure to area homes.

New Cumberland firemen were called about 7:30 when the burning pole was spotted. They stayed at the scene until power crews began their repair work.

Nebo Grange To Meet

LISBON — Mt. Nebo Grange, subordinate and junior, will meet Wednesday at 8 p. m. Carl Bailey, master, will preside and Howard Wilhelm, lecturer, will have the program.

Club Completes Plans For Visit To Cook's Forest

Plans were completed for a bus trip to Cook's Forest during a meeting of the Golden Age Club of Chester and vicinity Friday afternoon in the Westminster United Presbyterian Church.

All members in the East Liverpool and Newell area will meet at the bus terminal Thursday at 7 a.m., while Chester members will meet at the church at 7:30.

Mrs. Susan Huff, Mrs. Hazel Kidder and Mrs. Marie Pugh were named a nominating committee to present a slate of officers at the Nov. 3 meeting.

R. M. McFarland, Lester Lutton and Frank Weaver were appointed to review the bylaws.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Margaret Glass, Mrs. Elsie Wine and Miss Eva Shaw.

There will be no Friday meeting because of the bus trip Thursday.

Truck Driver 'Fair' From Fall Injuries

Glenn O. Rice, 60, of Burgettstown, Pa., is in "fair" condition at City Hospital with a possible concussion suffered Saturday afternoon when he fell from the cab of his coal truck.

Rice was making a turn onto a side road off Route 30 between Laughlin's Corners and the state line when the vehicle slid on shale.

He tumbled from the cab and suffered the head injury. He was taken to the hospital by the Cannon Funeral Home ambulance from Midland.

The KLH* Model Twenty-Four.
Now you can buy a stereo music system that you can own happily for the rest of your life for just $300. The new KLH* Model Twenty-Four will do everything you'd expect a high-performance music system to do—and more. It will play mono and stereo records and mono and stereo FM broadcasts. It has output jacks for making tape recordings, and you can play other music sources (such as a tape recorder or an AM receiver) through it.
All of the electronics in the Model Twenty-Four are solid-state. And all of the electronics, as well as the newly designed high-performance loudspeakers, are built by KLH in their own plant. The only component in the Twenty-Four that isn't built by KLH is the Garrard automatic turntable. It is the same Garrard model used in KLH's most expensive systems.
Because of the Twenty-Four's compact size and sensible three-piece design, it will fit gracefully into any living room. Most important, it will produce uncanny sound. It has the range, spaciousness and power of far more ambitious and costly equipment.
Come and listen to the Twenty-Four in our showroom. We think you'll agree that its sound goes beyond anything you are prepared to expect from an instrument of its size and price.

Assembly Leaders Eye Pennsylvania Tax Talks

By PAUL ZDINAK

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House and Senate met together today for the first time in three weeks with leaders from both parties expressing agreement that bipartisan talks on the tax stalemate should resume.

However, the response from the Shafer Administration to President Pro Tempore Robert D. Fleming's suggestion of resuming talks was not as enthusiastic.

"If they can get together and move a tax package, fine," said a high administration official. "But if it would be a long and drawn out affair, we don't need it and neither does the state."

Fleming, R-Allegheny, suggested over the weekend that leaders of both parties from both Republican-controlled chambers get together in an effort to reach agreement over the rest of Gov. Shafer's $285 million tax package.

"It's time to fish or cut bait," Fleming said. "I would hope we can get the leaders from both houses together... to iron this out."

"Amen," responded Senate Majority Whip Albert R. Pechan "It has to be done. We're going to have to do it. We are stymied."

"If they (Democrats) can show us the budget is too great, we will reduce it," Pechan, R-Armstrong, added. "But, so far, they haven't been able to convince us it can be cut further."

House Majority Leader Lee A. Donaldson said, "I am willing."

Senate Minority Leader Ernest P. Kline said, "I certainly would be agreeable. Both sides know that ultimately this problem is going to have to be solved."

"I'm ready," responded House Minority Leader Herbert Fineman. "He (Shafer) doesn't have much time left. But the governor is going to have to be more reasonable. I'm for making certain there are sufficient bucks in the treasury, but I'm not about to give him a surplus."

The House was back in session for the first time in three weeks. It recessed in order to give various members a chance to attend a national legislative conference in Texas. The Senate had met during that interim.

Shafer, meanwhile, cancelled plans to attend the National Governor's Conference cruise Oct. 16-24 to the Virgin Islands because of his concern over the tax issue and other administration programs.

Police Hunt Trio In Slaying And Assault On Girl

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (AP) — Three young killer-rapists are being sought as police retrace activities of a 19-year-old college student and his newly met companion before his slaying.

Charles Louis Kaufmann Jr., a Santa Rosa Junior College freshman from Alexandria, Va., was shot from behind three times early Saturday—once in the head and once in each shoulder. His companion, an 18-year-old girl estranged from her husband, was forced from her car parked on a lover's lane just before Kaufmann was killed and then driven to a nearby area where, she told police, she was repeatedly raped.

Kaufmann was the son of Charles L. Kaufmann, an officer of the U.S. Agency for International Development (AID) now stationed in Washington. The parents flew here Sunday to claim the body.

Police Chief Melvin Flohr said the girl questioned Saturday and Sunday has retold her story with no significant changes and was unable to provide additional clues.

He said the young man first met the girl, whose name was withheld, at a party Friday night. They drove to Proctor Heights, a fashionable area about 1½ miles from downtown.

The girl told police they had been parked about an hour when another car drove up. Two men from it approached, one on each side of the car. As one brandished a gun, the couple was ordered out.

She said her sweater was pulled over her head and she was forced into the rear seat of the other car.

Flohr said the girl told of hearing scuffling noises and then three shots.

She was driven about eight miles to a secluded spot on Calistoga Road and dragged about 30 feet up a hill where, she said, she was raped six times.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House and Senate met together today for the first time in three weeks with leaders from both parties expressing agreement that bipartisan talks on the tax stalemate should resume.

However, the response from the Shafer Administration to President Pro Tempore Robert D. Fleming's suggestion of resuming talks was not as enthusiastic.

"If they can get together and move a tax package, fine," said a high administration official. "But if it would be a long and drawn out affair, we don't need it and neither does the state."

Fleming, R-Allegheny, suggested over the weekend that leaders of both parties from both Republican-controlled chambers get together in an effort to reach agreement over the rest of Gov. Shafer's $285 million tax package.

"It's time to fish or cut bait," Fleming said. "I would hope we can get the leaders from both houses together... to iron this out."

"Amen," responded Senate Majority Whip Albert R. Pechan "It has to be done. We're going to have to do it. We are stymied."

"If they (Democrats) can show us the budget is too great, we will reduce it," Pechan, R-Armstrong, added. "But, so far, they haven't been able to convince us it can be cut further."

House Majority Leader Lee A. Donaldson said, "I am willing."

Senate Minority Leader Ernest P. Kline said, "I certainly would be agreeable. Both sides know that ultimately this problem is going to have to be solved."

"I'm ready," responded House Minority Leader Herbert Fineman. "He (Shafer) doesn't have much time left. But the governor is going to have to be more reasonable. I'm for making certain there are sufficient bucks in the treasury, but I'm not about to give him a surplus."

The House was back in session for the first time in three weeks. It recessed in order to give various members a chance to attend a national legislative conference in Texas. The Senate had met during that interim.

Shafer, meanwhile, cancelled plans to attend the National Governor's Conference cruise Oct. 16-24 to the Virgin Islands because of his concern over the tax issue and other administration programs.

Police Hunt Trio In Slaying And Assault On Girl

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (AP) — Three young killer-rapists are being sought as police retrace activities of a 19-year-old college student and his newly met companion before his slaying.

Charles Louis Kaufmann Jr., a Santa Rosa Junior College freshman from Alexandria, Va., was shot from behind three times early Saturday—once in the head and once in each shoulder. His companion, an 18-year-old girl estranged from her husband, was forced from her car parked on a lover's lane just before Kaufmann was killed and then driven to a nearby area where, she told police, she was repeatedly raped.

Kaufmann was the son of Charles L. Kaufmann, an officer of the U.S. Agency for International Development (AID) now stationed in Washington. The parents flew here Sunday to claim the body.

Police Chief Melvin Flohr said the girl questioned Saturday and Sunday has retold her story with no significant changes and was unable to provide additional clues.

He said the young man first met the girl, whose name was withheld, at a party Friday night. They drove to Proctor Heights, a fashionable area about 1½ miles from downtown.

The girl told police they had been parked about an hour when another car drove up. Two men from it approached, one on each side of the car. As one brandished a gun, the couple was ordered out.

She said her sweater was pulled over her head and she was forced into the rear seat of the other car.

Flohr said the girl told of hearing scuffling noises and then three shots.

She was driven about eight miles to a secluded spot on Calistoga Road and dragged about 30 feet up a hill where, she said, she was raped six times.

Barbershop Fantasy On 'Cloud Nine'

Adelines' Show Packs 'Em In Here

By CLARA HALL

A barbershop fantasy arranged on "Cloud Nine" featured the eighth annual show of the East Liverpool Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc., Saturday night before a packed house at Westgate School.

The stage risers were arranged on billows of clouds and up above were quarternotes suspended from more colorful clouds — an appropriate setting for the initial number of the chorus, "Painting the Clouds with Sunshine."

Mrs. Nancy Beaver, director, led the group also in the singing of "Angel Eyes." Miss Norma Jones, assistant director, directed "I Wouldn't Trade the Silver In My Mother's Hair."

The chourus was attired in blue smocks with large white collars and big red ties, which were quickly removed and a display of gold blouses were featured.

MRS. FAYE WRIGHT, president of the local chapter, was crowned "Sweet Adeline of the Year" by Mrs. Jan Dietz last year's winner. As she was robed with a red velvet cloak and presented an arm bouquet of red roses, the chorus sang "Sweet Adeline."

Jovial Tom O'Malley of Pittsburgh was master of ceremonies and in addition to entertaining the audience with an extensive repertoire of jokes led the group in community singing.

The opening quartet was the "The Tall Mrs." of nearby Carrollton, 1967 regional novice winners. Appearing in red - and - white striped jackets and straw hats, the group included Faye Phillips, Betty Morvats, Jackie Betz and Donna Reynolds. They sang a catchy tune, "The Auctioneer," in addition to "Are You From Dixie?" and "When I Leave The World Behind."

East Liverpool's own "Heathertones," 1963 international champions added a new twist to their performance by sitting on stools and straying a little from barbershopping. They sang "This Little Piggie Went To Market," "Side By Side" and "Give Me a Band and My Baby." Lorida Harvey, Nancy Beaver, Norma Jones and Bette Damaska were attired in orchid chiffon dresses accented with waist corsages of white carnations, gifts of the chapter.

Glenn Woods gave the commentary for a medley of romance songs as he directed the East Liverpool SPEBSQSA Chorus in their first appearance in a couple of years. The selections included "I Wish I Had My Old Gal Back Again," "Red Roses For a Blue Lady," "You're In Love With Everyone" and "Please Don't Talk About Me When I'm Gone."

WEARING rhinestone crowns to complement their green brocade long gowns, designed in Empire style, the "Note-Cracker Sweets" of Minneapolis proved why they were crowned the 1964 queens of harmony. Mary Erickson, Mary Dick, Bev Schrod Schroeder and Nancy Paul were excellent in both slow and fast numbers. Called back for many encores, their selections included "I Feel A Song Coming On," "Redhead," "Cry Me a River" and "September."

With male barbershopping still quite popular in the area, one of the program highlights was the performance of "The Pittsburgh Four," also international champions. O'Malley was joined by Tom Palamone, Jack Elder and Dutch Miller in the singing of a group of "Mary" songs, "The Irish From Notre Dame" and "Where the River Shannon Flows." The antics of the group brought frequent laughter.

For the finale, the Adelines performed as dolls in a toy shop as they sang "Nursery Rhymes' and "Toyland." Added to the stage decor were large toy blocks.

The after-glo followed in the school cafeteria, which was decorated in a fall theme. Cornucopias, acorns and fall leaves were placed on gold maline which centered the tables. Nut cups were favors.

Mrs. Damaska was mistress of ceremonies for the additional singing of the quartets.

Mrs. Wright was presented with a replica of a Miss Sweet Adeline" which was dressed by Mrs. Lois Richey, who also made the velvet robe. She also received a cup.

Bouquets of roses were presented the directors, Mrs. Beaver and Miss Norma Jones, and a corsage to Miss Jennie Jones, co-chairman of the event who was in charge of staging.

The show committee included Miss Norma Jones, chairman; Miss Jennie Jones, co - chairman; Miss Bonnie Blackmore, secretary - treasurer; Mrs. Hilda Edgar, uniforms; Miss Nancy McBrien, program; Mrs. Harvey, hostesses; Mrs. Wright, publicity; Mrs. Mary Reed, after-glo; Miss Sandy Wilson, tickets; Miss Norma Jones, music; and Mrs. Delores Zamborsky, make-up.

30 Injured In Milwaukee Street March

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Police clashed twice with open housing demonstrators in Milwaukee's virtually all-Negro Inner Core Sunday night. Thirty persons were injured, including a policeman hit by a rock.

The violence was the first to flare in this racially troubled city since mid-September despite nightly marches, and countermarches by opponents of open housing.

A shotgun blast shattered the windows of a police car in the neighborhood of the disturbances. The officers in the car escaped injury. No arrests followed the incident.

Most of those arrested, including Gregory, were seized after about 400 marchers moved from the sidewalk into the center of the street in opposition to police orders.

Earlier, police moved in on the demonstrators when they attempted to approach a band of white opponents of open housing also marching in the Inner Core where most of Milwaukee's 86,000 Negroes live.

Three open housing marchers were arrested in that clash.

The rival groups had been parading on opposite sides of the same street.

By CLARA HALL

A barbershop fantasy arranged on "Cloud Nine" featured the eighth annual show of the East Liverpool Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc., Saturday night before a packed house at Westgate School.

The stage risers were arranged on billows of clouds and up above were quarternotes suspended from more colorful clouds — an appropriate setting for the initial number of the chorus, "Painting the Clouds with Sunshine."

Mrs. Nancy Beaver, director, led the group also in the singing of "Angel Eyes." Miss Norma Jones, assistant director, directed "I Wouldn't Trade the Silver In My Mother's Hair."

The chourus was attired in blue smocks with large white collars and big red ties, which were quickly removed and a display of gold blouses were featured.

MRS. FAYE WRIGHT, president of the local chapter, was crowned "Sweet Adeline of the Year" by Mrs. Jan Dietz last year's winner. As she was robed with a red velvet cloak and presented an arm bouquet of red roses, the chorus sang "Sweet Adeline."

Jovial Tom O'Malley of Pittsburgh was master of ceremonies and in addition to entertaining the audience with an extensive repertoire of jokes led the group in community singing.

The opening quartet was the "The Tall Mrs." of nearby Carrollton, 1967 regional novice winners. Appearing in red - and - white striped jackets and straw hats, the group included Faye Phillips, Betty Morvats, Jackie Betz and Donna Reynolds. They sang a catchy tune, "The Auctioneer," in addition to "Are You From Dixie?" and "When I Leave The World Behind."

East Liverpool's own "Heathertones," 1963 international champions added a new twist to their performance by sitting on stools and straying a little from barbershopping. They sang "This Little Piggie Went To Market," "Side By Side" and "Give Me a Band and My Baby." Lorida Harvey, Nancy Beaver, Norma Jones and Bette Damaska were attired in orchid chiffon dresses accented with waist corsages of white carnations, gifts of the chapter.

Glenn Woods gave the commentary for a medley of romance songs as he directed the East Liverpool SPEBSQSA Chorus in their first appearance in a couple of years. The selections included "I Wish I Had My Old Gal Back Again," "Red Roses For a Blue Lady," "You're In Love With Everyone" and "Please Don't Talk About Me When I'm Gone."

WEARING rhinestone crowns to complement their green brocade long gowns, designed in Empire style, the "Note-Cracker Sweets" of Minneapolis proved why they were crowned the 1964 queens of harmony. Mary Erickson, Mary Dick, Bev Schrod Schroeder and Nancy Paul were excellent in both slow and fast numbers. Called back for many encores, their selections included "I Feel A Song Coming On," "Redhead," "Cry Me a River" and "September."

With male barbershopping still quite popular in the area, one of the program highlights was the performance of "The Pittsburgh Four," also international champions. O'Malley was joined by Tom Palamone, Jack Elder and Dutch Miller in the singing of a group of "Mary" songs, "The Irish From Notre Dame" and "Where the River Shannon Flows." The antics of the group brought frequent laughter.

For the finale, the Adelines performed as dolls in a toy shop as they sang "Nursery Rhymes' and "Toyland." Added to the stage decor were large toy blocks.

The after-glo followed in the school cafeteria, which was decorated in a fall theme. Cornucopias, acorns and fall leaves were placed on gold maline which centered the tables. Nut cups were favors.

Mrs. Damaska was mistress of ceremonies for the additional singing of the quartets.

Mrs. Wright was presented with a replica of a Miss Sweet Adeline" which was dressed by Mrs. Lois Richey, who also made the velvet robe. She also received a cup.

Bouquets of roses were presented the directors, Mrs. Beaver and Miss Norma Jones, and a corsage to Miss Jennie Jones, co-chairman of the event who was in charge of staging.

The show committee included Miss Norma Jones, chairman; Miss Jennie Jones, co - chairman; Miss Bonnie Blackmore, secretary - treasurer; Mrs. Hilda Edgar, uniforms; Miss Nancy McBrien, program; Mrs. Harvey, hostesses; Mrs. Wright, publicity; Mrs. Mary Reed, after-glo; Miss Sandy Wilson, tickets; Miss Norma Jones, music; and Mrs. Delores Zamborsky, make-up.

30 Injured In Milwaukee Street March

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Police clashed twice with open housing demonstrators in Milwaukee's virtually all-Negro Inner Core Sunday night. Thirty persons were injured, including a policeman hit by a rock.

The violence was the first to flare in this racially troubled city since mid-September despite nightly marches, and countermarches by opponents of open housing.

A shotgun blast shattered the windows of a police car in the neighborhood of the disturbances. The officers in the car escaped injury. No arrests followed the incident.

Most of those arrested, including Gregory, were seized after about 400 marchers moved from the sidewalk into the center of the street in opposition to police orders.

Earlier, police moved in on the demonstrators when they attempted to approach a band of white opponents of open housing also marching in the Inner Core where most of Milwaukee's 86,000 Negroes live.

Three open housing marchers were arrested in that clash.

The rival groups had been parading on opposite sides of the same street.

Officer Hurt As Brick Rips Windshield

A Pennsylvania state policeman from the Carnegie Barracks was hospitalized Sunday night when a brick was tossed through the windshield of his car, one of eight such incidents reported in a five-minute period on the Parkway between the Carnegie and Greentree interchanges.

Jerald Fielder, 27, remains a patient at Allegheny General Hospital, Pittsburgh, with injuries suffered when the brick shattered his windshield, broke the steering wheel of the car and hit him in the chest at 9:30 p.m.

Officers said Fielder was on duty in an unmarked vehicle. Seven other motorists reported their cars damaged by bricks thrown from a moving car.

Fielder said the brick was tossed from a westbound vehicle.

Police today asked that anyone having any knowledge of the incident or any description of the car from which the bricks were thrown contact the barracks.

No trucks were in the vicinity at the time and officers say they do not believe the incidents had anything to do with the current truck strike, since only cars were hit.

Death Takes Maurois, 82, Noted Writer

PARIS (AP) — French writer and intellectual Andre Maurois, 82, died today.

Maurois underwent surgery for an intestinal block Sept. 26 at a hospital in the Paris suburb of Neuilly. He was taken from the hospital this morning and died at his home nearby.

Maurois was a prolific novelist, biographer and historian.

One of his first works to attract wide attention was "Les Silences du Colonel Bramble," in which he made gentle fun of traditional British imperturbabilty. The book was based on Maurois' experiences as a liaison officer with British forces in World War I.

He was well known in the United States, where he spent the early part of World War II lecturing and writing articles on France.

Maurois was born Emile Henzog July 26, 1885, to a family of textile factory operators. He took his pseudonym when he began to write and his name was officially changed in 1947.

Youth, 19, Fined In Car 'Dumping'

An East End youth was fined Saturday for "dumping" a car along Beaver Creek, about 500 yards upstream from the Beaver Creek Bridge.

James Wilson, 19, of 1728 Holliday St. was fined $100 and ordered to remove the vehicle within seven days. He appeared before Justice of the Peace Richard Wilton of Ohioville following his citation, according to Ohioville Police Chief Bernard Zlatovich.

The chief said he received a call Friday at 7:05 p. m. that someone was stripping a car along the creek. Investigating, he found the 1960 model car over the edge of the hill, with the front end in the water.

There were no plates or registration. Patrolman James Dunlap returned to the scene at 2:15 a. m. Saturday and found Wilson.

Wilson admitted to officers the car was his, but first said he had given it awav. Later he admitted dumping the car over the hill, claiming a scrap yard refused to purchase it.

Pravda Raps Gov. Reagan 'Hawk' Role

Besides denouncing Reagan for backing U. S. military escalation in the Vietnam war, Pravda described him as an ultra rightist who has taken up the "worn banner" once carried by Barry Goldwater. It suggested the American people will reject him for president if they heed the facts.

The article was the first lengthy attack on Reagan in the Soviet press.

Pravda told Soviet readers how in movies Reagan used to play nice guys who didn't get the girl. Then, it said, during World War II he was an Army captain but stayed in Hollywood making documentaries.

"Maybe the governor likes making bellicose speeches so much because he never smelled real gunpowder," the Communist newspaper said.

The article said that one reason for the governor of California's being a hawk on the Vietnam war is that his state has become America's biggest arms manufacturer.

According to Pravda's version, Republican conservatives recognized after the 1964 election loss that Goldwater could not run again and turned to Reagan.

Oct. 16 Hearing Set In Truck Rift

EAST PALESTINE — Robert Gallagher of Industry, charged with threatening and assaulting a striking truck driver Thursday afternoon, made $500 bond Saturday in Columbiana County Eastern Court here. His hearing is set for Oct. 16.

Gallagher is the owner of the truck convoy stopped by gunfire Thursday in California Hollow (old Route 30) and the convoy which passed through the county Sunday afternoon.

An Ohio Highway Patrol plane and helicopter flew over Route 7 as patrol cars and sheriff's cruisers patrolled the road.

Trial Set Wednesday For 2 Theft Charges

Acting at the request of defense counsel, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today set hearings Wednesday at 9 a.m. for two youths accused of theft of a pay telephone Oct. 1 at the Patterson - Wetzel Laundromat on St. Clair Ave. near Grant St.

The defendants are David Cunningham, 19, of E. 2nd St. and Rodney Eugene Gilkinson of Cannons Mills. They are charged with theft of an Ohio Bell Telephone Co. instrument valued at $141.85 and destruction of property worth $125.68 inside the building.

The hearings were set for today, but Judge Chertoff granted the continuances at the request of J. Michael Kapp, who represents Cunningham, and G. William Brokaw, counsel for Gilkinson.

Students Riot In Japan On Viet Policies

TOKYO (AP)—About 800 students rallied at four Tokyo universities today to protest "police butcher" at a leftist demonstration Sunday that left one dead and 500 injured. The incident was the worst in Japan since violence in 1960 caused the cancelation of a visit by President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Government officials began investigating means to prevent possible new eruptions triggered by leftists opposed to Prime Minister Eisaku Sato's coming visit to South Vietnam.

Sato arrived in Jakarta on the first leg of a five-nation swing and began talks with Indonesian government officials on financial assistance for the coming year.

Sunday's demonstration at Tokyo's International airport as Sato took off was led by students of the radical Zengakuren organization. The injured were said to include 339 policemen and 160 demonstrators who fought with bamboo and rocks for about three hours. Some 2,500 demonstrators and 2,000 police were involved.

The students condemned the South Vietnam visit and said it signaled a switch in Japan's independent foreign policy toward one tied more closely to the United States.

Workers End OSU Walkout

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A strike by non-teaching employes at Ohio State University ended today as members of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes voted to accept the latest university contract offer.

Negotiations, the first since about 1,300 members of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes struck last Thursday, went on through much of the night and early morning.

Youth, 18, Held In Beating Death

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—An 18-year-old unemployed laborer was charged Sunday wih first degree murder in the beating death of William Brown, 84, in his downtown apartment.

Roy Joseph Wolke Jr. was arrested at his home by Hamilton police, said Det. Lt. Harold Carpenter.

Brown was found dead about 5 p.m. in his second floor room where he was killed perhaps 24 hours earlier, Carpenter said.

Carpenter said robbery was the motive. No wallet, money or identification were found on the body. Carpenter said the investigation is contnung.

Wellsville Man Fined In Incident At School

A Wellsville man was fined a total of $125 on three charges today by Wellsville Mayor William Daugherty.

Herman W. ((Bobby) Bonahue of 18th St. Heights was charged with assault and battery, assault and disorderly conduct following an incident at MacDonald School Thursday afternoon.

John Mackov, principal, filed the assault and battery charge, while Robert Madden, school custodian, filed the assault charge. Donahue allegedly attacked the principal during an argument involving one of his children who attends school there. Madden told police when he tried to help Mackov he also was struck.

Daugherty fined Donahue $50 on the assault and battery charge, $50 and the assault charge and $25 on a disorderly conduct charge which the mayor filed.

Wellsville Car Crash Injures Girl Motorist

A Wellsville girl was injured in a two - car accident Sunday at 1:15 p. m. on Clark Ave., Wellsville.

Becky Davidson,, 17, of 327 Lisbon St., was attempting to turn left into a service station when her car was struck from behind by a 1967 sedan operated by William Alex DeJulie, 22, of Steubenville. DeJulie told police that he did not see a turn signal and was attempting to pass Miss Davidson's 1964 sedan.

Holiday Closings Set

LISBON — The Columbiana County Courthouse and the County Welfare Department building will be closed Thursday in observance of Columbus Day. Local business places, banks, the post office and other federal offices will be open.

Report Given On Day Camp

A report on the day camp held during July was given at a meeting of the Chester-Newell Neighborhood Girl Scout leaders Thursday in the First United Presbyterian Church at Chester. All troop leaders were present.

Mrs. Wilbur Staley, day camp director, reported 141 girls were registered at City Park during the sessions. It is hoped, she said, one or two large tents may be purchased for use next summer.

Mrs. Edwin Wine, neighborhood chairman, was in charge. She said Mrs. Nelson Campbell, Mrs. Harvey Werkheiser and seven members of Cadette Troop 486 attended the fall kick-off dinner in Wellsville. The Cadettes presented the flag ceremony and provided a song leader, Mrs. Edith Werkheiser.

Mrs. Campbell, registrar, asked all additions to troop registers be returned as soon as possible.

Mrs. Wine announced, as participants in the United Fund, that the Girl Scouts will present a display in an East Liverpool store window this week.

Mrs. Roy Cashdollar, coordinator, distributed supplies for the nut sale to begin Oct. 30. Brownies must have consent forms signed by a parent before they can participate. Profits are used to carry out troop activities since money received from the United Fund goes directly to the council office, which supplies troops with leadership training and other services.

Mrs. Staley reminded there is a need for Cadette leaders in both Chester and Newell. Any interested person may contact her.

Mrs. Jack Reynolds was inducted as a new leader for Brownie Troop 491 at Chester.

Mrs. Cashdollar was appointed a representative from the troops to the equipment agency.

Cleveland Opens Surgery Center

CLEVELAND (AP) — A new $3 million surgical suite is to be unveiled today at University Hospital, where more than 18,000 persons undergo surgery each year.

Described as one of the most modern and complete in the country, the suite is located in the recently completed Robert L. Bishop Building which was constructed at a cost of $10.6 million.

It contains 26 operating rooms and separate recovery rooms for adults, children and ambulatory patients.

Five of the new operating rooms are designated for general surgery. The others are earmarked for surgical specialties.

The major gift toward construction of the new surgical suite, which is named in memory of Dr. Dudley P. Allen, was $1 million from the Elizabeth Severance Prentiss Foundation. Dr. Allen was a member of the staff of Lakeside Hospital and professor of surgery at Western Reserve University School of Medicine at the turn of the century.

Headquarters Moved By 'Atlantic Alliance'

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—The Atlantic Alliance Council's military committee has moved from the Pentagon to begin operations in an unfinished headquarters in Brussels today, a week before the full council moves in.

The council, the alliance's political arm, is moving from France to be near the military arm—Supreme Headquarters, Allied Powers Europe (SHAPE)—which was expelled from France by President Charles de Gaulle. France has asked the council to stay, but other alliance members decided on the move.

The military committee, representing the chiefs of staff of 12 member countries, is moving from Washington to be directly at hand to advise diplomats on the council. Its new offices are in a $10 million, three-story building.

Talk On Sex Education Set At South Side School

Mrs. Beulah V. Cook, director of counseling in the Beaver schools and a member of the board of the Beaver campus of Penn State, will speak to parents tonight at 8 on "Critical Issues in Sex Education, Part I" in the South Side High School cafeteria. It is open to the public.

The program is an offspring of "Critical Issues," the subject adopted by the officers of the South Side Parent - Teacher Association for the 1967-68 school year, Joseph Shaffer, president, said. Mrs. Evelyn Clevenger is chairman of the program committee. Also on the committee are Mrs. Mary McCoy and Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Cline.

The meeting tonight was a result of committee conferences held with persons dealing with education and church organizations, who decided to meet the issue with a constructive plan for parents and the students of the 10th, 11th and 12th grades. Two meetings will be held for the parents and three for the students in the above grades, with written consent of their parents, Mrs. Clevenger noted.

"In our program planning this year," she said," we have attempted to focus attention on issues that could greatly affect the families of the South Side area. We, as parents and teachers, need to attempt more fully to understand the problems that face our children in their daily lives."

Victor F. Thomas, superintendent of the South Side Schools, confirmed the need for the proper sex education, but said that since it is not part of the present school curriculum, both teachers and the administration are reluctant to proceed without official guidelines, even in such fields as social studies and health. The school nurse, Thomas said, does what she can, individually, within the same limits and in addition to her other duties.

Other offcials were also consulted about the program and offered their help, Mrs. Clevenger said.

Dr. Julius A. Vogel of Aliquippa will conduct three meetings with the students Oct. 19, Oct. 26 and Nov. 3 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Nov. 13 he will speak to parents in the second and final phase of the program, Mrs. Clenger concluded.

Officer Hurt As Brick Rips Windshield

A Pennsylvania state policeman from the Carnegie Barracks was hospitalized Sunday night when a brick was tossed through the windshield of his car, one of eight such incidents reported in a five-minute period on the Parkway between the Carnegie and Greentree interchanges.

Jerald Fielder, 27, remains a patient at Allegheny General Hospital, Pittsburgh, with injuries suffered when the brick shattered his windshield, broke the steering wheel of the car and hit him in the chest at 9:30 p.m.

Officers said Fielder was on duty in an unmarked vehicle. Seven other motorists reported their cars damaged by bricks thrown from a moving car.

Fielder said the brick was tossed from a westbound vehicle.

Police today asked that anyone having any knowledge of the incident or any description of the car from which the bricks were thrown contact the barracks.

No trucks were in the vicinity at the time and officers say they do not believe the incidents had anything to do with the current truck strike, since only cars were hit.

Death Takes Maurois, 82, Noted Writer

PARIS (AP) — French writer and intellectual Andre Maurois, 82, died today.

Maurois underwent surgery for an intestinal block Sept. 26 at a hospital in the Paris suburb of Neuilly. He was taken from the hospital this morning and died at his home nearby.

Maurois was a prolific novelist, biographer and historian.

One of his first works to attract wide attention was "Les Silences du Colonel Bramble," in which he made gentle fun of traditional British imperturbabilty. The book was based on Maurois' experiences as a liaison officer with British forces in World War I.

He was well known in the United States, where he spent the early part of World War II lecturing and writing articles on France.

Maurois was born Emile Henzog July 26, 1885, to a family of textile factory operators. He took his pseudonym when he began to write and his name was officially changed in 1947.

Youth, 19, Fined In Car 'Dumping'

An East End youth was fined Saturday for "dumping" a car along Beaver Creek, about 500 yards upstream from the Beaver Creek Bridge.

James Wilson, 19, of 1728 Holliday St. was fined $100 and ordered to remove the vehicle within seven days. He appeared before Justice of the Peace Richard Wilton of Ohioville following his citation, according to Ohioville Police Chief Bernard Zlatovich.

The chief said he received a call Friday at 7:05 p. m. that someone was stripping a car along the creek. Investigating, he found the 1960 model car over the edge of the hill, with the front end in the water.

There were no plates or registration. Patrolman James Dunlap returned to the scene at 2:15 a. m. Saturday and found Wilson.

Wilson admitted to officers the car was his, but first said he had given it awav. Later he admitted dumping the car over the hill, claiming a scrap yard refused to purchase it.

Pravda Raps Gov. Reagan 'Hawk' Role

Besides denouncing Reagan for backing U. S. military escalation in the Vietnam war, Pravda described him as an ultra rightist who has taken up the "worn banner" once carried by Barry Goldwater. It suggested the American people will reject him for president if they heed the facts.

The article was the first lengthy attack on Reagan in the Soviet press.

Pravda told Soviet readers how in movies Reagan used to play nice guys who didn't get the girl. Then, it said, during World War II he was an Army captain but stayed in Hollywood making documentaries.

"Maybe the governor likes making bellicose speeches so much because he never smelled real gunpowder," the Communist newspaper said.

The article said that one reason for the governor of California's being a hawk on the Vietnam war is that his state has become America's biggest arms manufacturer.

According to Pravda's version, Republican conservatives recognized after the 1964 election loss that Goldwater could not run again and turned to Reagan.

The hearings were set for today, but Judge Chertoff granted the continuances at the request of J. Michael Kapp, who represents Cunningham, and G. William Brokaw, counsel for Gilkinson.

Students Riot In Japan On Viet Policies

TOKYO (AP)—About 800 students rallied at four Tokyo universities today to protest "police butcher" at a leftist demonstration Sunday that left one dead and 500 injured. The incident was the worst in Japan since violence in 1960 caused the cancelation of a visit by President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Government officials began investigating means to prevent possible new eruptions triggered by leftists opposed to Prime Minister Eisaku Sato's coming visit to South Vietnam.

Sato arrived in Jakarta on the first leg of a five-nation swing and began talks with Indonesian government officials on financial assistance for the coming year.

Sunday's demonstration at Tokyo's International airport as Sato took off was led by students of the radical Zengakuren organization. The injured were said to include 339 policemen and 160 demonstrators who fought with bamboo and rocks for about three hours. Some 2,500 demonstrators and 2,000 police were involved.

The students condemned the South Vietnam visit and said it signaled a switch in Japan's independent foreign policy toward one tied more closely to the United States.

Workers End OSU Walkout

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A strike by non-teaching employes at Ohio State University ended today as members of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes voted to accept the latest university contract offer.

LISBON — The Columbiana County Courthouse and the County Welfare Department building will be closed Thursday in observance of Columbus Day. Local business places, banks, the post office and other federal offices will be open.

Report Given On Day Camp

A report on the day camp held during July was given at a meeting of the Chester-Newell Neighborhood Girl Scout leaders Thursday in the First United Presbyterian Church at Chester. All troop leaders were present.

Mrs. Wilbur Staley, day camp director, reported 141 girls were registered at City Park during the sessions. It is hoped, she said, one or two large tents may be purchased for use next summer.

Mrs. Edwin Wine, neighborhood chairman, was in charge. She said Mrs. Nelson Campbell, Mrs. Harvey Werkheiser and seven members of Cadette Troop 486 attended the fall kickoff dinner in Wellsville. The Cadettes presented the flag ceremony and provided a song leader, Mrs. Edith Werkheiser.

Mrs. Campbell, registrar, asked all additions to troop registers be returned as soon as possible.

Mrs. Wine announced, as participants in the United Fund, that the Girl Scouts will present a display in an East Liverpool store window this week.

Mrs. Roy Cashdollar, coordinator, distributed supplies for the nut sale to begin Oct. 30. Brownies must have consent forms signed by a parent before they can participate. Profits are used to carry out troop activities since money received from the United Fund goes directly to the council office, which supplies troops with leadership training and other services.

Mrs. Staley reminded there is a need for Cadette leaders in both Chester and Newell. Any interested person may contact her.

Mrs. Jack Reynolds was inducted as a new leader for Brownie Troop 491 at Chester.

Mrs. Cashdollar was appointed a representative from the troops to the equipment agency.

4-H News

Three new members attended their first meeting when the St. Clair Pioneers 4-H Club met with Mark Unrue of Houston Pl. Seventeen attended.

John Richmond, president, conducted business when the constitution and bylaws were revised and dues raised to $2 a year.

Mrs. Unrue served refreshments.

The next meeting will be Nov. 6 with John and Jim Lyons of Houston Rd.

Cleveland Opens Surgery Center

CLEVELAND (AP) — A new $3 million surgical suite is to be unveiled today at University Hospital, where more than 18,000 persons undergo surgery each year.

Described as one of the most modern and complete in the country, the suite is located in the recently completed Robert H. Bishop Building which was constructed at a cost of $10.6 million.

It contains 26 operating rooms and separate recovery rooms for adults, children and ambulatory patients.

Five of the new operating rooms are designated for general surgery. The others are earmarked for surgical specialties.

The major gift toward construction of the new surgical suite, which is named in memory of Dr. Dudley P. Allen, was $1 million from the Elizabeth Severance Prentiss Foundation. Dr. Allen was a member of the staff of Lakeside Hospital and professor of surgery at Western Reserve University School of Medicine at the turn of the century.

Headquarters Moved By 'Atlantic Alliance'

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—The Atlantic Alliance Council's military committee has moved from the Pentagon to begin operations in an unfinished headquarters in Brussels today, a week before the full council moves in.

The council, the alliance's political arm, is moving from France to be near the military arm—Supreme Headquarters, Allied Powers Europe (SHAPE)—which was expelled from France by President Charles de Gaulle. France has asked the council to stay, but other alliance members decided on the move.

The military committee, representing the chiefs of staff of 12 member countries, is moving from Washington to be directly at hand to advise diplomats on the council. Its new offices are in a $10 million, three-story building.

Compulsive Eater Needs Insight

The dieter in today's story needs to gain enlightenment into why she periodically eats compulsively when she yearns to reach her goal. She writes:

Ida Jean Kain

"You asked me to report my progress. To be honest, I've been dreading it. Why? Because I still haven't reached my goal. I can't do it! I get down-in-the - dumps and bang —I start overeating. And the terrible thing is at that moment I just don't care. By the time I've pulled out of the slump I have regained 4 to 5 pounds. Then it takes two weeks to get back to where I was and bang —another slump, followed by eating."

—:—

THIS REPORT is from the 23-year - old mother of two who did weigh 150 pounds. She pointed out that everything I suggested as to hobbys and stimulating activities took money or wouldn't fit into her hectic day.

My reply, written last June, was that she was in a mental trap of her own making. With a fresh approach to her problem she could make a start to get into action, then other opportunities would open up.

This she did. By taking positive measures, she slimmed off 10 pounds, felt alive and happy about her progress. But now she is stuck in a rut again and asks what she can do to rid herself of the blues which send her back to eating in a big way.

When a habit pattern is endlessly repeated, enlightenment is needed. The sentence, At the moment I don't care," is a clue to the need for taking prior thought. It does little good to attempt to apply will power during the depressed period.

Recognize that compulsive eating is a substitute satisfaction. Certain emotional needs are satisfied by food. You feel deprived in some way. What do you feel you are missing? Until you gain insight into the real source of your frustration, and face it, you will resort to food as a substitute.

COULD YOU seek help from a family counseling agency? If you can talk the problem through with a psychologist so as to get a new perspective, then you can act to break the cycle. A spark of insight into what triggers these blue periods can help to set you free.

The purpose of spotlighting underlying cause is to sharpen your awareness. Alert to your automatic response, you are in a position to change. To take forethought is a mature way of dealing with problems.

Think through the situation, and in your mind's eye, picture yourself carrying through when the going is tough. A challenge to yourself can put you on your mettle.

It takes practice to see yourself triumphant during the tough spots. Accept the challenge! Play your "mental movie" for 10 minutes every night on going to sleep and every morning on awakening.

By so doing, you give the order to your innermost self. Take heart from the fact that this practice period is as real to your nervous system as if you were living the experience.

Ohio Man Sought In Murder Case

BLOUNTVILLE, Tenn. (AP) —An Ohioan is being sought for questioning in the murder of a Frenchman whose body was found Thursday near this east Tennessee mountain town.

Sullivan County Sheriff Bill Wright said Saturday authorities are seeking Thomas R. Reedy, 29, of Elyria, Ohio, who was believed to have given Nourisson a ride.

The case has taken on international aspects as the FBI and Interpol—the international police agency—have been called in after the body of Jean-Paul Aime Nourisson, 25, was found in two inches of water in a ditch five miles east of Blountville.

Nourisson was believed last seen alive last Monday in nearby Bristol, Tenn., hitchhiking beside a highway. He was a native of Clermont - Ferrand, Puy-De-Dome, France.

Authorities said the victim had entered the United States Sept. 29.

Airport Receives Astronaut Name

WAPAKONETA, Ohio (AP) —This northwestern Ohio community honored its hometown hero Sunday as a crowd of 2,500 gathered under a steady rain to dedicate the Neil Armstrong Airport.

The airport was named after astronaut Neil Armstrong, command pilot of the Gemini 8 space mission, who was born on a farm only three miles from the airfield.

"I little dreamed 20 years ago when I was learning to fly here that they (friends) would have dedicated an airport in my name," he told the crowd.

Among those attending were Gov. James A. Rhodes, aviatrix Jerrie Moc of Columbus, Rep. William M. McCulloch, R-Ohio, and Ohio director of aviation Norman Crabtree.

Gibson's 5-Hit Shutout Gives Cards 3-1 Series Lead

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

A good Monday morning to all you West Virginia U. fans, and especially Bob Shaffer.

Soccer-style kicker Ken Juskowich put the foot back in football, and the Mountaineer fans got a kick out of it.... Pitt coach Dave Hart was disgusted with the performance of his team... This Pitt squad is so bad even the chancellor doesn't want to coach it. Chuck Winters, former Potter star, got into the game for Pitt at quarterback. He completed 1 of 2 passes for 7 yards and was hit for a 9 yard loss. Not too bad, when it's considered starting quarterback Frankie Gustine Jr. hit only 1 of 12 attempts.

THE STEELERS seem to regard the Browns as supermen, especially playing in Cleveland. The Pittsburgh club got some bad breaks, but they don't seem to have a winning attitude against the Browns. Ernie Green always seems to do his best against the Steelers. He was having an indifferent season before Saturday, and the Steelers were leading the league in rushing defense, but Green gained over 100 yards.

THE 10 REMAINING contenders in the WPIAL Class A ranks were mighty glad to see that 13-13 tie between Beaver and New Brighton Friday night. The Bobcats and the Lions are the two best Class A teams in Beaver County and two of the best in the entire WPIAL. Beaver fans are questioning the strategy of Bobcat coach Pat Tarquinio. With time running out, Beaver had the ball on the New Brighton 4, right between the uprights. The Bobcats have an accomplished place kicker in Bob Mabin, but they went for the TD and failed. New Brighton has not beaten Beaver in 13 years.

HATS OFF TO Coach Bob Starkey and his Oak Glen Golden Bears for a tremendous effort against a topnotch Wheeling Central Club. Bows are also due to Joe Hamilton and the Midland Leopards, who have bounced back from routs by East Liverpool and Beaver to show a win and a tie in their last two contests, and to Don Ross and the Beaver Local Beavers, who have won three straight since opening losses to Columbiana and Leetonia. The return of Rex Campbell at end has been a big factor in the Beavers recent success, though many others have contributed. Bob McNea and the East Liverpool Potters have no losses to bounce back from yet, and we're sure Bob would like to see this situation continue all year. McNea says that of the last five opponents on the schedule four are tougher than any team the Potters have yet faced. The comparatively weak foe is Martins Ferry, which always can be dangerous, especially at home, where the Potters face them.

I DON'T KNOW that it's possible on television to show what a beautiful edifice is Busch Memorial Stadium. I was lucky enough to visit there this year and, in my opinion, it is the best looking baseball stadium I've seen. (And I've seen them all except in Atlanta, Los Angeles and Anaheim.) Closest rivals are D.C. Stadium in Washington and Shea Stadium in New York. Not only was I lucky enough to be in St. Louis this season, but by a curious twist of fate the only American League action I saw in person was at Boston, a Memorial Day doubleheader. Little could I guess at that time of the season that the Red Sox and Cardinals would meet in the series.

One complaint against Busch Memorial Stadium is the exorbihant concessions prices. I also understand that hotels have jacked their prices skyhigh during the series in the Mound City. One thing good I'll say for St. Louis is that the racial discrimination complained about in previous years by Bill Russell and others is no longer practiced in restaurants.

Lonborg Faces Carlton Today

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP)—St. Louis' Bob Gibson has four straight World Series victories, and now the Cardinals are on the threshold of equalling that streak.

They put themselves into position to extend their series record to four straight today by coasting past Boston 6-0 Sunday behind Gibson's five-hit pitching.

The victory gave St. Louis a 3-1 lead in the Series and Gibson a four-game winning streak dating back to 1964 when he was the Series' hero.

In an attempt to force the Series back to Boston, Manager Dick Williams of the Red Sox called on Jim Lonborg, who threw a one-hitter last Thursday to face St. Louis today.

If the Cardinals wrap up the Series today or back in Boston, it'll be the fourth straight time they have won the postseason affair.

THE LAST TIME they failed in a Series was in 1943 when they lost to the New York Yankees four games to one.

They came back the next year to take their neighbors, the St. Louis Browns, 4-3; they edged the Red Sox 4-3 in 1946 and did the same to the Yankees in 1964.

Only three teams in history have come back from a 3-1 deficit and won the whole thing—the 1903 Red Sox over Pittsburgh in a nine-game series, the 1925 Pirates against Washington and the 1958 New York Yankees over Milwaukee.

"We have our backs to the wall, but we're not giving up," Williams said after watching Gibson allow only one runner past first base and record his second victory of this Series.

The Red Sox didn't quit Sunday, but they were pitched into retirement by Gibson.

The 31-year-old right-hander was pitching on three days rest for the first time since last year's All-Star game, and he said he became tired in the last two innings.

BUT THE RED Sox couldn't do anything against him. They got harmless singles in the first, fourth, sixth and eighth innings and then Carl Yastrzemski's meaningless double in the ninth.

"I was more comfortable in the first game; I was more tired in this one," said Gibson, who hurled a six-hit 2-1 victory in the opener last Wednesday.

"I really had to force myself in the eighth and ninth innings and when you force yourself, it's not as easy."

Williams agreed on Gibson's self-appraisal.

"He didn't have as good stuff as he did in the opener," the manager said, "but he's a great pitcher and deserves all the credit in the world. He was throwing strikes and that's the big thing. When he got the 4-0 lead in the first inning, he just made sure we hit the ball."

The Cardinals certainly hit the ball in the first inning, clobbering Jose Santiago for four runs and six hits before Williams replaced him with Gary Bell, who as a starter was rocked for three runs and five hits in the first two innings Saturday.

LOU BROCK and Curt Flood singled, and both scored as Roger Maris lashed a double. One out later, Tim McCarver singled home Maris, and after Santiago managed to get another out, singles by Julian Javier and Dal Maxvill brought McCarver around.

"When you have that many runs so early, you can relax a little bit although I don't think to the point where you get careless," commented Gibson.

The Cardinal ace, who was out from July 15 to Sept. 6 with a broken leg, never did get careless. He walked just one man, Reggie Smith, in the seventh but ended the inning by snaring Rico Petrocelli's little check-swing pop down the first base line.

"It kind of surprised me," the pitcher explained. "I realized it was going to stay up, and I ran over and got it."

Gibson might also get his prediction right.

"Before it started, I predicted we'd win four out of five," he said. "Maybe that's how it will go."

Miami Stuns Kent State

Ohio St., Ohio U. Rebound

By SAM DOBBINS
Associated Press Writer

A trip West over the weekend seemed to be good medicine for Ohio's big, but shaken, football powers.

Ohio State, humiliated 14-7 by Arizona in its season opener, wandered out to the coast Saturday and put down Oregon 30-0.

And revenge-happy Ohio University, still sulking over an earlier 21-14 loss to Kent State, pulled off a solid upset by dumping Kansas 30-15.

Elsewhere in the Buckeye football race, Ohio teams in the Mid-American Conference yielded the league lead to Western Michigan as the Broncos handed Bowling Green a 20-6 setback.

Coach Woody Hayes' Bucks, after a week of bone-crushing practice, put together a snappy offense that ran rampant over the Web Feet while the defense gave up only 70 yards on the ground to the Ducks.

The Bucks plucked down four Webfoot aerials, turning two into touchdowns.

Ohio State started early when Jim Nein grabbed a deflected pass on the third play of the game and scampered 39 yards to the Oregon 6. Fullback Jim Otis later went over from the 2.

And the very next time Oregon signal caller Tom Blanchard went to the air, Dick Worden intercepted on the 33 and six plays later Rudy Hubbard scored from two yards out.

Gary Cairns rounded out scoring in the first half, polishing off a 35-yard field goal with two seconds showing. Buckeye fullback Paul Huff closed the scoring for OSU, crossing the goal twice on short yardage in the last half.

The Buckeye offense pumped out 272 yards on the ground and went to the air for 47.

In other games:

Miami evened its MAC record at 1-1 with a 21-7 victory over Kent State; Cincinnati's defense forced Wichita to fumble six times and won its first game of the year by downing the Shockers 14-6; Louisville, taking a 13-0 halftime lead, overran Dayton 29-7.

Two field goals and Rich Harbold's touchdown gave Muskingum a 12-0 victory over Mount Union, and cornerback Jerry Malizia grabbed a fumble for one score and intercepted a pass to set up another as Akron defeated Youngstown State University 19-12.

South Side Wins 1st, Downs Millvale 33-13

The win was the first as a head coach for Don Charlton, who coached in the East Liverpool school system last year. The Rams are now 1-4, Millvale 1-3-1.

Ron Peden was the big gun for the winners, scoring three times and rushing for 143 yards. He also played a strong game on at defensive end. Greg Butcher, a linebacker, was another defensive standout.

The most spectacular play of the day was a 90-yard punt return by Ram quarterback Tom Doak. Butcher and Peden threw fine blocks and Doak faked out the last two Millvale defenders at mid - field and went in to score.

Bob Brinkley scored the other South Side TD. He gained 50 yards rushing and Dave Woodling picked up 61. The Rams, leading 14-13 after one period, threatened twice in the second quarter but were stopped by fumbles both times. Millvale never threatened after the first quarter, when Mel Davis connected on long passes to Jim Kaufmann and Frank Yukovich.

For the first time this season the Rams were tough defensively and in the line. Next week they entertain the Oakdale Boys Home grid team.

76ers Defeat Royals 137-102

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Philadelphia 76ers, holding a 72-64 lead at halftime, soared to a 137-102 victory over the Cincinnati Royals in a National Basketball Association exhibition game Sunday nght.

The 76ers, defending NBA champions, led all the way except for a brief period in the second quarter when the Royals held a four point lead.

Both teams were playing without their top stars—Cincinati's Oscar Robertson and Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain — who still are contract holdouts.

Big play for the Golden Beavers was a 97-yard run from scrimmage by Dwayne Cooper. Cooper also scored on a 65-yard pass from Joe Rasillo and totaled 172 yards rushing. John Petchel, who tallied on an 80-yard pass from Rasillo, ran for 148 yards. John Tennerelli ran for 45 yards and one score and Bob Paulovich gained 36 yards and scored once. Rasillo hit on three of four passes for 160 yards.

The Golden Beaver defense was tough also, with four interceptions. Nick Cilli picked off two and John Blackwood and Jim Wilson one each.

Dan Sekeres' club is now 3-2, 1-0 in Class B competition. Avonworth is 0-5. Next week Western is at Center Twp. on Friday night.

Gibson's 5-Hit Shutout Gives Cards 3-1 Series Lead

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Soccer-style kicker Ken Juskowich put the foot back in football, and the Mountaineer fans got a kick out of it.... Pitt coach Dave Hart was disgusted with the performance of his team... This Pitt squad is so bad even the chancellor doesn't want to coach it. Chuck Winters, former Potter star, got into the game for Pitt at quarterback. He completed 1 of 2 passes for 7 yards and was hit for a 9 yard loss. Not too bad, when it's considered starting quarterback Frankie Gustine Jr. hit only 1 of 12 attempts.

THE STEELERS seem to regard the Browns as supermen, especially playing in Cleveland. The Pittsburgh club got some bad breaks, but they don't seem to have a winning attitude against the Browns. Ernie Green always seems to do his best against the Steelers. He was having an indifferent season before Saturday, and the Steelers were leading the league in rushing defense, but Green gained over 100 yards.

THE 10 REMAINING contenders in the WPIAL Class A ranks were mighty glad to see that 13-13 tie between Beaver and New Brighton Friday night. The Bobcats and the Lions are the two best Class A teams in Beaver County and two of the best in the entire WPIAL. Beaver fans are questioning the strategy of Bobcat coach Pat Tarquinio. With time running out, Beaver had the ball on the New Brighton 4, right between the uprights. The Bobcats have an accomplished place kicker in Bob Mabin, but they went for the TD and failed. New Brighton has not beaten Beaver in 13 years.

HATS OFF TO Coach Bob Starkey and his Oak Glen Golden Bears for a tremendous effort against a topnotch Wheeling Central Club. Bows are also due to Joe Hamilton and the Midland Leopards, who have bounced back from routs by East Liverpool and Beaver to show a win and a tie in their last two contests, and to Don Ross and the Beaver Local Beavers, who have won three straight since opening losses to Columbiana and Leetonia. The return of Rex Campbell at end has been a big factor in the Beavers recent success, though many others have contributed. Lonborg Faces Carlton Today

ST. LOUIS (AP)—St. Louis' Bob Gibson has four straight World Series victories, and now the Cardinals are on the threshold of equalling that streak.

They put themselves into position to extend their series record to four straight today by coasting past Boston 6-0 Sunday behind Gibson's five-hit pitching.

Miami Stuns Kent State

Ohio St., Ohio U. Rebound

By SAM DOBBINS
Associated Press Writer

A trip West over the weekend seemed to be good medicine for Ohio's big, but shaken, football powers.

Ohio State, humiliated 14-7 by Arizona in its season opener, wandered out to the coast Saturday and put down Oregon 30-0.

And revenge-happy Ohio University, still sulking over an earlier 21-14 loss to Kent State, pulled off a solid upset by dumping Kansas 30-15.

Elsewhere in the Buckeye football race, Ohio teams in the Mid-American Conference yielded the league lead to Western Michigan as the Broncos handed Bowling Green a 20-6 setback.

Coach Woody Hayes' Bucks, after a week of bone-crushing practice, put together a snappy offense that ran rampant over the Web Feet while the defense gave up only 70 yards on the ground to the Ducks.

The Bucks plucked down four Webfoot aerials, turning two into touchdowns.

Ohio State started early when Jim Nein grabbed a deflected pass on the third play of the game and scampered 39 yards to the Oregon 6. Fullback Jim Otis later went over from the 2.

And the very next time Oregon signal caller Tom Blanchard went to the air, Dick Worden intercepted on the 33 and six plays later Rudy Hubbard scored from two yards out.

Gary Cairns rounded out scoring in the first half, polishing off a 35-yard field goal with two seconds showing. Buckeye fullback Paul Huff closed the scoring for OSU, crossing the goal twice on short yardage in the last half.

The Buckeye offense pumped out 272 yards on the ground and went to the air for 47.

In other games:

Miami evened its MAC record at 1-1 with a 21-7 victory over Kent State; Cincinnati's defense forced Wichita to fumble six times and won its first game of the year by downing the Shockers 14-6; Louisville, taking a 13-0 halftime lead, overran Dayton 29-7.

Two field goals and Rich Harbold's touchdown gave Muskingum a 12-0 victory over Mount Union, and cornerback Jerry Malizia grabbed a fumble for one score and intercepted a pass to set up another as Akron defeated Youngstown State University 19-12.

The win was the first as a head coach for Don Charlton, who coached in the East Liverpool school system last year. The Rams are now 1-4, Millvale 1-3-1.

Ron Peden was the big gun for the winners, scoring three times and rushing for 143 yards. He also played a strong game on at defensive end. Greg Butcher, a linebacker, was another defensive standout.

The most spectacular play of the day was a 90-yard punt return by Ram quarterback Tom Doak. Butcher and Peden threw fine blocks and Doak faked out the last two Millvale defenders at mid - field and went in to score.

Bob Brinkley scored the other South Side TD. He gained 50 yards rushing and Dave Woodling picked up 61. The Rams, leading 14-13 after one period, threatened twice in the second quarter but were stopped by fumbles both times. Millvale never threatened after the first quarter, when Mel Davis connected on long passes to Jim Kaufmann and Frank Yukovich.

For the first time this season the Rams were tough defensively and in the line. Next week they entertain the Oakdale Boys Home grid team.

76ers Defeat Royals 137-102

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Philadelphia 76ers, holding a 72-64 lead at halftime, soared to a 137-102 victory over the Cincinnati Royals in a National Basketball Association exhibition game Sunday nght.

The 76ers, defending NBA champions, led all the way except for a brief period in the second quarter when the Royals held a four point lead.

Both teams were playing without their top stars—Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson and Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain — who still are contract holdouts.

Big play for the Golden Beavers was a 97-yard run from scrimmage by Dwayne Cooper. Cooper also scored on a 65-yard pass from Joe Rasillo and totaled 172 yards rushing. John Petchel, who tallied on an 80-yard pass from Rasillo, ran for 148 yards. John Tennerelli ran for 45 yards and one score and Bob Paulovich gained 36 yards and scored once. Rasillo hit on three of four passes for 160 yards.

The Golden Beaver defense was tough also, with four interceptions. Nick Cilli picked off two and John Blackwood and Jim Wilson one each.

Dan Sekeres' club is now 3-2, 1-0 in Class B competition. Avonworth is 0-5. Next week Western is at Center Twp. on Friday night.

49ers Upset Rams, Colts Only All-Winning NFL Club

Packers Down 10, Rally Over Lions

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Packers spotted Detroit a 10-0 first-quarter lead Sunday, then rallied for a 27-17 victory that kept them atop the National Football League's Central Division with a 3-0-1 mark.

Brodie, meanwhile, tossed a 28-yard scoring pass to Sonny Randle in the fourth period that gave the San Francisco 49ers a 27-24 triumph over the previously-unbeaten Rams.

Baltimore kept its perfect record intact with a 24-3 victory over Chicago, Dallas edged Washington 1-14 on a last-minute TD pitch by Don Meredith, Philadelphia mauled Atlanta 38-7 and New York downed New Orleans 27-21 in other Sunday games. Cleveland trimmed Pittsburgh 21-10 Saturday night.

THE PACKERS, who had to come from 17 points down three weeks ago to earn a 17-17 tie with Detroit in their season opener, won the return match with a 17-point binge in the final period.

"One thing you learn in this league is not to panic," said Lombardi, the Packers' tough-minded general manager-coach. "If you start making drastic adjustments because you're down a few points...you're in trouble."

Brodie drove the 49ers 69 yards for their winning touchdown at Los Angeles after the Rams had erased a 20-0 halftime deficit to go four points up.

The 49ers, crushed by Baltimore 41-7 a week ago, handed the Rams their first setback in four starts after blowing the first-half bulge in a span of just over 10 minutes in the third period.

Brodie also fired touchdown bombs of 59 and 55 yards to John David Crow and Bob Windsor.

The Colts broke open a defensive struggle at Chicago when rookie Rich Volk raced 97 yards with an intercepted pass and Ordell Braase rumbled nine yards with a recovered fumble for two fourth-quarter touchdowns. The victory gave Baltimore a one-game lead over Los Angeles in the Coastal Division.

MEREDITH'S 36-yard scoring strike to Dan Reeves with 18 seconds remaining lifted the Cowboys past Washington for their third victory against one loss. One minute earlier, the Redskins had taken a 14-10 lead on Sonny Jurgensen's eight-yard TD pass to Charlie Taylor.

Trailing 24-13 with less than seven minites to play at Minnesota, the Cardinals, 3-1, struck for three touchdowns behind rookie quarterback Jim Hart and hard-driving halfback Johnny Roland.

Hart tossed a 40-yard scoring pass to Dave Williams and Roland ran for two more tallies as the Cards stayed atop the Century Division.

Norm Snead threw a 67-yard TD pass to Gary Ballman, hit Mike Ditka with a two-yard payoff pitch and set up another score with a 59-yard pass to Jim Kelly, leading the Eagles, 3-1, past winless Atlanta. The victory left Philadelphia in a first-place tie with Dallas in the Capitol Division.

Fran Tarkenton riddled New Orleans for 348 passing yards and two touchdowns in the victory at New York. Tarkenton's 11-yard toss to Bob Crespino in the last quarter extended the Saints' losing string to four.

Swim Record Broken

Yogis Slightly Better, Futhey, Shaffer Go 7-2

The Review Grid Yogis did a little better over the weekend, with a consensus of 6-3 and one tie.

Bob Shaffer and Tom Futhey led the group with 7-2 marks while Turk Pierce, Bob Duffy and newcomer Bob Poole were 6-3. Pierce still maintains a slight lead, though Poole is close behind.

Poole was the only seer to pick LSU's 37-6 defeat of Florida. On the other hand, he was alone in picking the Steelers, who fell to the Browns 21-10. Futhey and Shaffer gained on the others by selecting Lisbon, a 13-8 winner over East Palestine. Shaffer scored an upset by selecting Miami, which topped Kent State, 21-7, but he was set back by choosing United, which was whipped 29-12 by Beaver Local.

Everyone was correct with East Liverpool, which coasted over Dayton Dunbar 40-6; Wheeling Central, though it had to struggle to an 18-13 win over Oak Glen; West Virginia, which kicked Pitt 15-0, and Alabama, a 21-7 winner over Mississippi. Midland and Seneca Valley tied 19-19.

Braves Group Obtains Interest In Penguins

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Atlanta Braves Baseball Club has purchased a minority interest in the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League.

The announcement Sunday said no major managerial changes were planned and that Jack McGregor would stay on as president of the Penguins.

"The added capitalization supplied by the Atlanta group substantially strengthens the overall financial structure of the Penguins," the club said.

Chiefs Roll 41-0, Bills Nip Broncs

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Len Dawson, Kansas City's conservative quarterback, was at his ad lib best but Bob Scarpitto, Denver's impromptu punter, would have been better off sticking to his script.

Dawson hurled five touchdown passes, touching off the spree with a 77-yarder on a broken play, as the Chiefs bombed Miami 41-0 in the American Football League Sunday.

Scarpitto, trying to run from punting position on a fourth down, was swamped under by Buffalo defenders, giving the Bills possession and setting up Buffalo's 17-16 victory over Denver.

In Sunday's other game, San Diego rallied behind John Hadl for a 31-31 tie against Boston. Saturday night, New York knocked off previously-unbeaten Oakland 27-14.

Dawson, the AFL's all-time leading passer, has often been criticized for sticking too firmly to the game plan and not innovating on plays.

But he was unconventional enough for the Chiefs on their first TD, a razzle dazzle maneuver that left the Dolphins stunned for the rest of the day.

"It was an off-tackle play," explained Dawson, who started the move by handing off to Mike Garrett. "But Mike got stopped. I hollered for him to throw me the ball."

Otis Taylor, whose assignment on the play was to block the safety man, wound up with a TD instead. "I saw Mike was in trouble," said Taylor, "so I came back to help out. Then I heard Lenny hollering for the ball, so I just turned around and starting running downfield."

Garrett lateraled to Dawson and the quarterback threw for Taylor. "I was going to run with it," he said, "but I saw Taylor downfield so I threw to him. I figured he could make more yardage than I could."

Dawson was right. The play made 77 yards and was the first of five scoring pitches for the veteran quarterback. Over all, he completed 13 of 23 for 250 yards as the Chiefs buried Miami.

Scarpitto, who had pulled off six straight successful runs from punting position, had the string broken but good by the Bills.

Denver was leading 16-10 in the fourth quarter when Scarpitto gambled and lost in a fourth and 11 situation. A 15-yard penalty for piling on the poor punter pushed the Bills back to Denver's 44 but six plays later Keith Lincoln barreled in for the tying touchdown and Mike Mercer kicked the decisive extra point.

Hadl brought the Chargers back with a pair of fourth quarter TD passes that tied Boston. Hadl hit Willie Frazier with a four-yard scoring pitch and Lance Alworth on a 24-yarder. He completed 17-of-29 for 249 yards in the game.

Jim Nance and Babe Parilli had guided the Patriots into the early bulge. Parilli, who completed 17-of-34 for 264 yards, threw for a pair of touchdowns and Nance scored twice, picking up 127 yards on 29 carries.

The Raiders suffered their first setback of the season when New York defeated them 27-14 Saturday night. Emerson Boozer, the league's leading scorer, ran for 98 yards on 18 carries and scored two TDs, running his season's total to eight.

Norfolk Tops Wheeling Ironmen

Both teams retained their first place standings in their respective Continental Football League divisions. Orlando at 6-1 leads the Southern Division, while Norfolk with an identical record tops the North.

The Charleston Rockets, making a strong comeback bid to escape the conference cellar, took their second game of the season by topping the Hartford Charter Oaks 24-7, Saturday.

The Packers spotted Detroit a 10-0 first-quarter lead Sunday, then rallied for a 27-17 victory that kept them atop the National Football League's Central Division with a 3-0-1 mark.

Brodie, meanwhile, tossed a 28-yard scoring pass to Sonny Randle in the fourth period that gave the San Francisco 49ers a 27-24 triumph over the previously-unbeaten Rams.

Baltimore kept its perfect record intact with a 24-3 victory over Chicago, Dallas edged Washington 1-14 on a last-minute TD pitch by Don Meredith, Philadelphia mauled Atlanta 38-7 and New York downed New Orleans 27-21 in other Sunday games. Cleveland trimmed Pittsburgh 21-10 Saturday night.

THE PACKERS, who had to come from 17 points down three weeks ago to earn a 17-17 tie with Detroit in their season opener, won the return match with a 17-point binge in the final period.

"One thing you learn in this league is not to panic," said Lombardi, the Packers' tough-minded general manager-coach. "If you start making drastic adjustments because you're down a few points...you're in trouble."

Brodie drove the 49ers 69 yards for their winning touchdown at Los Angeles after the Rams had erased a 20-0 halftime deficit to go four points up.

The 49ers, crushed by Baltimore 41-7 a week ago, handed the Rams their first setback in four starts after blowing the first-half bulge in a span of just over 10 minutes in the third period.

Brodie also fired touchdown bombs of 59 and 55 yards to John David Crow and Bob Windsor.

The Colts broke open a defensive struggle at Chicago when rookie Rich Volk raced 97 yards with an intercepted pass and Ordell Braase rumbled nine yards with a recovered fumble for two fourth-quarter touchdowns. The victory gave Baltimore a one-game lead over Los Angeles in the Coastal Division.

MEREDITH'S 36-yard scoring strike to Dan Reeves with 18 seconds remaining lifted the Cowboys past Washington for their third victory against one loss. One minute earlier, the Redskins had taken a 14-10 lead on Sonny Jurgensen's eight-yard TD pass to Charlie Taylor.

Trailing 24-13 with less than seven minites to play at Minnesota, the Cardinals, 3-1, struck for three touchdowns behind rookie quarterback Jim Hart and hard-driving halfback Johnny Roland.

Hart tossed a 40-yard scoring pass to Dave Williams and Roland ran for two more tallies as the Cards stayed atop the Century Division.

Norm Snead threw a 67-yard TD pass to Gary Ballman, hit Mike Ditka with a two-yard payoff pitch and set up another score with a 59-yard pass to Jim Kelly, leading the Eagles, 3-1, past winless Atlanta. The victory left Philadelphia in a first-place tie with Dallas in the Capitol Division.

Fran Tarkenton riddled New Orleans for 348 passing yards and two touchdowns in the victory at New York. Tarkenton's 11-yard toss to Bob Crespino in the last quarter extended the Saints' losing string to four.

Yogis Slightly Better, Futhey, Shaffer Go 7-2

The Review Grid Yogis did a little better over the weekend, with a consensus of 6-3 and one tie.

Bob Shaffer and Tom Futhey led the group with 7-2 marks while Turk Pierce, Bob Duffy and newcomer Bob Poole were 6-3. Pierce still maintains a slight lead, though Poole is close behind.

Poole was the only seer to pick LSU's 37-6 defeat of Florida. On the other hand, he was alone in picking the Steelers, who fell to the Browns 21-10. Futhey and Shaffer gained on the others by selecting Lisbon, a 13-8 winner over East Palestine. Shaffer scored an upset by selecting Miami, which topped Kent State, 21-7, but he was set back by choosing United, which was whipped 29-12 by Beaver Local.

Everyone was correct with East Liverpool, which coasted over Dayton Dunbar 40-6; Wheeling Central, though it had to struggle to an 18-13 win over Oak Glen; West Virginia, which kicked Pitt 15-0, and Alabama, a 21-7 winner over Mississippi. Midland and Seneca Valley tied 19-19.

Braves Group Obtains Interest In Penguins

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Atlanta Braves Baseball Club has purchased a minority interest in the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League.

The announcement Sunday said no major managerial changes were planned and that Jack McGregor would stay on as president of the Penguins.

"The added capitalization supplied by the Atlanta group substantially strengthens the overall financial structure of the Penguins," the club said.

Swim Record Broken

Chiefs Roll 41-0, Bills Nip Broncs

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Len Dawson, Kansas City's conservative quarterback, was at his ad lib best but Bob Scarpitto, Denver's impromptu punter, would have been better off sticking to his script.

Dawson hurled five touchdown passes, touching off the spree with a 77-yarder on a broken play, as the Chiefs bombed Miami 41-0 in the American Football League Sunday.

Scarpitto, trying to run from punting position on a fourth down, was swamped under by Buffalo defenders, giving the Bills possession and setting up Buffalo's 17-16 victory over Denver.

In Sunday's other game, San Diego rallied behind John Hadl for a 31-31 tie against Boston. Saturday night, New York knocked off previously-unbeaten Oakland 27-14.

Dawson, the AFL's all-time leading passer, has often been criticized for sticking too firmly to the game plan and not innovating on plays.

But he was unconventional enough for the Chiefs on their first TD, a razzle dazzle maneuver that left the Dolphins stunned for the rest of the day.

"It was an off-tackle play," explained Dawson, who started the move by handing off to Mike Garrett. "But Mike got stopped. I hollered for him to throw me the ball."

Otis Taylor, whose assignment on the play was to block the safety man, wound up with a TD instead. "I saw Mike was in trouble," said Taylor, "so I came back to help out. Then I heard Lenny hollering for the ball, so I just turned around and starting running downfield."

Garrett lateraled to Dawson and the quarterback threw for Taylor. "I was going to run with it," he said, "but I saw Taylor downfield so I threw to him. I figured he could make more yardage than I could."

Dawson was right. The play made 77 yards and was the first of five scoring pitches for the veteran quarterback. Over all, he completed 13 of 23 for 250 yards as the Chiefs buried Miami.

Scarpitto, who had pulled off six straight successful runs from punting position, had the string broken but good by the Bills.

Denver was leading 16-10 in the fourth quarter when Scarpitto gambled and lost in a fourth and 11 situation. A 15-yard penalty for piling on the poor punter pushed the Bills back to Denver's 44 but six plays later Keith Lincoln barreled in for the tying touchdown and Mike Mercer kicked the decisive extra point.

Hadl brought the Chargers back with a pair of fourth quarter TD passes that tied Boston. Hadl hit Willie Frazier with a four-yard scoring pitch and Lance Alworth on a 24-yarder. He completed 17-of-29 for 249 yards in the game.

Jim Nance and Babe Parilli had guided the Patriots into the early bulge. Parilli, who completed 17-of-34 for 264 yards, threw for a pair of touchdowns and Nance scored twice, picking up 127 yards on 29 carries.

The Raiders suffered their first setback of the season when New York defeated them 27-14 Saturday night. Emerson Boozer, the league's leading scorer, ran for 98 yards on 18 carries and scored two TDs, running his season's total to eight.

Norfolk Tops Wheeling Ironmen

Both teams retained their first place standings in their respective Continental Football League divisions. Orlando at 6-1 leads the Southern Division, while Norfolk with an identical record tops the North.

The Charleston Rockets, making a strong comeback bid to escape the conference cellar, took their second game of the season by topping the Hartford Charter Oaks 24-7, Saturday.

Canadiens Win, 5-4

MONTREAL (AP)—The Montreal Canadiens scored a pair of goals less than four minutes apart in the third period to edge the Toronto Maple Leafs 5-4 in a National Hockey League exhibition game Sunday night. Ralph Backstrom scored the winning goal at 15:34 of the final period.

Former major league southpaw star Warren Spahn finished last with Tulsa in the eastern division of the Pacific Coast League this year, his first as a manager.

No. 1 USC Wins Easily, Looks Toward Irish Clash

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern California, which is the top-ranked college football team in the country, and Notre Dame, which used to be, both rolled to convincing victories Saturday, setting up their clash this week as one of the top contests of the season.

The Trojans remained unbeaten by knocking off Stanford 30-0 on touchdown passes of 28 and 29 yards from Steve Soggo to Earl McCullouch and the running of O. J. Simpson.

The Irish, knocked from first to sixth in the rankings by losing to Purdue a week earlier, came roaring back and pounded Iowa 51-6. The clubs meet at South Bend, Ind., Saturday and Southern Cal may be inspired by the memory of the 51-0 drubbing it took from the Irish last season.

Houston, ranked second last week, got a surprise before a record crowd of 52,483 in the Astrodome when North Carolina State rallied from a six-point halftime deficit and beat the Cougars 16-6.

The only other team in the Top Ten to lose was Texas Tech, No. 10, humbled 7-3 by previously winless Mississippi State. A couple of other top teams had their problems in winning, however.

UCLA, ranked third, pulled out a 17-15 victory over Penn State when the Bruins scored after blocking a punt in the third quarter. Purdue, rated fourth after upsetting Notre Dame a week ago, came from behind to beat Northwestern 25-16.

Georgia, ranked fifth, Colorado, No. 8, and ninth-rated Alabama all won with ease.

Georgia had a surprisingly easy time with a highly regarded South Carolina team, winning 21-0. Quarterback Kirby Moore scored on an 87-yard run for the Bulldogs and set up another touchdown with a 29-yard romp.

Wilmer Cooks scored a pair of short touchdowns for Colorado, which bombed Iowa State 31-0. Alabama beat Mississippi 21-7 as Kenny Stabler ran for one touchdown and passed for another.

Five FGs By Juskowich Set 3 Southern Records

MORGANTOWN (AP) — West Virginia University's soccer-style field goal kicker Ken Juskowich, who booted five three-pointers in the Mountaineers' 15-0 victory Saturday over Pitt, has established three Southern Conference records.

Juskowich broke his own record of four field goals in a game set against Villanova. And with the season only half over, he has already smashed the record for most field goals in a season 10 by Jim Gahagan, (The Citadel, 1966) with 11 so far.

In Saturday's game, WVU's defense stifled Pitt's offense, holding the Panthers to minus 21 yards on the ground and only 46 yards through the air. But, though the Mountaineer offense had things pretty much its own way, it was unable to cross Pitt's goal except when riding the talented boot of Juskowich.

A bright spot for WVU was the running of reserve tailback Ben Siegfried, who toted for 57 yards in 16 tries while filling in for the injured Garrett Ford.

Another substitute, third-string quarterback Garland Hudson, turned in an admirable job in his first starting assignment, marred only by his inability to direct the Mountaineers over the Pitt goal when the opportunities presented themselves.

WVU coach Jim Carlen was elated with the Mountaineer victory. "My first win over Pitt feels just great," he said. "When you hold Pitt to two first downs you can well be proud. I'm surely glad to have Juskowich," he added in what must be the understatement of the season.

Crestview Defeated By McDonald

Crestview's record fell to 2-3, 1-2 in Intercounty League play, as it dropped a 22-0 decision to McDonald at Crestview Saturday night.

The Rebels penetrated to the 19-yard line once in the second period, but lost the ball on downs. Randy McBride was the leading rusher for Dick Scarborough's team with 60 yards.

Chiefs Trade Beathard For Oilers' Ladd, Lee

KANSAS CITY (AP) — When you're only No. 2 you have to try harder, according to the Kansas City Chiefs. The Miami Dolphins just wish it wasn't so hard on them.

The Chiefs, defending American Football League champions but only in second place in the AFL's Western Division right now, held the Dolphins scoreless for the second time this season Sunday in winning 41-0.

But the big news came after the game when the Chiefs announced they had traded reserve quarterback Pete Beathard to the Houston Oilers for defensive tackle Ernie Ladd, quarterback Jacky Lee and the Oilers' first draft choice in 1968.

Chiefs' Coach Hank Stram said the trade was made to "make the Chiefs a stronger football team now, so that we can continue to win now."

What it means to the opposition is that 285-pound Buck Buchanan will be joined on the defensive line by the 290-pound Ladd. Buchanan is 6-foot-7, Ladd 6-9.

It's a reunion of sorts for the football behemoths. Both played on the same Grambling, La., college team. Ladd was two years ahead of Buchanan in school.

Lee, who will be used as a backup signal caller to starter Len Dawson, is an eight-yard AFL veteran. He originally signed with Houston in 1960 but was loaned to Denver for the 1964-65 seasons. So far this season he has completed 36 of 72 passes for 309 yards and two touchdowns.

Beathard is in his fourth year with the Chiefs. The former Southern California great was the Chiefs' top draft choice in 1963. He was also drafted by the Detroit Lions of the NFL before the two leagues started merger proceedings.

Brewer Wins Playoff For Alcan Golf Title

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP) — Gay Brewer, reigning U.S. Masters champion, defeated former U.S. Open champion Billy Casper by four shots in the Alcan Golfer of the Year Tournament playoff today.

Brewer's victory was worth $55,000 with Casper getting $15,000 for second.

Brewer, from Dallas, Tex., shot a four under 33-35—68 over the Old Course of St. Andrews. Casper, of Peacock Gap, Calif., wound up with a 37-35—72.

The two Americans finished the 72 holes in five-under-par 283 to force a playoff.

Earlier 34d graf 117.

Earlier this year, Casper beat Art Wall Jr., in a playoff in the Canadian Open, winning $50,000, and Al Geiberger in the $35,000 first prize Carling World Tournament.

Brewer and Casper tied Sunday with a 283 for the 72-hole title, five under par over the 6,926-yard, par 36-36—72 old course of St. Andrews. Casper remarked "We've never met head to head before in a playoff. And nobody's met in a playoff for such a big prize anywhere in the world."

Casper had a chance of closing it all out Sunday. He needed a birdie on the last hole to clinch the first prize. His approach was 20 feet away from the cup and he had a tricky downhill, curling putt.

He just missed sinking that one and took his par 4 to tie Brewer.

George Archer, Gilroy, Calif., finished third with a four-round score of 285 and picked up $7,500. Brian Barnes, 22-year-old Englishman, was fourth with a total of 287 — a score that won him $5,800.

Charleston Tops W. Va. AAA Schools

PARKERSBURG (AP) — The leaders in the West Virginia high school football ratings did pretty much as expected last week and retained their high rankings. Only among Class A teams was there a significant shakeup in the ratings.

Fairmont West, on the strength of a 20-0 shutout over Buckhannon-Upshur, rose in this week's State Secondary School Activities Commission ratings to sixth place among Class AAA contenders.

Kingwood, Matewan Magnolia and Doddridge County vaulted into the Class A elite by displaying winning form last week. Kingwood took the measure of Terra Alta, 46-14; Magnolia cooled Man, 24-6; and Doddridge stomped Tyler, 26-0.

Meadow Bridge, last week's Class A leader, dropped all the way to sixth following its loss to Rainelle, 13-0. Rainelle was boosted to fourth because of its giant killer role.

Marlinton inherited dethroned Meadow Bridge's position, followed by Winfield and Wirt. Marlinton took Union, 18-6; and Wirt smashed a strong Belpre, Ohio, team, 14-0. Winfield was not scheduled last week.

Police Guard Derailed Car Of Explosives

KIRKERSVILLE, Ohio (AP) —Police and Civil Defense personnel early this morning maintained guard around an ammunitions car which along with 21 other freight cars derailed near here Sunday night.

The Licking County Sheriff's office said there was no immediate danger of explosion, but the area had been cordoned to keep spectators away. No injuries were reported.

The cars, part of a westbound 122 - car Pennsylvania Railroad freight, were traveling over a Baltimore & Ohio Railroad line near Outville township when the derailment occured, sheriff's deputies said.

Cause of the accident has not been determined.

Heavy equipment was moved into the area to begin clearing the tracks.

Rhodes Lauds Press On 'Newspaper Week'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The American Press is the "balance wheel of our democracy," said Gov. James A. Rhodes in recognition of National Newspaper Week being celebrated this week.

"Nowhere on earth has the press coupled such a fully protected liberty, (freedom of the press) with such a superb sense of responsibility," the governor said in an open letter to the Ohioans.

4 Youths Killed In Pennsylvania

HANOVER, Pa. (AP) — A car which police said was traveling at nearly 100 miles per hour hurtled into a tree near here Saturday night, killing the four teen-aged occupants.

The accident occurred just before midnight on a rural route between McSherrystown and Mount Pleasant while the auto was being pursued by McSherrystown police.

Dead are Donald Reindollar, 17, believed to be the driver; Wayne McCleaf, 19, David Wagner, 17, and Carroll V. Auchey, 18, all of Hanover.

Conewago Twp. Police Chief Alfred Dillon said, "The car missed a curve as it sped down the two-lane road."

"It traveled along the brim of the road for about 150 feet, then slammed into the tree. The hood and the front seat were compressed into the rear of the car"

"There were cans of beer in the car, all crushed by the impact," Dillon added.

Will Sift Purchases

LISBON — The Lisbon Board of Education will consider the purchase of $1,907 worth of teaching equipment with Title III funds when it meets Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the administration building. Proposed purchases include an opaque projector for Lincoln School, reading labs for Grades 3, 4 and 6 at McKinley and industrial arts equipment and science filmstrips for the high school.

Captain's Gig, Iron Ruler At Aqueduct

By The Associated Press

Captain's Gig and Iron Ruler may meet this Saturday in the $125,000-added Champagne Stakes at Aqueduct. Such a confrontation would help clarify the muddled situation among the 2-year-old colts in thoroughbred racing.

Captain's Gig won the Futurity Stakes at Aqueduct and Iron Ruler the Cowdoin Stakes. If they go in the 96th running of the one mile Champagne the winner possibly would become the 2-year-old champion of 1967.

So far there is no outstanding juvenile colt. What A Pleasure, Exclusive Native, Subpet, Vitriolic and Jaikyl all have won stakes and now Captain's Gig and Iron Ruler have come to the fore.

Queen Of The Stage virtually wrapped up the 2-year-old filly 1967 championship by winning the $114,475 Frizette Stakes at Aqueduct last Saturday. It was the seventh straight victory for the unbeaten filly owned by Ogden Phipps.

Lemaster, Menke To Houston

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Atlanta Braves have come up with a shortstop in Sonny Jackson and the Houston Astros have strengthened their pitching staff by acquiring left-handed Denny Lemaster.

The two National League clubs announced a four-player swap in the press box Sunday during the fourth World Series game.

In addition to Jackson, the Braves obtained first baseman Chuck Harrison, who already has been ticketed to the Richmond farm club of the International League.

Houston also got shortstop Denis Menke who had outlived his welcome with the Braves' management with a .227 season

Bill Giles, Houston vice president in charge of public relations, hinted the deal might be part of another swap by which Menke might move on to another club. He would not say what other team might be involved.

No. 1 USC Wins Easily, Looks Toward Irish Clash

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern California, which is the top-ranked college football team in the country, and Notre Dame, which used to be, both rolled to convincing victories Saturday, setting up their clash this week as one of the top contests of the season.

The Trojans remained unbeaten by knocking off Stanford 30-0 on touchdown passes of 28 and 29 yards from Steve Soggo to Earl McCullouch and the running of O. J. Simpson.

The Irish, knocked from first to sixth in the rankings by losing to Purdue a week earlier, came roaring back and pounded Iowa 51-6. The clubs meet at South Bend, Ind., Saturday and Southern Cal may be inspired by the memory of the 51-0 drubbing it took from the Irish last season.

Houston, ranked second last week, got a surprise before a record crowd of 52,483 in the Astrodome when North Carolina State rallied from a six-point halftime deficit and beat the Cougars 16-6.

The only other team in the Top Ten to lose was Texas Tech, No. 10, humbled 7-3 by previously winless Mississippi State. A couple of other top teams had their problems in winning, however.

UCLA, ranked third, pulled out a 17-15 victory over Penn State when the Bruins scored after blocking a punt in the third quarter. Purdue, rated fourth after upsetting Notre Dame a week ago, came from behind to beat Northwestern 25-16.

Georgia, ranked fifth, Colorado, No. 8, and ninth-rated Alabama all won with ease.

Georgia had a surprisingly easy time with a highly regarded South Carolina team, winning 21-0. Quarterback Kirby Moore scored on an 87-yard run for the Bulldogs and set up another touchdown with a 29-yard romp.

Wilmer Cooks scored a pair of short touchdowns for Colorado, which bombed Iowa State 31-0. Alabama beat Mississippi 21-7 as Kenny Stabler ran for one touchdown and passed for another.

Five FGs By Juskowich Set 3 Southern Records

MORGANTOWN (AP) — West Virginia University's soccer-style field goal kicker Ken Juskowich, who booted five three-pointers in the Mountaineers' 15-0 victory Saturday over Pitt, has established three Southern Conference records.

Juskowich broke his own record of four field goals in a game set against Villanova. And with the season only half over, he has already smashed the record for most field goals in a season 10 by Jim Gahagan, (The Citadel, 1966) with 11 so far.

In Saturday's game, WVU's defense stifled Pitt's offense, holding the Panthers to minus 21 yards on the ground and only 46 yards through the air. But, though the Mountaineer offense had things pretty much its own way, it was unable to cross Pitt's goal except when riding the talented boot of Juskowich.

A bright spot for WVU was the running of reserve tailback Ben Siegfried, who toted for 57 yards in 16 tries while filling in for the injured Garrett Ford.

Another substitute, third-string quarterback Garland Hudson, turned in an admirable job in his first starting assignment, marred only by his inability to direct the Mountaineers over the Pitt goal when the opportunities presented themselves.

WVU coach Jim Carlen was elated with the Mountaineer victory. "My first win over Pitt feels just great," he said. "When you hold Pitt to two first downs you can well be proud. I'm surely glad to have Juskowich," he added in what must be the understatement of the season.

Crestview Defeated By McDonald

Crestview's record fell to 2-3, 1-2 in Intercounty League play, as it dropped a 22-0 decision to McDonald at Crestview Saturday night.

The Rebels penetrated to the 19-yard line once in the second period, but lost the ball on downs. Randy McBride was the leading rusher for Dick Scarborough's team with 60 yards.

Chiefs Trade Beathard For Oilers' Ladd, Lee

KANSAS CITY (AP) — When you're only No. 2 you have to try harder, according to the Kansas City Chiefs. The Miami Dolphins just wish it wasn't so hard on them.

The Chiefs, defending American Football League champions but only in second place in the AFL's Western Division right now, held the Dolphins scoreless for the second time this season Sunday in winning 41-0.

But the big news came after the game when the Chiefs announced they had traded reserve quarterback Pete Beathard to the Houston Oilers for defensive tackle Ernie Ladd, quarterback Jacky Lee and the Oilers' first draft choice in 1968.

Chiefs' Coach Hank Stram said the trade was made to "make the Chiefs a stronger football team now, so that we can continue to win now."

What it means to the opposition is that 285-pound Buck Buchanan will be joined on the defensive line by the 290-pound Ladd. Buchanan is 6-foot-7, Ladd 6-9.

It's a reunion of sorts for the football behemoths. Both played on the same Grambling, La., college team. Ladd was two years ahead of Buchanan in school.

Lee, who will be used as a backup signal caller to starter Len Dawson, is an eight-yard AFL veteran. He originally signed with Houston in 1960 but was loaned to Denver for the 1964-65 seasons. So far this season he has completed 36 of 72 passes for 309 yards and two touchdowns.

Beathard is in his fourth year with the Chiefs. The former Southern California great was the Chiefs' top draft choice in 1963. He was also drafted by the Detroit Lions of the NFL before the two leagues started merger proceedings.

Musician Claimed

GREAT NECK, N.Y. (AP) Ignace Frank Nowicki, 71, musical director of "South Pacific," "Gypsy" and other Broadway shows, died Saturday after running back into his burning apartment. Police said Nowicki, who was a concert violinist, probably returned to the apartment to retrieve his violin.

Named By Crucible

PITTSBURGH — Edward C. Gendron has been elected vice president of finance by the Board of Directors of the Crucible Steel Co. He had been director of financial controls since joining Crucible earlier this year.

Brewer Wins Playoff For Alcan Golf Title

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP) — Gay Brewer, reigning U.S. Masters champion, defeated former U.S. Open champion Billy Casper by four shots in the Alcan Golfer of the Year Tournament playoff today.

Brewer's victory was worth $55,000 with Casper getting $15,000 for second.

Brewer, from Dallas, Tex., shot a four under 33-35—68 over the Old Course of St. Andrews. Casper, of Peacock Gap, Calif., wound up with a 37-35—72.

The two Americans finished the 72 holes in five-under-par 283 to force a playoff.

Eearlier 34d graf 117.

Earlier this year, Casper beat Art Wall Jr., in a playoff in the Canadian Open, winning $50,000, and Al Geiberger in the $35,000 first prize Carling World Tournament.

Brewer and Casper tied Sunday with a 283 for the 72-hole title, five under par over the 6,926-yard, par 36-36—72 old course of St. Andrews. Casper remarked "We've never met head to head before in a playoff. And nobody's met in a playoff for such a big prize anywhere in the world."

Casper had a chance of closing it all out Sunday. He needed a birdie on the last hole to clinch the first prize. His approach was 20 feet away from the cup and he had a tricky downhill, curling putt.

He just missed sinking that one and took his par 4 to tie Brewer.

George Archer, Gilroy, Calif., finished third with a four-round score of 285 and picked up $7,500. Brian Barnes, 22-year-old Englishman, was fourth with a total of 287 — a score that won him $5,300.

Police Guard Derailed Car Of Explosives

KIRKERSVILLE, Ohio (AP) —Police and Civil Defense personnel early this morning maintained guard around an ammunitions car which along with 21 other freight cars derailed near here Sunday night.

The Licking County Sheriff's office said there was no immediate danger of explosion, but the area had been cordoned to keep spectators away. No injuries were reported.

The cars, part of a westbound 122 - car Pennsylvania Railroad freight, were traveling over a Baltimore & Ohio Railroad line near Outville township when the derailment occured, sheriff's deputies said.

Cause of the accident has not been determined.

Heavy equipment was moved into the area to begin clearing the tracks.

Rhodes Lauds Press On 'Newspaper Week'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The American Press is the "balance wheel of our democracy," said Gov. James A. Rhodes in recognition of National Newspaper Week being celebrated this week.

"Nowhere on earth has the press coupled such a fully protected liberty, (freedom of the press) with such a superb sense of responsibility," the governor said in an open letter to the Ohioans.

4 Youths Killed In Pennsylvania

HANOVER, Pa. (AP) — A car which police said was traveling at nearly 100 miles per hour hurtled into a tree near here Saturday night, killing the four teen-aged occupants.

The accident occurred just before midnight on a rural route between McSherrystown and Mount Pleasant while the auto was being pursued by McSherrystown police.

Dead are Donald Reindollar, 17, believed to be the driver; Wayne McCleaf, 19, David Wagner, 17, and Carroll V. Auchey, 18, all of Hanover.

Conewago Twp. Police Chief Alfred Dillon said, "The car missed a curve as it sped down the two-lane road."

"It traveled along the brim of the road for about 150 feet, then slammed into the tree. The hood and the front seat were compressed into the rear of the car"

"There were cans of beer in the car, all crushed by the impact," Dillon added.

Will Sift Purchases

LISBON — The Lisbon Board of Education will consider the purchase of $1,907 worth of teaching equipment with Title III funds when it meets Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the administration building. Proposed purchases include an opaque projector for Lincoln School, reading labs for Grades 3, 4 and 6 at McKinley and industrial arts equipment and science filmstrips for the high school.

Captain's Gig, Iron Ruler At Aqueduct

By The Associated Press

Captain's Gig and Iron Ruler may meet this Saturday in the $125,000-added Champagne Stakes at Aqueduct. Such a confrontation would help clarify the muddled situation among the 2-year-old colts in thoroughbred racing.

Captain's Gig won the Futurity Stakes at Aqueduct and Iron Ruler the Cowdoin Stakes. If they go in the 96th running of the one mile Champagne the winner possibly would become the 2-year-old champion of 1967.

So far there is no outstanding juvenile colt. What A Pleasure, Exclusive Native, Subpet, Vitriolic and Jaikyl all have won stakes and now Captain's Gig and Iron Ruler have come to the fore.

Queen Of The Stage virtually wrapped up the 2-year-old filly 1967 championship by winning the $114,475 Frizette Stakes at Aqueduct last Saturday. It was the seventh straight victory for the unbeaten filly owned by Ogden Phipps.

Lemaster, Menke To Houston

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Atlanta Braves have come up with a shortstop in Sonny Jackson and the Houston Astros have strengthened their pitching staff by acquiring left-handed Denny Lemaster.

The two National League clubs announced a four-player swap in the press box Sunday during the fourth World Series game.

In addition to Jackson, the Braves obtained first baseman Chuck Harrison, who already has been ticketed to the Richmond farm club of the International League.

Houston also got shortstop Denis Menke who had outlived his welcome with the Braves' management with a .227 season

Bill Giles, Houston vice president in charge of public relations, hinted the deal might be part of another swap by which Menke might move on to another club. He would not say what other team might be involved.

Charleston Tops W. Va. AAA Schools

PARKERSBURG (AP) — The leaders in the West Virginia high school football ratings did pretty much as expected last week and retained their high rankings. Only among Class A teams was there a significant shakeup in the ratings.

Fairmont West, on the strength of a 20-0 shutout over Buckhannon-Upshur, rose in this week's State Secondary School Activities Commission ratings to sixth place among Class AAA contenders.

Kingwood, Matewan Magnolia and Doddridge County vaulted into the Class A elite by displaying winning form last week. Kingwood took the measure of Terra Alta, 46-14; Magnolia cooled Man, 24-6; and Doddridge stomped Tyler, 26-0.

Meadow Bridge, last week's Class A leader, dropped all the way to sixth following its loss to Rainelle, 13-0. Rainelle was boosted to fourth because of its giant killer role.

Marlinton inherited dethroned Meadow Bridge's position, followed by Winfield and Wirt. Marlinton took Union, 18-6; and Wirt smashed a strong Belpre, Ohio, team, 14-0. Winfield was not scheduled last week.

Girl Saves Baby As Florida Auto Sinks Into Canal

SOUTH BAY, Fla. (AP) — A teen-aged girl plunged into the waters of a 25-foot deep canal Sunday and rescued a 3-year-old girl from a sinking car that carried the child's mother and grandparents to their deaths.

The rescuer, Paula Scoggins, 14, of Miami, said a woman handed the baby out of the window of the car and cried, "Save her! We can't swim!" as the car sank to the bottom of the murky water.

Miss Scoggins swam to the bank, about 15 yards away, handed blonde Laura Ann Schick to her boyfriend and swam back to try and save the other occupants.

"The car was gone," said state Trooper J.L. McLean. The doors were still closed when the car and its three occupants were recovered, McLean said. The rear doors were still locked, he said.

Miss Scoggins, a junior high school student, said she was traveling along the highway when she saw the car suddenly veer off an isolated section of U.S. 27 and plunge into the canal at a 45-degree angle. The victims were identified as the child's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. McGill, and her mother, Mrs. Joan Schick, all of Hollywood, Fla.

Two Fined At Lisbon In Traffic Violations

LISBON — Milan J. Kireta of Kensington RD1, charged with driving left of center, and Rodney L. Lucas of Magnolia, cited for speeding, were fined $15 and costs each Friday by Judge J. L. MacDonald in Columbiana County Southwest Court.

Erle R. Neubecker of Minerva was fined $10 and costs for a stop sign violation. All three drivers pleaded guilty.

Angell, 94, Dies, Writer, Lecturer

LONDON (AP) — Sir Norman Angell, 94, winner of the Nobel Peace Prize in 1933 for his many books and lectures on behalf of peace, died Saturday.

His best known work was "The Great Illusion," in which he tried to show that war damaged winner and loser alike and brought no real economic advantage.

More than a million copies of the book were sold after its publication in 1910. For his views, Angell was accused of lacking patriotism during the years before World War I. He had no doubt, however, that Britain was right in resisting Nazi Germany.

Angell was knighted in 1931 and served briefly as a member of Parliament after his election in 1929 as a Labor party candidate.

Academy Of Medicine To Meet On Tuesday

STEUBENVILLE — Dr. F. Mason Sones of Cleveland will address the Ft. Steuben Academy of Medicine in the ballroom of the Ft. Steuben Hotel Tuesday.

Dr. Sones, who is Director of the cardiac laboratory and pediatric cardiology at the Cleveland Clinic Foundation, will discuss "Study of the Coronary Arteries by Dye Injection (Cine Angiography)."

Dr. Sones received his M.D. from the University of Maryland, School of Medicine, Baltimore and interned at the University of Maryland Hospital. He served in the Air Force from 1944 to 1946 and completed his residency in Internal Medicine and Cardiovascular Disease at the Henry Ford Hospital from 1946 to 1950.

The meeting will be held at 8:15 p. m., preceded by a dinner at 6:30.

Angell, 94, Dies, Writer, Lecturer

LONDON (AP) — Sir Norman Angell, 94, winner of the Nobel Peace Prize in 1933 for his many books and lectures on behalf of peace, died Saturday.

His best known work was "The Great Illusion," in which he tried to show that war damaged winner and loser alike and brought no real economic advantage.

More than a million copies of the book were sold after its publication in 1910. For his views, Angell was accused of lacking patriotism during the years before World War I. He had no doubt, however, that Britain was right in resisting Nazi Germany.

Angell was knighted in 1931 and served briefly as a member of Parliament after his election in 1929 as a Labor party candidate.

Girl Saves Baby As Florida Auto Sinks Into Canal

SOUTH BAY, Fla. (AP) — A teen-aged girl plunged into the waters of a 25-foot deep canal Sunday and rescued a 3-year-old girl from a sinking car that carried the child's mother and grandparents to their deaths.

The rescuer, Paula Scoggins, 14, of Miami, said a woman handed the baby out of the window of the car and cried, "Save her! We can't swim!" as the car sank to the bottom of the murky water.

Miss Scoggins swam to the bank, about 15 yards away, handed blonde Laura Ann Schick to her boyfriend and swam back to try and save the other occupants.

"The car was gone," said state Trooper J.L. McLean. The doors were still closed when the car and its three occupants were recovered, McLean said. The rear doors were still locked, he said.

Miss Scoggins, a junior high school student, said she was traveling along the highway when she saw the car suddenly veer off an isolated section of U.S. 27 and plunge into the canal at a 45-degree angle. The victims were identified as the child's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. McGill, and her mother, Mrs. Joan Schick, all of Hollywood, Fla.

Two Fined At Lisbon In Traffic Violations

LISBON — Milan J. Kireta of Kensington RD1, charged with driving left of center, and Rodney L. Lucas of Magnolia, cited for speeding, were fined $15 and costs each Friday by Judge J. L. MacDonald in Columbiana County Southwest Court.

Erle R. Neubecker of Minerva was fined $10 and costs for a stop sign violation. All three drivers pleaded guilty.

Officers Seated By Mothers' Club At Beaver Local

Mrs. Donna Ketchum was installed as president during a meeting of the Beaver Local Mothers Club Wednesday in the Beaver Public School library.

Mrs. Donna Curran, school secretary, also installed Mrs. Gloria White, vice president; Mrs. Dolores Charlton, secretary, and Mrs. Helen Vishak, treasurer.

Rod Baum of WOHI radio station was guest speaker, with his topic "Venereal Disease." A question - and - answer period followed. Mrs. Dot Roberts presented him with a gift.

Mrs. Ketchum introduced her new chairman of the 1967-68 school year: Mrs. Janice Eells, devotions; Mrs. Beverly Longer, hospitality; Mrs. Annbell White, Mothers Club hostess; Mrs. Jackie Sacks, calendar; Mrs. Jackie Mitcheson, ways and means, including Mrs. Martha Mitcheson, Mrs. Dot Williams and Mrs. Charlton, Mrs. White, Mrs. Grace Diddle and Mrs. June Elliot, party, and Mrs. Dot Roberts, program.

Mrs. Jackie Mitcheson said the club will sell sweatshirts and jackets with the school name on them.

Mrs. White, party chairman, said the sixth and seventh grades will hold a Halloween masquerade party Oct. 27 from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. in the public school gym. Mrs. Longer served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

The next meeting will be Nov. 1.

Meningitis Reported In St. Albans School

ST. ALBANS, W. Va. (AP) — Two public school students and their parents were stricken by meningitis last week, but Kanawha - Charleston health officer Dr. Page Seekford says they are recovering.

Dr. Seekford said the disease is "only mildly contagious."

Students at George C. Weimer School who came in contact with the two with the disease were warned Friday to see family doctors.

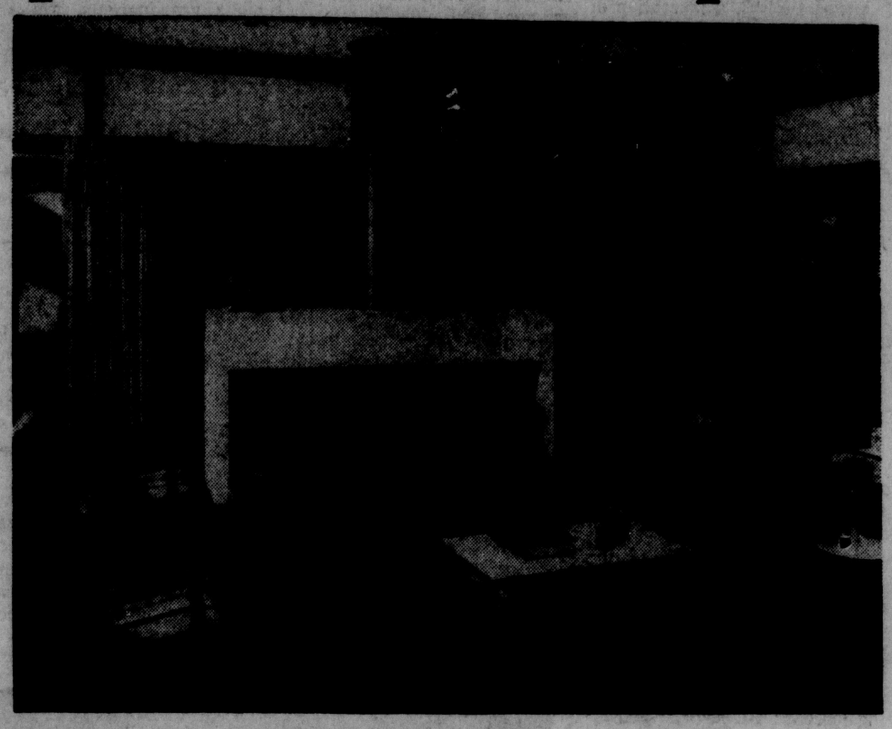
Spark Added To Fireplace



If asked to name the most important elements in a house, a majority of families would rank the hearth wall at or near the top of the list. It seems no matter how humble it may be or what its style, a house needs a fireplace to become a home.

Many families have discovered, however, that it's perfectly possible to break with traditional appearance without destroying the hearth wall's inherent warm friendliness.

FROM THAT discovery has sprung a wealth of exciting fireplace designs which, in turn, have given rise to a refreshingly new look in the living room. The feeling is more open, free and personal.

Usually the new - look fireplaces are set out from the wall rather than being recessed. Result: elimination of the usual wall trappings of moldings and built-ins and a sense of unencumbered space.

Among the amazing variety of prefabricated fireplaces available today, there's something for everyone. But for those who still wish custom design, it's also possible to build a fascinating fireplace.

For his own home, one architect designed a firebox of red brick and set it on an ankle-high hearth of sealed, polished buff brick. Then, with wood framing, he built another box around the firebox to form sides and a finished top which is used much like a mantel.

SIDES OF the outer box stand two feet away from the firebox, making open niches where logs and kindling may be stacked. The outer box was then plastered and painted white.

Chimney for the fireplace is olive - painted metal, its color matching the shade used for decorative trim and accessories throughout the living room.

To complement the long, box - like fireplace, the architect - owner had the wall immediately behind paneled with western hemlock boards, using a tongue - and - groove flooring grade. The straight-grained hemlock boards were laid horizontally and finished clear. The wood's coloring is a golden beige, its straight graining giving a faintly stripped effect to the wall.

The hemlock boards were then repeated as paneling on other wall surfaces in the room.

Steel Awaits Output Boost

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steel producers generally are anticipating a 10 to 15 per cent increase in business this quarter, Steel Magazine said today.

"Some marketmen are convinced the improved demand indicates consumers' stocks are low," the weekly journal of metalworking said.

September orders were estimated at 10 per cent ahead of August, Steel said. The magazine noted that automakers have been making "substantial purchases of flat rolled steel—mainly cold rolled material."

Business is brisk in tin plate as consumers seek to beat a mid-October price boost, and this year looks like a record one for tin plate production, Steel said.

Wire rods, reinforcing bars, semifinished steel and electrical sheets also are in the forefront of demand, the magazine said.

Estimated steel production for the week ended Oct. 7 was 2.48 million net tons, up about one per cent from the preceding week and the largest in volume since the first week of March when furnaces poured 2,528,000 tons, Steel said. Marketmen think output for 1967 still could reach 126 million tons in spite of trucking, automotive and steel strikes.

The impact of the strikes is on shipments rather than production, and September shipments fell short of the estimated seven million tons moved in August, Steel said.

"The work stoppage at the Ford plants had less impact on steel industry activity, but it has caused loss, or deferment of some tonnage business, the magazine reported.

The scrap market showed a $1-a-ton decline to $27.17 a gross ton for Steel's price composite on No. 1 heavy melting grade of steelmaking scrap.

Trinity's 700 resident undergraduates are all men.

His senior tutor, Dr. Denis Marrian, said, "We will treat the prince as normally as possible. I am sure he will be accepted easily."

Charles will study archeology and anthropology for at least two years at Cambridge. Once the domain of the rich, the majority of the university's student body now come from state schools.

NEW YORK (AP) — John D. Rockefeller III, board chairman of the Population Council, Inc., has been awarded the annual Margaret Sanger award in world leadership, it was announced Sunday.

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — actor Vince Edwards, on location making a movie, was hospitalized Saturday after slipping and breaking a heel bone.

A doctor said Sunday Edwards, the former "Dr. Ben Casey" on television, "will have to stay in the hospital for four more days, but he must stay off the foot considerably longer."

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Singer Frankie Avalon must pay his former manager, Robert P. Marcucci, $49,100 in commissions and expenses, a Superior Court judge has ruled.

Attorney Blasts West Virginia's Insurance Rating

CHARLESTON (AP) — Fairmont City Attorney Lewis Schoonic has charged the West Virginia Insurance Rating Bureau with "extracting increases under the guise of enforcement."

Schoonic made the charge before a legislative interim subcommittee called to consider insurance rates in the state.

Schoonic was supported in his criticism of the bureau by Mike Magro Jr., Morgantown City Attorney who said the formula used to determine rates, "seems to suffer from a credibility gap."

Another subcommittee was told by Earl Vickers, director of legislative services, it would cost $773,000 to re-register all West Virginia voters.

The subcommittee, called to consider election law reforms, was limited to absentee voter problems and changes in residency because of lack of time before the next legislative session.

House of Delegates Minority Leader Brereton C. Jones said, "our biggest problem is unlawful use of absentee ballots."

THE TRUTH ABOUT BUYING A FURNACE

who is kidding whom about these low, low prices?

Q. How can some dealers offer to sell heating systems at prices below the actual cost of producing a quality furnace in a modern plant?

A. ONE OF THREE WAYS:
No. 1—By using cheap, inferior components that are made to meet a price, rather than serve the homeowners needs.
No. 2—By "bumping" the customer to a much higher priced system with a high pressure sales talk. This is a version of the old shell game.
No. 3—By skimping dangerously in installation procedures, and service after the sale.

GOOD PRACTICES TO FOLLOW IN BUYING HEATING
Look around for a dealer with a good reputation. Refuse to deal with anybody else, no matter how tempting the deal may sound. Invest in a heating system with a brand-name furnace backed by years of honest service to the public.

For his own home, one architect designed a firebox of red brick and set it on an ankle-high hearth of sealed, polished buff brick. Then, with wood framing, he built another box around the firebox to form sides and a finished top which is used much like a mantel.

SIDES OF the outer box stand two feet away from the firebox, making open niches where logs and kindling may be stacked. The outer box was then plastered and painted white.

Chimney for the fireplace is olive - painted metal, its color matching the shade used for decorative trim and accessories throughout the living room.

To complement the long, box - like fireplace, the architect - owner had the wall immediately behind paneled with western hemlock boards, using a tongue - and - groove flooring grade. The straight-grained hemlock boards were laid horizontally and finished clear. The wood's coloring is a golden beige, its straight graining giving a faintly stripped effect to the wall.

The hemlock boards were then repeated as paneling on other wall surfaces in the room.

Steel Awaits Output Boost

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steel producers generally are anticipating a 10 to 15 per cent increase in business this quarter, Steel Magazine said today.

"Some marketmen are convinced the improved demand indicates consumers' stocks are low," the weekly journal of metalworking said.

September orders were estimated at 10 per cent ahead of August, Steel said. The magazine noted that automakers have been making "substantial purchases of flat rolled steel—mainly cold rolled material."

Business is brisk in tin plate as consumers seek to beat a mid-October price boost, and this year looks like a record one for tin plate production, Steel said.

Wire rods, reinforcing bars, semifinished steel and electrical sheets also are in the forefront of demand, the magazine said.

Estimated steel production for the week ended Oct. 7 was 2.48 million net tons, up about one per cent from the preceding week and the largest in volume since the first week of March when furnaces poured 2,528,000 tons, Steel said. Marketmen think output for 1967 still could reach 126 million tons in spite of trucking, automotive and steel strikes.

The impact of the strikes is on shipments rather than production, and September shipments fell short of the estimated seven million tons moved in August, Steel said.

"The work stoppage at the Ford plants had less impact on steel industry activity, but it has caused loss, or deferment of some tonnage business, the magazine reported.

The scrap market showed a $1-a-ton decline to $27.17 a gross ton for Steel's price composite on No. 1 heavy melting grade of steelmaking scrap.

Trinity's 700 resident undergraduates are all men.

His senior tutor, Dr. Denis Marrian, said, "We will treat the prince as normally as possible. I am sure he will be accepted easily."

Charles will study archeology and anthropology for at least two years at Cambridge. Once the domain of the rich, the majority of the university's student body now come from state schools.

NEW YORK (AP) — John D. Rockefeller III, board chairman of the Population Council, Inc., has been awarded the annual Margaret Sanger award in world leadership, it was announced Sunday.

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — actor Vince Edwards, on location making a movie, was hospitalized Saturday after slipping and breaking a heel bone.

A doctor said Sunday Edwards, the former "Dr. Ben Casey" on television, "will have to stay in the hospital for four more days, but he must stay off the foot considerably longer."

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Singer Frankie Avalon must pay his former manager, Robert P. Marcucci, $49,100 in commissions and expenses, a Superior Court judge has ruled.

Attorney Blasts West Virginia's Insurance Rating

Schoonic made the charge before a legislative interim subcommittee called to consider insurance rates in the state.

Schoonic was supported in his criticism of the bureau by Mike Magro Jr., Morgantown City Attorney who said the formula used to determine rates, "seems to suffer from a credibility gap."

Another subcommittee was told by Earl Vickers, director of legislative services, it would cost $773,000 to re-register all West Virginia voters.

The subcommittee, called to consider election law reforms, was limited to absentee voter problems and changes in residency because of lack of time before the next legislative session.

House of Delegates Minority Leader Brereton C. Jones said, "our biggest problem is unlawful use of absentee ballots."

THE TRUTH ABOUT BUYING A FURNACE who is kidding whom about these low, low prices?

A. ONE OF THREE WAYS:

No. 1—By using cheap, inferior components that are made to meet a price, rather than serve the homeowners needs.

No. 2—By "bumping" the customer to a much higher priced system with a high pressure sales talk. This is a version of the old shell game.

No. 3—By skimping dangerously in installation procedures, and service after the sale.

GOOD PRACTICES TO FOLLOW IN BUYING HEATING

Look around for a dealer with a good reputation. Refuse to deal with anybody else, no matter how tempting the deal may sound. Invest in a heating system with a brand-name furnace backed by years of honest service to the public.

Built-Ins Add Space In Attic

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Built-ins can add 50 per cent to the size of your attic room.

Because there is so much extra space behind its walls, an attic is especially suitable for built-ins, adding comfort and convenience as well as freeing floor space and avoiding a crowded appearance.

It is much easier and more practical to plan and construct the built-ins before the walls and studs are put in place, but a good job can be done even if it is necessary to cut into the walls, since there are no load-bearing beams with which to contend.

The cuts can be made without worrying about weakening the ceiling or any other part of the framework.

Before finishing an attic, decide what built-ins you want and then, using a homemade pencil - and - paper layout, mark off exactly where the built-ins are to be. It then will not be necessary to place studs in positions that will interfere with the built-ins.

Closets, bookshelves, bureaus and desks are among the many practical built-ins. One attic we saw had a complete storage wall built between and behind the studding.

The wall was filled with shelves, drawers, storage cabinets and clothes closets, the latter utilized for out - of - season blankets and wearing apparel.

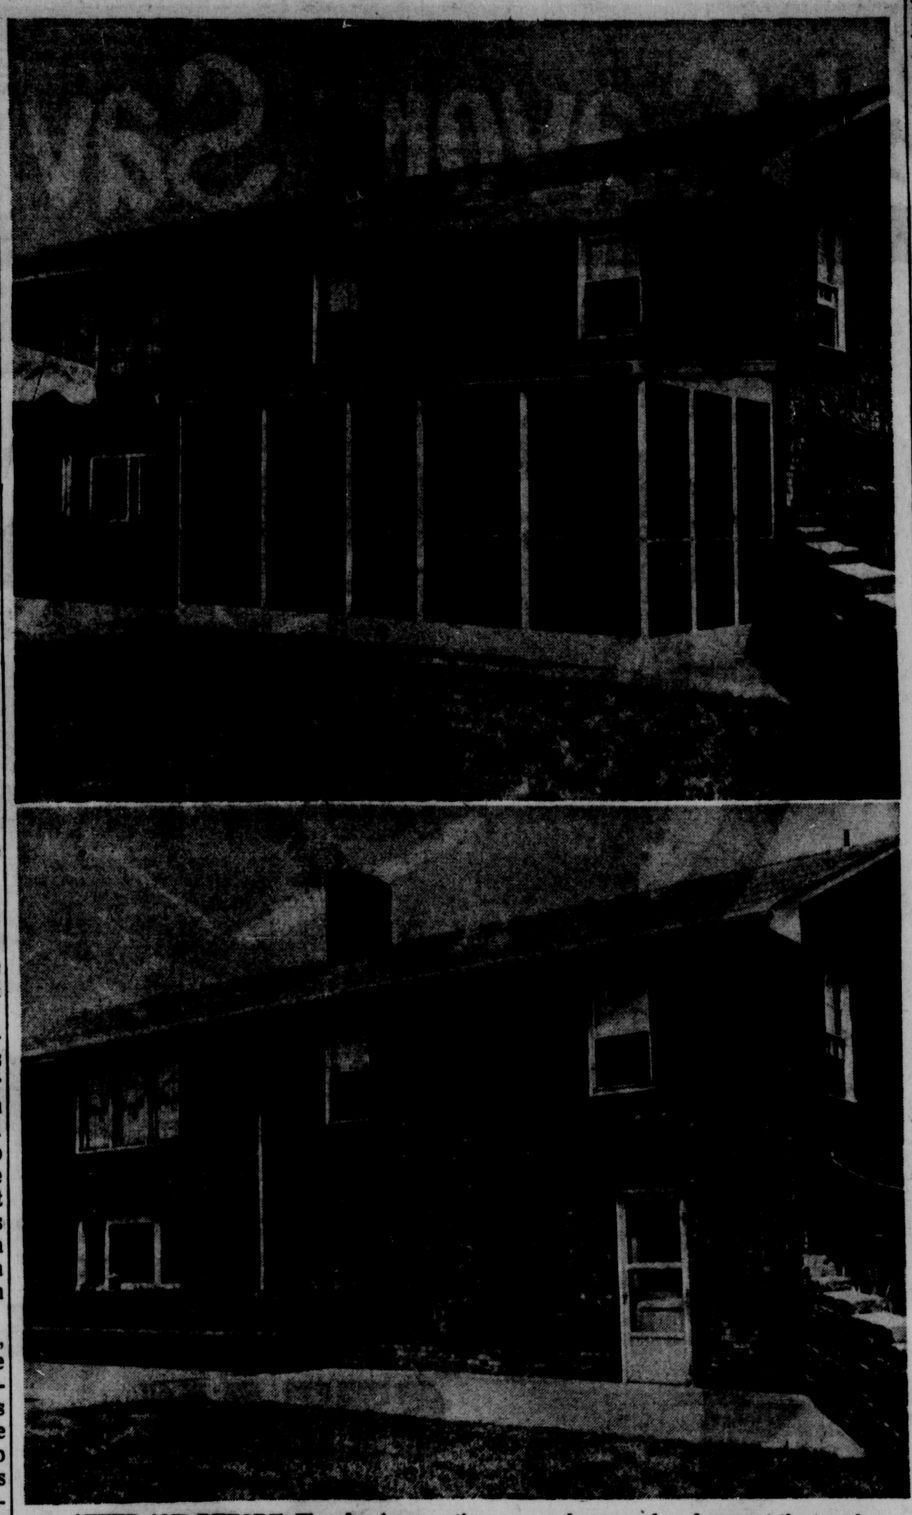
While it is not necessary to treat the wood used as the framework of the built-ins, it can be made less impervious to moisture by coating with a sealer, applied with either a brush or a cloth and applied in dry weather.

In addition to the built-ins, there is plenty of space on the floor behind the walls for storage purposes. Entrance doors can be built at two or three strategic locations. One way to dress up the finished room is to use doors of material different from the walls.

Let's assume that the walls are of knotty pine or smooth-faced plywood. Doors of striated plywood or finished hardboard would make an excellent contrast.

Experience has taught us that if tile or similar flooring material is used, this part of the project should be tackled last. If it is done first, scratches or other mars are certain to result from the movement of lumber and tools around the room during the construction of the walls and ceiling.

Drained chilled bean sprouts may be dressed with an oil-and-vinegar dressing for use as a salad. Arrange the marinated bean sprouts on lettuce and garnish with pimiento strips.



AFTER AND BEFORE. The aluminum patio cover and screened enclosure at the top shows what can be done to enhance the appearance of what was a rather "barren" backyard. A unique integral gutter system handles the heaviest downpour, while a decorative fascia strip, available in a variety of shades, adds color to the enclosure.

Seeing Spots'? Here's Possible Cure For Matter

We read so much about preparation of the surface before painting it that we went over it with a fine - tooth comb. Sure enough, we discovered a number of dark, irregular spots on some of the shingles. Not large spots. In fact, we hadn't even seen them when we inspected the house several times before buying, probably because they are generally in inconspicuous places.

Thinking they were dirt, we rubbed a couple of them with a damp cloth. The only thing we accomplished was to spread the spots to larger areas. We are hopeful that you can tell us how to remove the spots, what they are and how to prevent them reappearing.

ANSWER: It seems quite likely that mildew is the cause of the spots. That's why they are present in somewhat hidden areas, since mildew thrives in the absence of sun.

The spots usually are on parts of the house where shrubbery or something else continuously blocks the rays of the sun. Take an ordinary household chlorine bleach and apply to one of the spots. If it turns white in a few minutes, mildew was present.

One of the best methods of removing mildew is with a solution made up of one quart of sodium hypochlorite bleach (check the label to be sure it has sodium hypochlorite), three ounces of a household cleaning agent containing trisodium phosphate (the label again), one ounce of detergent and three quarts of warm water.

Apply with a brush, scrub well and, after about five minutes, rinse with clear water. When painting the outside of the house, use a mildew-resistant paint.

But don't rely on the paint alone to prevent future trouble. Remember that mildew grows where there is dampness—that foliage close to a house retains moisture — and that the lack of sun permits the fungus to thrive. Therefore, move back any shrubbery too close to the house.

How To Treat Wood Gutters

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

There is a certain substantial, high - class look about wood gutters that is entirely lacking in the lighter and smaller metal gutters.

We do not include the heavy, double - gauge copper type with the lead leader heads which were a standard ornamental touch on manor houses when homes were built to last a score of generations.

The wood gutter is usually twice as wide as the modern metal type and has a symetrical curved shape that adds a depth of shadow and a most pleasing effect at a roof edge.

It is generally seen in custom - built homes and in development houses of the better type. As might be expected, the wood gutter requires treatment that is different from that given to metal gutters.

Wood gutters hold paint on the exterior well enough, but there is little use in painting the inside. The average wood gutter will hold moisture for a long time, and, being in shadow, the paint covering the interior deteriorates and scales off rapidly. It is not unusual to examine the inside surface of a wood gutter that has been painted just a year ago and find it completely devoid of protective paint.

The proper treatment of a wood gutter consists of the following: The inside should be swept clean of any accumulation of dust, paint - scale and other debris after several dry days. Next, a flowing coat of boiled linseed oil should be swabbed over the surface. This will sink in very rapidly, but should be allowed to absorb into the wood until it has completely disappeared. A second treatment should follow as soon as the wood appears dry. This oil-soaking usually will preserve the wood for some four or five years and prevent the gutter from splitting, warping or rotting.

Youth Held In Beer Theft

A St. Clair Ave. youth has been cited in connection with theft of a six-pack carton of beer valued at $1.23 from a carry-out store at W. 4th and Jefferson Sts., police reported.

The beer was taken from Rayl's Market at 246 W. 4th St. Friday night about 10:36, officers said. Miss Kathleen Bloor, an employe, said she saw the young man "grab something and run out the door." She shouted, but he did not halt. A witness pursued the young man until he jumped into a car and fled, officers said.

Mrs. Mary Mercer of Broadway said she went to the restroom, leaving her purse on the bar, and when she returned it was missing. A short time later the pocketbook was found in the men's room with the cash missing, officers said.

Dates Are Listed In Yule Mailings For Servicemen

The mailing periods recommended by Postmaster Samuel W. Brown are for parcels to armed forces personnel, members of their families and U. S. civilians who receive their mail through an Army Post Office (APO) or Fleet Post Office (FPO) at New York, San Francisco or Seattle.

Parcels sent by surface transportation to APOs and FPOs should be mailed by Oct. 16, and no later than Nov. 11. Air Mail parcels should be mailed between Dec. 1 and Dec. 11.

Youth Held In Beer Theft

A St. Clair Ave. youth has been cited in connection with theft of a six-pack carton of beer valued at $1.23 from a carry-out store at W. 4th and Jefferson Sts., police reported.

The beer was taken from Rayl's Market at 246 W. 4th St. Friday night about 10:36, officers said. Miss Kathleen Bloor, an employe, said she saw the young man "grab something and run out the door." She shouted, but he did not halt. A witness pursued the young man until he jumped into a car and fled, officers said.

Officers said they obtained the suspect's name from a bystander. The boy was identified as a resident of the 2200 block of St. Clair Ave.

Meanwhile, a woman reported her purse containing $28 in currency was stolen at the Dan-D-Bar at Washington St. and Broadway Friday night about 10:10.

Mrs. Mary Mercer of Broadway said she went to the restroom, leaving her purse on the bar, and when she returned it was missing. A short time later the pocketbook was found in the men's room with the cash missing, officers said.

Dates Are Listed In Yule Mailings For Servicemen

The post office here has announced the schedule of mailing dates to get parcels delivered to the armed forces overseas in time for Christmas.

The mailing periods recommended by Postmaster Samuel W. Brown are for parcels to armed forces personnel, members of their families and U. S. civilians who receive their mail through an Army Post Office (APO) or Fleet Post Office (FPO) at New York, San Francisco or Seattle.

Parcels sent by surface transportation to APOs and FPOs should be mailed by Oct. 16, and no later than Nov. 11. Air Mail parcels should be mailed between Dec. 1 and Dec. 11.

Surface mail for Alaska and Hawaii should be mailed no later than Nov. 29 and air mail not later than Dec. 14.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise; Can you tell me how to remove iron-on tape?

I use it to print our name, address and phone number in all my children's jackets and sweaters — which, incidentally, was one of the most fabulous hints you ever printed. We had three sweaters returned last year that we wouldn't have found without the name tapes.

Now the little children are growing up to take over the outgrown jackets and I can't get this tape off!

They go to a different school and we have changed our address, so the old identification tapes need to come off. How can I do it?

PIDDLE PADDLE.

Honey, all you have to do is iron over the tape again for a few seconds. The gooey, sticky stuff will melt. Then just pull it off SLOWLY! You can also iron a new piece of tape on top of the old one.

If you have material that will scorch, use the point of your iron. Not the whole iron itself. This is especially good for rayon linings. That's all there is to it.

By the way, many doctors have written that sometimes they need more than the usual home information. They suggest a second emergency name and phone number be shown in case of an accident. Remember, many hospitals (so they tell me) cannot do emergency surgery in case of an accident without proper permission. So it's a good idea to add another telephone number. It might just save your child's life!

Thanks to all you doctors who wrote the wonderful hint in about ironing the child's name and telephone number on the label in the back of their UNDERWEAR! I never even thought about that before. Sometimes a little child doesn't have his coat on when an accident occurs, or perhaps mother and father are in an emergency room, too.

Bless all you dedicated doctors and nurses who wrote us.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When we have homemade soup we really make a meal of it. I serve it in a big tureen right on the table.

Our problem has been that the soup ladle kept slipping down into the tureen. Then I thought to clip a clean, snap-type clothespin to the ladle about three inches from the top of the handle.

Now the pin hangs on the edge of the tureen and keeps the ladle from falling in. No more fishing for that ladle now.

JO.

DEAR HELOISE: For women who still make lovely patchwork quilts:

Try using a horizontal striped material on the backs. Then you can always tell the LONG way of the quilts when making the beds. It also eliminates all that twisting and turning to tell which end is which.

Something else, if you use outing flannel on the back for lining, the quilts won't slip off the beds so easily.

MYRT.

DEAR HELOISE: I have lived for years in an area where the water is soft. And I've watched women dump too much detergent in their washing machines which usually results in the suds overflowing.

The directions on most detergent boxes do not take soft water-areas into consideration. It isn't necessary to use as much as you would in a hard water area. Using less detergent in soft water will not only save money, but lots of clean-up jobs too.

It's easy to make a good dip for a raw vegetable appetizer by combining mayonnaise, chili sauce and celery seed. To give the dip extra zip, you may want to add cayenne pepper.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The World Almanac notes that Henry David Thoreau (1817 - 1862), generally known in literature and natural history for such works as "Walden" and "Excursions," also has had enormous influence in practical politics. Thoreau's "Civil Disobedience" became a handbook for Gandhi, and at one time for the British Labor party, and is currently an inspiration to the civil rights movement.

Divers Find No Gold Beneath Chicago Span

CHICAGO (AP) — A scuba diving expedition Sunday underlined the truth that the Chicago River's depths should be more the concern of junk collectors than treasure hunters.

The H20ers Scuba Diving Club from suburban Elmhurst spent 2½ hours beneath the Michigan Avenue Bridge looking for a box that fell from a boat last year.

Ralph Kohler, club president, said the treasure hunters were able only to turn up a baby carriage, a bed spring, several 55-gallon drums, a telephone switchboard and about "30 million" beer cans.

In 1896 Stanford played two scoreless ties in football. Both were against the Olympic Club.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Negro Actors Make It On TV

Has the breakthrough come for the Negro actor in TV? Greg Morris, who plays Barney Collier in CBS' "Mission Impossible" series, believes it has.

Hal Humphrey

"We're getting roles now which weren't specified for Negroes," says Greg. "I don't think my part called for a Negro. About 40 actors were considered and only three or four were Negroes. When you're hired as an actor, and not because of your color, that's the true test."

-:-

PRODUCERS and directors are beginning to let the Negro play something besides those goody-goody roles, Greg points out. He, the Negro, doesn't have to be a brilliant doctor or lawyer.

"I saw one of those 'NYPD' shows the other night where Bob Hooks as one of the detectives really goofed up. Now they wouldn't have let a Negro do that a few years ago. We've got a Negro, Percy Rodriguez, playing a heavy on one of our 'Mission Impossible' episodes this season, too," adds Greg.

Eight TV series this season are featuring or costarring Negroes. Besides Greg with "Mission Impossible" and the just-mentioned Robert Hooks of ABC's "NYPD" series, there are Ivan Dixon ("Hogan's Heroes"), Hari Rhodes ("Daktari'). Gerald Edwards (the kid Samson in "Cowboy in Africa'), Don Mitchell ("Ironside"), Michelle Nichols ("Star Trek") and,of course, Bill Cosby, whose starring role in "I Spy" provided the impetus for this breakthrough Greg speaks of.

"IT TOOK producer Sheldon Leonard and Cosby to prove that the industry had waited too long. I mean the public was ready to accept a white man and black man costarred in a series, but Madison Avenue didn't believe it," says Greg.

Other TV producers, and the networks, now are beginning to realize that not only is the Negro accepted by TV audiences, but it is good business to have him in the series.

"Luckily, 'I Spy' caught on," says Greg. "If it hadn't, of course, then we'd have been in trouble."

"Daktari" with Hari Rhodes and "Hogan's Heroes" with Ivan Dixon started two years ago with "I Spy", but their roles weren't as prominent as Cosby's, and weren't watched as bellwethers the way "I Spy" was.

ACTUALLY, "I Spy" was in a gray area its first season, as far as the ratings revealed, and there is some conjecture over whether it might have been saved because of its "noble experiment" ramifications.

Greg admits that not everyone in TV agrees with him that the Negro has accomplished a breakthrough.

"There are those who'll say, 'Sure, he believes it because he's working,' but I say to that, 'Look where we were three years ago.' Also, today there are more Negroes with technical jobs behind the TV cameras. I see them in studios where there weren't any before."

Greg went to California six years ago, following his taking over the Sidney Poitier role in the national company of "A Raisin in the Sun." Before that he had been a radio disc jockey in Iowa, a job he got from his work at the University of Iowa's campus radio station.

AFTER "Raisin" he got feature roles in three movies, then worked in several TV shows, including "Ben Casey," "The Fugitive" and the Dick Van Dyke Show.

On a strictly numerical basis Greg isn't kidding himself that eight series have made it V-Day for the Negro on TV. Why, he cites for an example, shouldn't there be a situation comedy in which the next-door neighbor is a Negro? Such things do happen, as he points out, and now that TV realizes it, maybe it will happen there, too.

"I agree with Cosby and there should be Negro cowboys who are fast guns and all the rest of it," says Greg. "There was talk of doing a TV Western based on Lazarus Benjamin, a Negro who fought for the North in the Civil War, then went West to get work as a cowboy but found he was only wanted as a fast gun.

"I don't know what happened to that. Maybe it will be done now."

Motorist Shoots Two Double Park Drivers

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Two Denver motorists were double parked on a downtown street Sunday when a car pulled up behind them and began honking its horn.

Neither of the men moved their cars so the motorist behind them got out and shot one in the head and chest and the other in the right arm and thigh.

Patients Rescued When Blaze Hits Florida Hospital

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Patients at the county hospital were led to safety Sunday after a woman patient touched off a two-alarm fire in a locked mental ward.

Head Nurse Mary Davis said the woman was one of two patients in a second-floor ward of Duval Medical Center. The other patients from that floor were attending a lecture, she said.

Miss Davis said the patient set fire to eight beds then blocked the door with a bed.

She said nurses got the two women out of the room and evacuated patients from the third floor. About 50 patients were in the wing at the time. None was reported injured.

Patients were returned to the hospital and beds were set up in a lecture hall.

Jet Loses Engine But Lands Safely

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — A jet airliner carrying 40 persons from Spain to Cuba made a safe emergency landing in San Juan, P.R., Sunday after losing one of its engines over the Atlantic Ocean, the Coast Guard said.

No one was reported injured on the DC8, an Iberian Airlines flight from Madrid to Havana.

The plane radioed a distress that one of its four engines had gone out and it was losing hydraulic pressure. An amphibious Coast Guard plane from San Juan flew to meet the jet and guided it into San Juan as the crippled plane's crew had requested.

The 30 passengers were taken to the U.S. Immigration Office to wait for the plane to be repaired. Ten crew members were aboard.

Eighth Victim Claimed In Texas Road Crash

GIDDINGS, Tex. (AP) — An eighth motorist died Sunday from injuries received in a highway crash in which one of the two cars was torn in half.

State Patrolman James R. Peters said a car driven by Alvin A. Pampell Jr., 19, of Houston, skidded sidewise into the path of an automobile operated by Julian S. Perez Jr., 24, of Lockhart, and the Pampell vehicle was ripped in two. Both men were among those killed.

The latest victim was Dennis Nowotnik, 19, of Houston, who died Sunday at a Giddings hospital.

Negro Actors Make It On TV

Has the breakthrough come for the Negro actor in TV? Greg Morris, who plays Barney Collier in CBS' "Mission Impossible" series, believes it has.

Hal Humphrey

"We're getting roles now which weren't specified for Negroes," says Greg. "I don't think my part called for a Negro. About 40 actors were considered and only three or four were Negroes. When you're hired as an actor, and not because of your color, that's the true test."

-:-

PRODUCERS and directors are beginning to let the Negro play something besides those goody-goody roles, Greg points out. He, the Negro, doesn't have to be a brilliant doctor or lawyer.

"I saw one of those 'NYPD' shows the other night where Bob Hooks as one of the detectives really goofed up. Now they wouldn't have let a Negro do that a few years ago. We've got a Negro, Percy Rodriguez, playing a heavy on one of our 'Mission Impossible' episodes this season, too," adds Greg.

Eight TV series this season are featuring or costarring Negroes. Besides Greg with "Mission Impossible" and the just-mentioned Robert Hooks of ABC's "NYPD" series, there are Ivan Dixon ("Hogan's Heroes"), Hari Rhodes ("Daktari'). Gerald Edwards (the kid Samson in "Cowboy in Africa'), Don Mitchell ("Ironside"), Michelle Nichols ("Star Trek") and,of course, Bill Cosby, whose starring role in "I Spy" provided the impetus for this breakthrough Greg speaks of.

"IT TOOK producer Sheldon Leonard and Cosby to prove that the industry had waited too long. I mean the public was ready to accept a white man and black man costarred in a series, but Madison Avenue didn't believe it," says Greg.

Other TV producers, and the networks, now are beginning to realize that not only is the Negro accepted by TV audiences, but it is good business to have him in the series.

"Luckily, 'I Spy' caught on," says Greg. "If it hadn't, of course, then we'd have been in trouble."

"Daktari" with Hari Rhodes and "Hogan's Heroes" with Ivan Dixon started two years ago with "I Spy", but their roles weren't as prominent as Cosby's, and weren't watched as bellwethers the way "I Spy" was.

ACTUALLY, "I Spy" was in a gray area its first season, as far as the ratings revealed, and there is some conjecture over whether it might have been saved because of its "noble experiment" ramifications.

Greg admits that not everyone in TV agrees with him that the Negro has accomplished a breakthrough.

"There are those who'll say, 'Sure, he believes it because he's working,' but I say to that, 'Look where we were three years ago.' Also, today there are more Negroes with technical jobs behind the TV cameras. I see them in studios where there weren't any before."

Greg went to California six years ago, following his taking over the Sidney Poitier role in the national company of "A Raisin in the Sun." Before that he had been a radio disc jockey in Iowa, a job he got from his work at the University of Iowa's campus radio station.

AFTER "Raisin" he got feature roles in three movies, then worked in several TV shows, including "Ben Casey," "The Fugitive" and the Dick Van Dyke Show.

On a strictly numerical basis Greg isn't kidding himself that eight series have made it V-Day for the Negro on TV. Why, he cites for an example, shouldn't there be a situation comedy in which the next-door neighbor is a Negro? Such things do happen, as he points out, and now that TV realizes it, maybe it will happen there, too.

"I agree with Cosby and there should be Negro cowboys who are fast guns and all the rest of it," says Greg. "There was talk of doing a TV Western based on Lazarus Benjamin, a Negro who fought for the North in the Civil War, then went West to get work as a cowboy but found he was only wanted as a fast gun.

"I don't know what happened to that. Maybe it will be done now."

Motorist Shoots Two Double Park Drivers

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Two Denver motorists were double parked on a downtown street Sunday when a car pulled up behind them and began honking its horn.

Neither of the men moved their cars so the motorist behind them got out and shot one in the head and chest and the other in the right arm and thigh.

At Hearing In Lisbon

Decision Expected Today On Fund For New School

LISBON — Judges Joel H. Sharp and Raymond S. Buzzard of Common Pleas Court are expected to decide this afternoon on a request for release of funds to help build the Robert Bycroft School for the Retarded.

Friday's hearing on the Columbiana County commissioners' motion for transfer of $37,038 remaining in the Fairmount Children's Home fund was adjourned until 1 today.

THE JUDGES said they want to complete the record by hearing from Judge Louis Tobin of Juvenile Court and Donald P. Hepp, county welfare directro, on the m tter of the county's foster home program for children.

Columbiana County sold its interest in the Fairmount Home to Stark County in 1957 for $50,000. At the time, the county Welfare Department had established the policy of keeping its young wards in foster homes.

The judges said yesterday they want to find out if there is any chance of the county needing the Fairmount Fund to build a children's home of its own.

Testimony was given last week by Commissioners James W. Boyd, Charles J. Gause and R. Max Gard; Mrs. Edna Ray, commissioners' clerk; Robert F. Beatty of East Liverpool, project architect, and Mrs. Ruth Kauffman of Lisbon, county health department nurse, who has been named president of the new county Board of Mental Retardation. The board will take over supervision of the entire retarded program Oct. 26, succeeding the County Welfare Department.

COUNTY commissioners said the transfer is needed to keep from dipping deeply into the general fund for construction costs. They said they believe applying the money to the school would be proper use of the fund.

They say bids for the school totaled $371,253 and other expenses are $20,275, making the total $391,528. This is $43,163 more than is in the construction fund.

The county has $348,365 for the project, including $241,365 from a one - mill levy approved two years ago and a federal grant of $107,000.

Beatty said the plans have been approved and the contracts let. He described the fireproof construction of the school to be erected on an 15-acre tract at the County Home farm.

It was disclosed at the hearing that the space originally intended for a workshop for the retarded will be turned into two classrooms. Beatty said this was necessary to stay as close to the budget as posible in view of increased construction costs.

The workshop is located in the Bennett Building in Lisbon.

Mrs. Kauffman and Beatty described the retarded children's school at Elkton as unsuitable. She said the facilities are 'grossly inadequate" and the architect said he advised the Beaver Local Board of Education against trying to repair the building several years ago.

OSU Board To Meet

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Board of Trustees at Ohio State University will hold a regular monthly meeting at the University's Administration Building Wednesday morning.

Disability Plan Helps Six

Ten years ago disabled workers began receiving monthly Social Security benefits.

Osgood, a native of San Francisco, is a World War II veteran who served with the First Division and 28th Infantry Division in Europe. He met his future wife, Mildred Rowler, an Army nurse who attended him at the Madigan General Hospital, Ft. Lewis, Wash., when he was transferred there from Europe in 1946.

They were married in Washington in 1947. He was reassigned to Ft. Knox, Ky., and when he was discharged there the young married couple settled in her hometown of Wellsville in 1948.

Osgood was employed by the Stevenson company in 1951 as a grinder. In the eleven years he worked there, he assumed more responsibilities, until he was appointed as a purchasing agent. The family grew. There was Sandra, the oldest daughter, then Patricia, Carol and Eddy, the youngest, who was three years old in 1962 when he had to leave the firm.

THINGS LOOKED bleak then. Mrs. Osgood assumed the entire task of providing for the family. Her experience as a registered nurse gave the family a continuing income. But it was hardly enough to provide for a family of six.

The Osgood's did not learn about disability benefits earned through his Social Security coverage at The Stevenson Company for a year and a half after he became disabled. Fortunately, because of the one year retroactive clause for benefits, he was able to establish entitlement for himself, for Mrs. Osgood and for the children, beginning in November, 1962. No benefit is paid to Mrs. Osgood because her earnings at the East Liverpool City Hospital are over the allowed amount to permit them.

Sandra, the oldest daughter, received benefits past the age of 18 because she was a student at the Kent State University Academic Center in East Liverpool last year. Sandra's plans are indefinite, but she may continue courses in education to become a teacher.

PATRICIA, a senior at Southern Local High School, is interested in art and plans to continue study in higher education. Carol, a junior at Southern Local, is interested in her mother's profession, nursing. Eddy, in the third grade at Number 16 School wants to be a jet pilot.

On this tenth anniversary of the payment of disability benefits, there are over 1,400 persons in Columbiana and Northern Hancock Counties receiving over $100,000 each month in disability and disability dependents' benefits.

There are over 2,700 widows and surviving children receiving over $180,000 a month. These figures include many children who are continuing their education past the age of 18.

Robert Harris, Social Security district manager, reminds workers in this area to call or visit the office if they have any question about whether they might be entitled to disability benefits.

A WORKER may qualify for disability benefits if he meets the following requirements:

Has social security credits for at least five years of work during the 10-year period ending at the time he became disabled.

His physical or mental impairment has lasted, or is expected to last, for a period of not less than 12 months.

Harris urges workers who have been unable to work for six months or more because of severe illness or injury to get in touch with the nearest Social Security district office to find out about their rights under the Social Security disability insurance program.

The East Liverpool office is located at 740 Dresden Ave. The telephone number is 385-9223.

Heart Attack Fatal

Marrying Manville Dies At 73, 11th Wife At Side

NEW YORK (AP) — Tommy Manville, playboy of the Roaring 20's and Depression 30's whose marriages and monetary settlements made headlines for almost five decades, died Sunday of a heart attack. He was 73.

With him at the end was his 11th and last wife, the former Christina Erdlen, 26, at their Westchester County residence in Chappaqua, some 30 miles north of Manhattan.

Manville took his first wife, a chorus girl, in 1911 when he was 17, and his last in 1960. He remarried twice, was divorced 10 times, and widowed once. He was heir to a $10 million asbestos fortune, and his divorce settlements cost him in the neighborhood of $1.5 million.

"Marrying Manville' was no misnomer for the son of the founder and chairman of the Johns-Manville Corp. He had a decided, and oft-announced, penchant for showgirls, squiring dozens and marrying five of them.

Manville, during his hectic nightclubbing and pursuit of beautiful women, once said. "I'm too lonely—I just can't live alone. . .The first thing I say to a girl is 'Will you marry me' and the second thing is 'How do you do?'"

He spent other millions maintaining what he called his "honeymoon cottage," a luxurious estate in New Rochelle called Bon Repos—Good Rest. He sold it in 1955.

He often said that, in addition to the millions his father left him, he had "lots of shares of Johns-Manville," and added:

"That's where I got most of my dough."

TOMMY MANVILLE
Dies At New York Home.

The bridegroom's father, then traveling in Europe, shut the family exchequer against him and said he would have the marriage annulled when he returned home. Manville arranged a second wedding in New Jersey.

Today In Washington

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — President Johnson stepped from his helicopter into Virginia's elegantly restored colonial capital and deplored a world in which "we have fought among ourselves like animals."

"In this century," Johnson told an International Convention on the World Crisis in Education Sunday night, "man has spent literally trillions of dollars on the machinery of death and war...nearly 100 million people have died in the maiming and disease which come with war."

He told the 200 educators from 54 nations the world must face the shocking contrast of the fact that in an era of unparalleled affluence "most people end their lives unable to write 'cat' or 'dog.'"

The best minds of the present age can be made available to all through educational television relayed through satellite communication, the President suggested. The cumulative knowledge of the world can be stored on microfilm and channeled through computers and communications links to give every nation the best in libraries and original research, he said.

Rapid expansion of such new techniques of learning are vital, Johnson said, if educators hope to "train a young man's eyes to absorb learning as quickly as we can train his finger to pull a trigger."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Betty Furness, the President's special assistant on consumer affairs, says the new Consumer Advisory Council will probe complaints of excessive interest rates and of unsatisfactory repairs made on appliances and automobiles.

"There is great dissatisfaction," she said. "The repairs take too long, they're not done right, they cost a lot."

The council, she says, will report to her office which will decide whether to recommend possible legislation to the Johnson administration.

She would not identify areas of possible legislation, but said the practice of some firms of sending credit cards to people who haven't asked for them should be stopped.

WASHINGTON (AP) — International trade can best be improved through adoption of United States proposals to reduce tariffs and trade barriers, a Senate-House subcommittee on world trade has reported.

The report, said Chairman Hale Boggs, D-La., represents a general assessment of the recently concluded round of trade negotiations at Geneva. He urged renewal of the now-expired presidential authority for further negotiations.

The Trade Expansion Act which provides help for firms and employes adversely affected by tariff concessions should be liberalized, the report suggested.

Dr. William Haddon Jr., director of the National Highway Safety Bureau, predicts the mounting death toll on the nation's highways may cause the government to limit the top speed of automobiles to 80 or 90 miles an hour. Cars safe enough to prevent deaths at impact speeds up to 50 or 60 miles an hour may also be required, he said.

Britain Begins Breath Tests For Drivers, Bar Sales Drop

LONDON (AP) — Curbside breath tests to catch drunken drivers began today amid complaints from British motoring organizations and reports from bar owners of a sharp drop in business.

The tests were pushed by Transport Minister Barbara Castle, who had already irked drivers by clamping a 70-mile-an-hour speed limit on the nation's previously unrestricted highways. Mrs. Castle does not drive.

London police with "breathalysers," plastic bags containing chemical crystals that change color when exposed to alcohol fumes, made their first test in front of Buckingham Palace, the Queen's home. The driver passed and was let go.

But for three of 13 other drivers who were stopped and asked to breathe into the bags during the night, the devices gave readings of more than 80 milligrams of alcohol per 100 milliliters of blood.

Under the new law, this means a trip to the police station for a blood or urine test. A too-high reading in these tests can be used as evidence in court.

Bars in many parts of Britain reported a sharp drop in business Sunday night. Traffic in London's normally busy West End nearly disappeared.

There was a surge of sales of soft drinks and beer and liquor to be taken home.

Motoring organizations have criticized the tests as inaccurate, claiming that the effects of alcohol vary in individuals according to age, weight, physical condition and other factors. One newspaper said even the vinegar on fish and chips could change the crystals from white to green.

Tiger Boosters Set Their Financial Goal

The financial goal for the year was discussed during the meeting of the Junior Tiger Booster Club Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Gerry Pasquale of 14th St., Wellsville.

The fund is to pay for uniforms, trophies and the annual banquet.

It was announced that new uniforms for the boys had been received. A wash and dry committee for their care was appointed. Boys, not having home insurance, are covered by the league. Mothers being contacted are reminded donations are strictly on a volunteer basis.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Pasquale.

The next meeting will be Thursday night at 7 at the home of Mrs. Louise Betz of 1617 Chester Ave., Wellsville.

Hong Kong, the home of some 3,800,000 people, including more than a million refugees from Communist China, is the industrial capital of Southeast Asia. The 398-square - mile British Crown Colony makes everything from drip-dry shirts and steel bars to cotton cloth and canned fried rice, the National Geographic says. Hong Kong ranks fourth among world movie producers.

Trustees Accept Bid For Road Maintainer

The lone bid — $5,500 from the Adams Machinery Co. of Salineville — was accepted for a road maintainer when the Liverpool Township trustees met Friday in the offices on Ada St., LaCroft.

Guy Digman, president, conducted the session.

The board said that weeds along township roads will be cut this week.

A mutual aid agreement was reached between the board and the Calcutta Fire Department, Digman said.

Bills totaling $924 were paid. The next meeting will be Oct. 20.

At Hearing In Lisbon

Decision Expected Today On Fund For New School

LISBON — Judges Joel H. Sharp and Raymond S. Buzzard of Common Pleas Court are expected to decide this afternoon on a request for release of funds to help build the Robert Bycroft School for the Retarded.

Friday's hearing on the Columbiana County commissioners' motion for transfer of $37,038 remaining in the Fairmount Children's Home fund was adjourned until 1 today.

THE JUDGES said they want to complete the record by hearing from Judge Louis Tobin of Juvenile Court and Donald P. Hepp, county welfare directro, on the m tter of the county's foster home program for children.

Columbiana County sold i t s interest in the Fairmount Home to Stark County in 1957 for $50,000. At the time, the county Welfare Department had established the policy of keeping its young wards in foster homes.

The judges said yesterday they want to find out if there is any chance of the county needing the Fairmount Fund to build a children's home of its own.

Testimony was given last week by Commissioners James W. Boyd, Charles J. Gause and R. Max Gard; Mrs. Edna Ray, commissioners' clerk; Robert F. Beatty of East Liverpool, project architect, and Mrs. Ruth Kauffman of Lisbon, c o u n t y health department nurse, who has been named president of the new county Board of Mental Retardation. The board will take over supervision of the entire retarded program Oct. 26, succeeding the County Welfare Department.

COUNTY commissioners said the transfer is needed to keep from dipping deeply into the general fund for construction costs. They said they believe applying the money to the school would be proper use of the fund.

They say bids for the school totaled $371,253 and other expenses are $20,275, making the total $391,528. This is $43,163 more than is in the construction fund.

The county has $348,365 for the project, including $241,365 from a one - mill levy approved two years ago and a federal grant of $107,000.

Beatty said the plans have been approved and the contracts let. He described the fireproof construction of the school to be erected on an 15-acre tract at the County Home farm.

It was disclosed at the hearing that the space originally intended for a workshop for the retarded will be turned into two classrooms. Beatty said this was necessary to stay as close to the budget as posible in view of increased construction costs.

The workshop is located in the Bennett Building in Lisbon.

Mrs. Kauffman and Beatty described the retarded children's school at Elkton as unsuitable. She said the facilities are 'grossly inadequate" a n d the architect said he advised the Beaver Local Board of Education against trying to repair the building several years ago.

OSU Board To Meet

Disability Plan Helps Six

Ten years ago disabled workers began receiving monthly Social Security benefits.

Five years ago, Edward Osgood's disability forced him to retire from his position as a purchasing agent with the Stevenson Co. in Wellsville.

Osgood, a native of San Francisco, is a World War II veteran who served with the First Division and 28th Infantry Division in Europe. He met his future wife, Mildred Rowler, an Army nurse who attended him at the Madigan General Hospital, Ft. Lewis, Wash., when he was transferred there from Europe in 1946.

They were married in Washington in 1947. He was reassigned to Ft. Knox, Ky., and when he was discharged there the young married couple settled in her hometown of Wellsville in 1948.

Osgood was employed by the Stevenson company in 1951 as a grinder. In the eleven years he worked there, he assumed more responsibilities, until he was appointed as a purchasing agent. T h e family grew. There was Sandra, the oldest daughter, then Patricia, Carol and Eddy, the youngest, who was three years old in 1962 when he had to leave the firm.

THINGS LOOKED b l e a k then. Mrs. Osgood assumed the entire task of providing for the family. Her experience as a registered nurse gave the family a continuing income. But it was hardly enough to provide for a family of six.

The Osgood's did not learn about disability benefits earned through his Social Security coverage at The Stevenson Company for a year and a half after he became disabled. Fortunately, because of t h e one year retroactive clause for benefits, he was able to establish entitlement for himself, for Mrs. Osgood and for the children, beginning in November, 1962. No benefit is paid to Mrs. Osgood because her earnings at the East Liverpool City Hospital are over the allowed amount to permit them.

Sandra, the oldest daughter, received benefits past the age of 18 because she was a student at the Kent State University Academic Center in East Liverpool last year. Sandra's plans are indefinite, but she may continue courses in education to become a teacher.

—:—

PATRICIA, a senior at Southern Local High School, is interested in art and plans to continue study in higher education. Carol, a junior at Southern Local, is interested in her mother's profession, nursing. Eddy, in the t h i r d grade at Number 16 School wants to be a jet pilot.

On this tenth anniversary of the payment of disability benefits, there are over 1,400 persons in Columbiana and Northern Hancock Counties receiving over $100,000 each month in disability and disability dependents' benefits.

There are over 2,700 widows and surviving children receiving over $180,000 a month. These figures include m a n y children who are continuing their education past the age of 18.

Robert Harris, Social Security district manager, reminds workers in this area to call or visit the office if they have any question about whether they might be entitled to disability benefits.

A WORKER may qualify for disability benefits if he meets the following requirements:

Has social security credits for at least five years of work during the 10-year period ending at the time he became disabled.

His physical or mental impairment has lasted, or is expected to last, for a period of not less than 12 months.

Harris urges workers who have been unable to work for six months or more because of severe illness or injury to get in touch with the nearest Social Security district office to find out about their rights under the Social Security disability insurance program.

The East Liverpool office is located at 740 Dresden Ave. The telephone number is 385-9223.

Marrying Manville Dies At 73, 11th Wife At Side

NEW YORK (AP) — Tommy Manville, playboy of the Roaring 20's and Depression 30's whose marriages and monetary settlements made headlines for almost five decades, died Sunday of a heart attack. He was 73.

With him at the end was his 11th and last wife, the former Christina Erdlen, 26, at their Westchester County residence in Chappaqua, some 30 miles north of Manhattan.

Manville took his first wife, a chorus girl, in 1911 when he was 17, and his last in 1960. He remarried twice, was divorced 10 times, and widowed once. He was heir to a $10 million asbestos fortune, and his divorce settlements cost him in the neighborhood of $1.5 million.

"Marrying Manville' was no misnomer for the son of the founder and chairman of the Johns-Manville Corp. He had a decided, and oft-announced, penchant for showgirls, squiring dozens and marrying five of them.

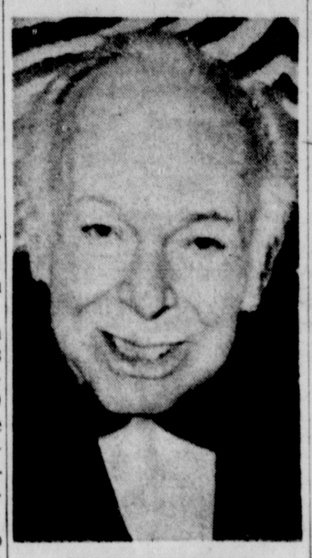
Manville, during his hectic nightclubbing and pursuit of beautiful women, once said, "I'm too lonely—I just can't live alone. . .The first thing I say to a girl is 'Will you marry me' and the second thing is 'How do you do?'"

As for his settlements, the tireless man-about-town remarked, "Manville is not cheap. At least I keep my money in circulation."

He spent other millions maintaining what he called his "honeymoon cottage," a luxurious estate in New Rochelle called Bon Repos—Good Rest. He sold it in 1955.

He often said that, in addition to the millions his father left him, he had "lots of shares of Johns-Manville," and added:

"That's where I got most of my dough."



TOMMY MANVILLE
Dies At New York Home.

The bridgegroom's father, then traveling in Europe, shut the family exchequer against him and said he would have the marriage annulled when he returned home. Manville arranged a second wedding in New Jersey.

Young Thomas Franklyn Manville Jr. took a $15-aweek job in the family's Pittsburgh factory in order to make ends meet. His first marriage lasted 11 years, although a separation in 1917 continued until divorce in 1922.

Today In Washington

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — President Johnson stepped from his helicopter into Virginia's elegantly restored colonial capital and deplored a world in which "we have fought among ourselves like animals."

"In this century," Johnson told an International Convention on the World Crisis in Education Sunday night, "man has spent literally trillions of dollars on the machinery of death and war...nearly 100 million people have died in the maiming and disease which come with war."

He told the 200 educators from 54 nations the world must face the shocking contrast of the fact that in an era of unparalleled affluence "most people end their lives unable to write 'cat' or 'dog.'"

The best minds of the present age can be made available to all through educational television relayed through satellite communication, the President suggested. The cumulative knowledge of the world can be stored on microfilm and channeled through computers and communications links to give every nation the best in libraries and original research, he said.

Rapid expansion of such new techniques of learning are vital, Johnson said, if educators hope to "train a young man's eyes to absorb learning as quickly as we can train his finger to pull a trigger."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Betty Furness, the President's special assistant on consumer affairs, says the new Consumer Advisory Council will probe complaints of excessive interest rates and of unsatisfactory repairs made on appliances and automobiles.

"There is great dissatisfaction," she said. "The repairs take too long, they're not done right, they cost a lot."

The council, she says, will report to her office which will decide whether to recommend possible legislation to the Johnson administration.

She would not identify areas of possible legislation, but said the practice of some firms of sending credit cards to people who haven't asked for them should be stopped.

WASHINGTON (AP) — International trade can best be improved through adoption of United States proposals to reduce tariffs and trade barriers, a Senate-House subcommittee on world trade has reported.

The report, said Chairman Hale Boggs, D-La., represents a general assessment of the recently concluded round of trade negotiations at Geneva. He urged renewal of the now-expired presidential authority for further negotiations.

The Trade Expansion Act which provides help for firms and employes adversely affected by tariff concessions should be liberalized, the report suggested.

Capital Footnotes

Dr. William Haddon Jr., director of the National Highway Safety Bureau, predicts the mounting death toll on the nation's highways may cause the government to limit the top speed of automobiles to 80 or 90 miles an hour. Cars safe enough to prevent deaths at impact speeds up to 50 or 60 miles an hour may also be required, he said.

Britain Begins Breath Tests For Drivers, Bar Sales Drop

LONDON (AP) — Curbside breath tests to catch drunken drivers began today amid complaints from British motoring organizations and reports from bar owners of a sharp drop in business.

The tests were pushed by Transport Minister Barbara Castle, who had already irked drivers by c l a m p i n g a 70-mile-an-hour speed limit on the nation's previously unrestricted highways. Mrs. Castle does not drive.

London police with "breathalysers," plastic bags containing chemical crystals that change color when exposed to alcohol fumes, made their first test in front of Buckingham Palace, the Queen's home. The driver passed and was let go.

But for three of 13 other drivers who were stopped and asked to breathe into the bags during the night, the devices gave readings of more than 80 milligrams of alcohol per 100 milliliters of blood.

Under the new law, this means a trip to the police station for a blood or urine test. A too-high reading in these tests can be used as evidence in court.

Bars in many parts of Britain reported a sharp drop in business Sunday night. Traffic in London's normally busy West End nearly disappeared.

There was a surge of sales of soft drinks and beer and liquor to be taken home.

Motoring organizations have criticized the tests as inaccurate, claiming that the effects of alcohol vary in individuals according to age, weight, physical condition and other factors. One newspaper said even the vinegar on fish and chips could change the crystals from white to green.

Tiger Boosters Set Their Financial Goal

The financial goal for the year was discussed during the meeting of the Junior Tiger Booster Club Thursday night at t h e home of Mrs. Gerry Pasquale of 14th St., Wellsville.

The fund is to pay for uniforms, trophies and the annual banquet.

It was announced that new uniforms for the boys had been received. A wash and dry committee for their care was appointed. Boys, not having home insurance, are covered by the league. Mothers being contacted are reminded donations are strictly on a volunteer basis.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Pasquale.

Hong Kong, the home of some 3,800,000 people, including more than a million refugees from Communist China, is the industrial capital of Southeast Asia. The 398-square - mile British Crown Colony makes e v e r y thing from drip-dry shirts and steel bars to cotton cloth and canned fried rice, the National Geographic says. Trustees Accept Bid For Road Maintainer

The lone bid — $5,500 from the Adams Machinery Co. of Salineville — was accepted for a road maintainer when the Liverpool Township trustees m e t Friday in the offices on Ada St., LaCroft.

Guy Digman, president, conducted the session.

The board said that weeds along township roads will be cut this week.

A mutual aid agreement was reached between the board and the Calcutta Fire Department, Digman said.

Bills totaling $924 were paid. The next meeting will be Oct. 20.

Junior Editors Quiz on RADIOCARBON

QUESTION: How can scientists use radiocarbon to date ancient things?

ANSWER: Atomic particles called cosmic rays continually smash certain atoms, causing them to change to radiocarbon. Every living thing takes in this radiocarbon, which starts to decay at once, sending out disintegration rays—this is radioactivity. While plants and animals are alive, the loss caused by radioactivity is replaced by the intake of more radiocarbon. But when they die, no more radiocarbon comes in; disintegration rays, however, still go out, at a definite, known rate. A man, while living, gives off 918 disintegration rays every hour for each gram of radiocarbon his body contains. Now, assume he dies, after 5,000 years, a gram of radiocarbon from his skull would be giving out 459 rays an hour; after 11,000 years, 229 rays and after 44,000 years, about 3 rays an hour. Using a Geiger counter, it is possible to count the rays being emitted. So if we find 3 rays an hour per gram coming from a human skull, we know it is 44,000 years old. Before testing, however, a scientist must reduce a sample of the object being tested to pure carbon; it is from this that the test is made.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Monday, Oct. 9, the 282nd day of 1967. There are 83 days left in the year.

On this date in 1867, Russia formally transferred Alaska to the United States.

On this date:

In 1701, Yale College received its charter.

Ten years ago — The Justice Department accused three of the largest U. S. oil companies of violating federal anti-trust laws.

One year ago — U.S. Navy planes operating over North Vietnam shot down two Mig-21s 35 miles south of Hanoi.

Victorian cooks had a favorite combination: roast beef or broiled steak served with sauteed bananas. A sauce containing horseradish was also usually served with the beef.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 16-year-old girl who has a problem that's too big for me. I don't know quite how to say this so I'll come right out in plain English and tell you that my best frined is a lesbian.

Elsie (which is not her name) moved to our neighborhood last December. She was almost two years older than I but we got along fine. When she began to buy me gifts I felt uncomfortable and told her to please stop, but she kept buying things anyway. When she started telephoning every night to find out what I was doing the next day so she could chauffer me, that really made me uneasy.

My mother asked several questions about Elsie which should have opened my eyes, but I was too dumb to catch on. Mom wondered why Elsie never had a date, why she seemed so possessive of me and why she was so critical of every fellow I went out with.

Last week Elsie slept at my house and I learned the truth. I was dumbfounded and I'm still in a daze. Now I wonder if people think something is wrong with me, too, because I have been so chummy with her.

I hate to be cruel but I don't want Elsie as a best friend any more. Will you please give me a few facts on this subject. It is all such a mystery to me. Should I tell my mother? — SHOOK UP.

Dear Shook: There is no need to tell anyone. Cool the friendship and see Elsie only when others are present. Don't accept any more gifts from her and don't allow her to drive you any place.

Try to understand that the girl's deviate behavior is a result of an emotional illness. She did not choose to be this way. Some lesbians are content, others lead lonely and tortured lives.

I always recommend psychiatric help when such people write to me. Although counseling rarely sets them straight, it gives them insight and it helps them to accept themselves.

Camp Out Dropout

Dear Ann: I'm 60. My husband is 62. For the last 40 years Egbert has gone fishing or hunting every weekend plus every day he has not had to work.

Birthdays, anniversaries, graduations, weddings, church, meant nothing to him. Camping came first, so I accepted the idea and never complained because I knew he loved camping so.

Now that the children are gone Egbert wants me to go camping with him. I've tried to be a good sport but I don't enjoy it one bit. I've gone on a few camping trips and it was such hard work I had to go to bed for two days when we got home.

Loading and unloading camping gear, cooking, dishwashing, fighting insects and listening to animals howl all night is not my idea of relaxation. I'd rather stay at home (where I have good plumbing) and work in my garden.

Egbert is sulking now because I have refused to go with him this weekend. Do you feel I should force myself to go just to be a good wife, as he says? —TIRED BONES.

Dear Bones: No. You have been a good wife for 40 years by allowing Egbert to put camping ahead of everything. Now let him be a good husband and respect your need for comfort.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ten Arrested In Drug Party At Miami Beach

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Police said they found 10 persons at a cool drug party Sunday.

Officers raided an apartment after neighbors complained of noise and the host was nude when he answered the officers' knock.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Albinism though not common, is found among humans and almost all furred, finned and feathered animals; even among reptiles and insects. The albino lacks normal pigment; only the blood retains its sanguine color. Hair, eyes and skin are colorless. Light reflected from the blood in the clear retina makes the eyes look pink.

Capt. William Kidd, famous pirate commander of the Adventure Galley, was taken to England in 1701 and hanged.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 16-year-old girl who has a problem that's too big for me. I don't know quite how to say this so I'll come right out in plain English and tell you that my best frined is a lesbian.

Elsie (which is not her name) moved to our neighborhood last December. She was almost two years older than I but we got along fine. When she began to buy me gifts I felt uncomfortable and told her to please stop, but she kept buying things anyway. When she started telephoning every night to find out what I was doing the next day so she could chauffer me, that really made me uneasy.

My mother asked several questions about Elsie which should have opened my eyes, but I was too dumb to catch on. Mom wondered why Elsie never had a date, why she seemed so possessive of me and why she was so critical of every fellow I went out with.

Last week Elsie slept at my house and I learned the truth. I was dumbfounded and I'm still in a daze. Now I wonder if people think something is wrong with me, too, because I have been so chummy with her.

I hate to be cruel but I don't want Elsie as a best friend any more. Will you please give me a few facts on this subject. It is all such a mystery to me. Should I tell my mother? — SHOOK UP.
